ROCK HALL NOTES.

Sunday was observed as Rally Day by Rock Hall Sunday School. A fair attendance was present. Rev. Mr. A. B. Dupuy, of the M. P. Church, made a splendid address before the assembly. A feature was a drill, composed of about 20 small children, and conducted by Miss Cora Middleton. Altogether, the occasion was successful.

Tomorrow (Sunday) the District Sunday School Convention will be held here all day and will be conducted by the secretary of the State Sunday School Convention, Rev. B. W. Kindley.

Mrs. Thomas Warran, of Betterton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. F. Sexell.

Mr. B. H. Cobourn and family took an automobile spin through Kent, Cecil and Harford counties, visiting Port Deposit, Havre de Grace, Belair, Romney and other towns.

Mr. C. H. Smith attended the Timonium Fair. As a result he succeeded in selling his horse at a good price.

Mr. J. L. Gale was compelled to chloroform one of his horses on Tuesday because of its colapse after 34 years of service.

Maxwell Lodge of Odd Fellows held an enjoyable social on Wednesday evening, having their favorites as guests. Rev. Mr. Prettyman made the principal address, followed by Capt Wm. R. Coleman with a good talk. Messrs. W. T. Downey and A. J. Andrews furnished songs and Mrs. W. G. Davis presided at the organ. The change of steamer schedule prevented the Grand Officers from being present.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my dear daughter, MAE, who died one year ago today, Sept. 13th, 1912.

Safe in her rest.
No harm shall e'er befall her.
No fears disturb her slumbers calm and deep,
And through the night still in the morn he calls her.
God guards his own beloved while they sleep.

Then darling rest,
Tis but a struggle ended.
A ransomed soul in bonds refused to keep.
An unseen angel to its aid descended
And now God giveth his beloved sleep.

BETTER BABIES CONTEST.

Mrs. Evelyn Harris in the following communication explains some delays, and errors in former Better Babies Contest, held during the recent Fair.

There has been a little delay in getting the premiums off and we feel that an apology is due the parents of the successful babies. We decided so late to get the cups (in fact it was right hard work to get the money collected to pay for them, and in fact we must have it in hand before we made a purchase) that the jewelers had to telegraph the orders. Then they did not get them in time to do any engraving before the show. With their other work too, they have gotten them done so soon as could be expected and we know all were pleased with them. Mr. J. H. Sides kindly consented to letter the certificates and they also are distributed.

Jefferson & Bros. gave the championship cup to Brown M. Roe. Wm. Medders & Co. to John J. Edwards. Kent County Pomona Grange, Paul Henry Harrison, Clara Eunice Bramble.

The rest of the money came from a long list of contributors all merchants and public spirited citizens who are trying by this means to advance the Better Babies cause.

Paul Henry Harrison received a cup because his average was two full points ahead of any Kent county baby. While he himself is not a Maryland boy, his mother was a Kent county woman and she is living up to the ideas of Kent. We hope by this small token of appreciation to persuade her to let Paul Henry live here now all the time.

Little Virginia Jester deserves special mention for her splendid average 94. She is the daughter of a Queen Anne's woman who is so close to Kent that we consider her our baby after all.

The score cards will be mailed in a few days. Some of us did work so hard for this show that we neglected home, health and husband! We have been trying to "catch up" a little, also can save too, so the score cards have been laid aside. They also will be mailed to all within one week's time.

The list of doctors published were the ones who were willing to help if they could. The names of the ones who actually sweated and worked were: Drs. Norman Dudley, Harry Simpers, Frank Hines, W. G. Coppage and I Nurkin.

The ladies assisting were: Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., Mrs. W. W. Beck, Mrs. S. Scott Beck, Mrs. Chas. R. Twilley, Mrs. W. B. Copper, Mrs. C. E. Crane, Mrs. H. F. Jefferson, Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, Mrs. H. L. Boyd, Mrs. Harvey B. Moore, Miss Adele France, Miss Helen Urie, Miss Louise Urie, Miss Isabel Beck, Miss Anna Smyth, Miss Cora Harding.

Signed, Mrs. Evelyn Harris.
