Happenings at the Bayside During What Farmers and Fruit Men Are These Hot Days.

Spencer Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, residing near Greys Inn, was run over and seriously injured by one of the wagons of the Strawboard Company on Tuesday morning last. The wagon was driven by a Mr. Cole. The accident seems to have been a piece of utter carelessness on the part of some one. The child had the left hip and knee dislocated and the left leg broken between the knee and thigh. Dr. Selby attended the little sufferer.

Columbus Ashley, son of Joseph Ashley, and Miss Gussie Crouch, daughter of Washington Crouch, of Piney Neck, were married at the residence of the bride's parents on Wednesdey evening last, Rev. Mr. Morris officiating.

Charles Caple, formerly of Piney Neck, this county, died at his residence near Broad Creek, Queen Anne county, on Monday morning last. The body was brought to Kent for interment funeral services at Piney Neck M. E Church, Rev. Mr. Morris officiating.

Miss Ida Wood, teacher of Skinner's Neck public school, attended the State Teachers' Institute at Chautauqua Beach. Miss Mary Hodges, of Piney Neck, is an applicant for the position of assistant teacher at Piney Neck school, vice Miss Culp resigned.

Samuel Frazier, son of the late Capt. Frazier, was found dead in the woods near his home on Tuesday evening of last week.

Julia, infant daughter of Harry and Estelle Webb, died on Tuesday evening, Summer boarders are beginning to make their annual exodus from the city. Mrs. Ayres, Mrs. Maslin, Mrs. Miller, of Chesapeake House, and others, are entertaing the summer guests.

Miss Sarah Janey, of Worton, is visiting Mrs. Marion Downey, of Rock Hall. A lawn fete was held on the grounds attached to the Chesapeake House, by the ladies of the Wesley Chapel M. P. church, Thursday evening last.

Miss Nita Maslin has returned home from a visit paid to friends in Baltimore. Croquet seems to grow in favor each successive year and the young people protract the game into the night hours assisted by the light of lanterns, etc. Mr. James A. Greenwood, Capt. Wm. ON THE FARM.

Mr. John E. Morris is one of the big croppers of the present season. His wheat yield was 35 bushels per acre on fallow, and 30 bushels per acre on corn ground. His total crop was 3,100 bushels. In one day Mr. Morris threshed

1723 bushels. Mr. Josiah Massey got 2600 bushels as his wheat crop this year, or just 600

Mr. J. B. Newnam, on the Collins farm near town, has been the most extensive peach shipper as yet from Chestertown. Mr. Newnam picked one hnndred baskets on Monday, and has picked as many baskets several days since. His shipments this week will run nearly to the five-hundred-basket mark.

bushels more than he expected.

Mr. John Brice, Jr., of the fifth district, has shipped some of the finest fruit shipped from Kent this season. Mr. Brice's rule is to let his fruit ripen on the trees, and he contends that the difference in price between green fruit and that temptingly colored, well-ripened fruit is substantially shown in his return of sales.

The TRANSCRIPT is indepted to Mr. Beauchamp, of Brice's mill, for a sample of new-wheat flour. The flour sent was as sweet as that made from the highest of most grades of old wheat, and was as fine as the finest.

The first new wheat received at Top ping's Chestertown flouring mill came in on June 28. The first received last year was on June 26.

The following self-explanatory letter from the manager of the Delaware State College will doubtless be of interest to Kent county farmers: "We finished threshing wheat this morning. The wheat is perfectly dry and threshed well. The yield was as follows: Eclipse, 118 bushels; ground measurement, three acres; Curl's Prolific,446 bushels, ground measurement sixteen acres; total yield, 564 bushels, field measurement; nineteen

Mr. P. G. Wilmer averaged a fraction over 30 bushels per acre on 120 acres.

BETTERTON ITEMS.

Fishermen have already edjoyed some rare sport on the Betterton grounds. Capt. James T. Crew has been one of the successful ones, while of course Capt. Harvey Brice has brought in some of the finest catches of the year. Capt. Wm. Crew has caught one of the finest lots of the season. He astonished some amateur lovers of the sport by bringing ashore several peach baskets full to over flowing, among the lot being about twenty fine rock. Mr. Clarence Crew and others have made some fine catches. Miss Beauchamp, a school friend, has been the guest of Miss Stella Crew. Miss Duhammell, of Cecil, has been visiting Miss Elsie Crew. She returned to her home on Monday accompanied by Miss Elsie.
