PUBLISHERS AND EDITORS

SATURDAY, JUNE 14, 1913.

A STRANGER was in Kent recently and offered $30,000 for a 200-acre farm near town but the owner refused it. The public can get some idea of the value of Kent land from this incident. We have the finest county in the United States.

IN the light of recent show-downs, Mr. Bowers had better give the names of the characters who took part in that interesting little dialogue concerning Mr. Ahern's and Mr. Turner's political record. If he witholds them, somebody is going to be unkind enough to say that he is indulging in a little farce comedy. There is abundant evidence, on the editorial pages of the Barroll organ, of an effort to be real funny at times, and doubtless as he writes them he emulates his illustrious prototype, in clapping his hands and saying, "Now did I write that? that is real good," or like the musician, Blind Tom.

MR. TURNER'S CREDIBILITY.

If Mr. Howard Turner is telling anybody in this county that he is in favor of the repeal of what the Transcript fanatically calls the "Gibbs Road Law," or any other law, then intelligent people—people who do their own thinking—people who do not depend upon the junior editor of the Barroll organ to think for them, indeed to talk for them—such people will believe what Mr. Turner says.

We make this statement not to commit Mr. Turner to any policy, nor to forecast in the remotest way what Mr. Turner will do. We only seek to place before the public the reliability of two men who are posing as leaders—Mr. Turner—Mr. Bowers.

Mr. Bowers, in his usual indefinite way, says, "We understand" Mr. Turner is telling "some" people that which "some of the Organization candidates" told "some of the voters two years ago," etc, etc.

That's pretty safe kind of talk—that's some talk; that's dealing in speculation with a vengeance.

Then he seeks to discredit Mr. Turner before the people by saying that Mr. Turner will not do what Mr. Bowers really only understands Mr. Turner is saying he will do. We respectfully submit to an intelligent citizenship the standing of these two gentlemen in all matters pertaining to moral or civic virture.

We also submit to a reasonable, a thinking public that this Transcript-named "Gibbs Road Law" is no more the stock in trade of the Organization than it is of the Anti-Organization. It really constitutes, apparently, a most substantial part of the political capital of the Anti-Organization's scribe's weekly write-up; and it looks to a man up a tree, very much as if Mr. Bowers is terribly afraid the people will begin to think his "Gibbs" law will be repealed, and then the "Dr." will be deprived of a very prolific source of political flub-dub.

It would be quite interesting to ask also why the two Anti members of the last legislature voted for the repeal of the "Gibbs" law. The "Dr." would say, doubtless, that Mr. Harris and Mr. Miller were gentlemen at all times imbued with a high sense of political uprightness; that the welfare of their constituency at home was always as the apple of their eyes; and that every move they made was instigated by an impulse of polltical purity.

We do not desire to say them nay; but if you looked through the big end of the telescope you might see the physician-in-chief at the other end; you might see a county board of Commissioners deprived of certain patronage—the fruits of victory; you might see an effort to restore a condition by which the output of the county treasury on roads would go where Mr. Barroll in his infallible political judgment, thinks it would do the most good—in the maws of his Anti-Organization backers. These might be the reasons of such legislative activity on the part of our latest delegation to the State Capitol. Think over it reader.

The Object of the Better Babies Contest.

The Better Babies Contest is a popular yet scientific movement to insure better babies and a better race. While of course there are those persons who will say that the babies of forty years ago were the equals and may be superiors of those raised now, yet the death rate among babies during the past 5 years under three years of age is still apalling. We believe it to be due largely to ignorance of the parents. Hence the Free Dispensaries, Milk Depots etc.

The purpose of the Contest here is to draw attention to the fine grade of babies "born in Kent County and raised here." We are very proud to exhibit our fine live stock and willing to bet money on our fine horses. So why not bring your baby too and show the other fellow just what right living, care and feed will do!

The Contest consists of entering, examining and awarding prizes to children of 3 years or less on exactly the same principals that are applied to live stock shows. Mere beauty of dimples and curly hair does not count. Physical and mental development only are considered.

The Better Babies Contest insures a better race of Americans, because it teaches parents how to improve the physical condition of children already born and to protect those yet unborn.

THE "telephone window display" of Bordley & Sons attracted considerable attention. Carle is an ingenious "dresser."

A TRUE DEMOCRAT.

The question of Mr. Howard Turner's Democracy having been raised by the Chestertown Transcript, a number of Democrats in those parts of both the Second and Third Districts, lying nearest his home and who have been associated with him in the primaries and elections of the Democratic party have answered the question.

The people who can speak most emphatically for a man are those who know him best.

June 10th, 1913

We, the undersigned, Democratic voters of that part of the Second and Third Districts of Kent county, adjacent to Betterton, irrespective of faction, testify to the fact that Howard Turner, of Betterton, Md., has always been known to us as a Democrat, has always affiliated with the Democratic party, and is a man who has always taken an active interest in the welfare and success of the Democratic party, and is entitled to be a candidate in the Democratic primaries.

We are not committed by this statement to support Mr Turner's candidacy in the primary election.

GIVE MARBURY A CHANCE.

The Baltimore Sun is right when it says we do not want to discuss patronage in the Senatorial contest, but should discuss the Democracy of the candidates. Now let us discuss the Democracy of Marbury:

When the party needed him he voted the Republican ticket and supported the candidates of the stand-pat Republican machine of the nation. He swallowed a protective tariff, and everything that went to make a good Republican orator. Now, if you please, we will give him a place in the ranks a while where he can demonstrate his Democracy. His conversion is too sudden to be permanent.—Snow Hill Messenger.

Still Pond Grange will hold a special business meeting on Saturday, June 14 at 8 30 p. m., in the school building. Business of importance to be brought before the Grange.

HOW IS HE BETTER QUALIFIED?

Chestertown, Md., June 10, 1913.

MESSRS EDITORS:

In the Barroll organ last week Mr Charles Kibler was held up as a fine man to represent the farmer and watermen.

We wonder in what capacity our good friend Kibler recognizes himself better—as a farmer or a waterman.

About all the land he possesses, and that only temporarily, is what he presses his foot on, in his daily perambulations; and about all the crop he raises is one that is hardly indigenous to this region, but which a great many raise as he does—and that is tobacco. He raises it from his bag to his pipe like many more of us. We do not make mention of this in order to classify him outside of the 400 or along with the 4, in either class he has lots of company, but simply to call the attention of the farmers to their agricultural candidate for the legislature.

Again, we are called upon to see in Mr. Kibler a waterman. Let it be understood that the gentleman owns a small motor craft, 7 horse-power, goes like the mischief, too. It chug-chugs up and down the river, and he has managed to get quite a deal of pleasure out of it. In season, too, he charters a tomato boat, buys the juicy vegetable from the farmers and freights it to distant ports.

It is good logic to infer, I suppose, that as Mr. Caldwell is a friend to the farmer because he sells them a horse now and then, so Mr. Kibler is a friend to the farmer because he buys their tomatoes and sells them at a profit. And while he is master of a tomato boat he is a full fledged waterman, and has a claim, therefore, on the suffrage of all Kent's bona fide coast-wide citizens. Surely these are wonderful qualifications for representation in legislative halls. Give us more than these qualities, please.
