of Richard Horrocks late of the Land of Lord Alex Houghton Esquire Deceased that Thomas Larkin Esq may have in the presence of the Deputy of Begining with the particulars of Cloth made free allowed of both parties Land pended from whence the plaintiff the Cloth one hundred pieces the Length which he alleaged to be the Length fifty yards Bordered to some Cloth when he [illegible] Land to the West

Court house in the said County

And now this day Did 1708 to wit this day the May by writt of adjournment from Court
the said John Respell at the the Sheriff hath not Dell his warr it is Given to the Sheriff of Here called the Plaintiff