THE OLD BUTCHER

Informs the public generally, (after 22 years, strict attention to the butchering business,) that he still keeps on hand a large supply of nice fresh and salt BEEF, every day (Sundays' excepted,) at his store, on high street, opposite Carl L. Lindberg's Hotel, and on Wednesday's and Saturday's at No. 10, in the Market House in Chester Town. The citizens are invited to call and judge for themselves; and the Farmers and country friends who come to buy bargains will do well to give him a call as I intend selling at short profits. I also would wish to thank my friends generally, for past favours, particular my female friends to whom I attribute my advancement.

Your humble servant,
JAMES A. JONES.

A Valuable Farm for Sale.

The subscriber wishing to change his residence in Quaker Neck, will dispose of at private sale, if early application be made, his FARM on which he resides, containing about lying beautifully on Chester river, and about 7 miles by land 9 by water from Chester Town. The location of this Farm is not surpassed by any on the river. It is healthy and the neighborhood good.

The land is of excellent quality, having large quantities of shell, and mould intermixed, and is highly productive. There is now on the farm, a quantity of shell, easy of access, which will furnish an abundance of lime to cover the entire plantation. There is also a quantity of shell mould ready for hauling and more than sufficient to spread over the whole Farm.

The Dwelling which cost $1700 to erect, it may be put in a good comfortable order, at a reasonable expense.

This land is so situated that a few hundred pannels of fencing will inclose it.—Oysters, Fish and Fowl may be generally had in great abundance in season.

THE TERMS will be made accommodating. George Vickers, Esq. of Ches-Town, will give any further information that may be desired, or application can be made on the premises to
