JOB WORK,

Neatly Executed at this OFFICE.

Opinion of the Clergymen.

THE UNDERSIGNED have used J. Pease & Son's Compound Extract of Hoarhound Candy, and freely recommend it to those afflicted with Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, and Consumptive complaints, nothing an excellent remedy in these cases, and to our brethren the use of the voice professionally can equal it. We recommend it to our brethren throughout the Country.

Reverend I. Todd, recent pastor of M. E. Church, Crawford, pastor of the second Church, Hudson, N. Y.

Reverend Mr. Lucky, presiding elder, New York Conference.

Reverend Mr Whitaker, pastor of Presbyterian Church, corner of Madison and Catherine sts.

Reverend W. C. Hawley, chaplain at city Hospital.

Reverend Mr. Giffen, pastor of M. E. Church, Bedford st.

Reverend Mr. Hartt, recent pastor of Baptist Church, Gold st, residence 521, Pearl st.

THE OPINION OF PHYSICIANS.

Detroit, Oct. 14, 1844.

Dear Sirs,—Please be so good as send me twenty of your large packages of Hoarhound Candy. I was a sceptic as to its value, as I saw its cures recorded in the public press, but I must in future say, that use has convinced me of my error; I have tried it, and must say that nothing in a practice of twenty years has equalled it in the cure of croup and whooping cough, I am with great respect,

H. REDFIELD, M D

To Messrs J. Pease & Son.

Philadelphia, Feb'y 12, 1844.

Gents—I have recently used your Essence of Hoarhound Candy with great effect in cases of whooping cough, hoarseness, and your candy is easily taken by children; and I think I may safely say, that I never knew so valuable a medical compound under so pleasant a guise—it combines the healing, laxative, and tonic, in just proportions; and it is to be recollected, that the beauty of medicine consists in a proper combination.—I should think in all complaints of the lungs, weakness of limbs, appression, or other complaints, arising originally from a cold and chilled state of the system, your candy would be found as useful a specific as exists. I am, gentlemen, your most ob'nt serv't,

J. C. DAVIS, M D

To Messrs J. Pease & Son.

Brooklyn, Dec'r 27, 1844.

Gents—I deem it but justice to you, however unprofessional the act may be considered, to apprise you that I have had for two months past a person under my charge labouring under the influence of consumption, evidently produced by the effects of early intemperance.

When I had exhausted all professional remedies I yielded to the patient's desire to allow Pease's Hoarhound Candy to be used.—I must say that it was the only thing that saved his life. Justice requires this tribute to your discovery.

H. HUNTER, M D

Messrs. J. Pease & Son, 45 Division st.—

I was last winter painfully afflicted with a soreness of the chest, and also a hoarseness. I thought my voice was entirely gone, until relieved by your Clarified Essence of Hoarhound Candy.

Impurity of Blood Causes Pain, and occasions

Disease upon that part of the body which from any cause may be weakest. Thus, in persons whose blood is impure, should they have a cold, the impure matter would settle upon their lungs, and consumption be the trouble; so with other affections.—All trouble is saved by using the Brandreth's Pills, which cannot injure, and which cannot be overdone. Only use them in the commencement of anydisease, use them in full doses, and you will be up and well, while those who are too wise to take such a simple medicine, are bed ridden, or prematurely end their days. The Brandreth Pills are only beginning to be appreciated; they are found never to deceive; they are the only internal medicine required in this climate. Be careful of pretended universal purgatives, which cannot be used without injury to the body as Brandreth's Pills can. What are they? Are they not imitations of the Brandreth Pills recommend in advertisements stolen from Dr. Brandreth? Were they not originally counterfeit pills purporting to be the genuine Brandreth Pills? But in consequence of the new labels on the Brandreth Pill boxs, are they not obliged to come out under others equally false? Observe the makers and travelling agents? Are they not men whom Dr. Brandreth has cast off,—not for good conduct, truly? Is not this true as applicable to the pretended "Indian," and, in fact, to nearly all the advertised pills of the day? Shall the public trust their lives in the hands of these unprincipled men? Surely not. The Brandreth Pills give strength for weakness, they are liked best by those who have taken the most of them. Dr. Brandreth can give personal reference to thousands who have been restored from a bed of sickness by their use, when every other means had proved entire unavailing. These cases are continually occurring in this city, and in every part of the Union. Get Brandreth's Pills if you are not perfectly healthy, and they will restore you if medicine can do it; because they expel those humors which are the cause of impurity of the blood, and, at the same time, the body is strengthened by the operation of this most excellent medicine. Dr Brandreth's Principal Office, 241 Broadway, New York, with English, French, German, Spanish and Portuguese directions, and by one agent in every place of importance throughout the world, each agent having a certificate of agency from Dr. Brandreth, having fac-similes of labels on the Brandreth Pill boxes engraved thereon.

To be had of the following agents in Kent county:

LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS.

The Life Medcines have been used with success in almost every disease to which mankind is subject, and for billious and liver complaints, with their many well known attendants, oppression and sick headache, dizziness, singing after meals, giddiness, pain in the head and ears, drowsiness, heartburn, loss of appetite, wind spasms, &c.

The efficacy of the Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters is most certainly given on the attack of fever, influenza, measles, sore throat, recent colds, with cough, and other, inflammatory disorders. In rheumatism and chronic complaints they have also performed the most extraordinary cures, when used with perseverence.

Poverty of blood, and emaciated limbs are long meet the happiest change; the chill watery fluid will become rich and balsamic, and the limbs be covered with flesh—firm and healthy.

Nervous disorders of every kind, and from whatever cause arising, fly before the effects of the Life Medicines, and all that train of sinking, anxieties, and tremours which so dreadfully affect the weak, the sedentary, and the delicate, will in a short time be succeeded by cheerfulness, and every presage of health.

Notice.

To all persons who have not as yet settled their respective accounts, due to my bro. the late John W. Walker, dec'd, by note or otherwise. The Stamp Act, passed last session, will shortly go into operation and subject the estate to considerable expence unless the open accounts due the estate are settled by note. I will as Administrator of my brother, esteem it as a particular favour of all those persons indebted on open account if they will come in and settle their respective dues by note or otherwise, as soon as possible. I am desirous to make a return to the Orphans' Court, of the debts due the estate and am only prevented by the unsettled claims on the books. I am frequently absent from town and have left the books and accounts with A. W Sparks, who is authorised to make settlements and receive payments.

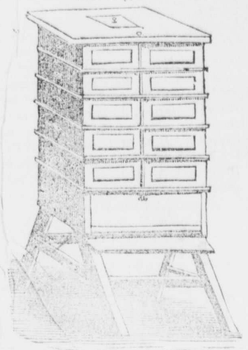
The greatest improvement of the Age



Endless Bee Hives:

Presenting considerations to the Agricultural and Citizen for its economy, profitable results, for its increased and pure production of an article of domestic comfort or luxury, as well as of health, and for its accordance with the principles of humanity.

An invention is now presented to the public, which, from combining the above qualities, has received the uniform approbation of multitudes of practical and scientific individuals, since its being approved and recorded in the State Department at Washington. The improvements which are claimed for it in confident boldness over all others, are founded upon those correct principles, that will be evident at a single glance of the apparatus. A partial examination thereof will convince not only the intelligent cultivator of these interesting and instructive insects, of its excellent adaptation to their well being and comfort, but likewise will prove to the casual observer, that perhaps no invention of modern times will afford a surer and greater profit in a pecuniary view, whilst yielding, at the same time, to those curious in nature's economy, that extensive knowledge of this branch of it, which cannot be obtained by any other means at present employed.—With the farmer, it will be evident that the Hive now offered has advantages which he would not be willing to forego at any cost; and with the resident of our towns and cities, there will be the conviction, that he has now afforded him an opportunity, at his leisure, of observing the constitution, government, and operations of a community of insects that have, in all ages and countries, been the wonder and admiration of every one from the philosopher to the unlettered. Wherever exhibited, the invention has called universal approval, and by whomsoever tried, a spontaneous commendation has proceeded from him.—Testimonials of its excellence are possessed by the proprietors in countless numbers; and in those portions of the United States where the hive has been introduced, but one sentiment can be found existing, which is, that in every particular of its claims, it most fully and triumphantly comes up to it.

The ease with which the accumulated honey can be removed, and this, too, without injury to a single insect, or without disturbing the bee brood, the young bees, or empty Comb.—Had the invention no other claim to notice or patronage, this virtue which it possesses would be sufficient to secure its universal approval. Who that has ever been cognizant of the fact, that, according to the usual mode of cruelly destroying a whole commonwealth of bees in order to procure the result of their labors, but must know that he is indebted for the enjoyment of a nectared sweet, by proofs which must give no small pain to any breast for the inhuman act? Is he not almost inclined to forego the luxury spread before him, when reminded that he owes it to such barbarity! This now is no longer necessary! Not a bee is harmed; whilst the cultivator can increase his stock from the parent hive, and of course to an unlimited extent, the precious products of their industrious toil.

The subscriber having obtained of the patentees the exclusive right to make, use, and sell the right to make, use, and sell to others
