Born to Good Luck!

THE extraordinary success of one of our customers the past week is an instance wherein good luck is indeed a Fortune! In Grand Consolidated Lottery, class 4, drawn Saturday, 18th January, there was FIVE CAPITALS OF $20,000!

On Wednesday previous to the drawing, this costomer, out of a full package, selected ticket Nos. 5 10 20, and at the time insisted that it would draw $20,000. He then gave us an order to get him all the tickets we could find having one of those Nos. on, which we did to the amount of $500. Nos. 5 10 20, whole ticket drew $20 000, cost $10 and netted $17.000 dollars! He had 6 other 3 No. prizes in the same drawing. On Monday following he drew one of $1.000 and one of $300; on Tuesday a $1.000; on Wednesday morning, the capital of $3.000, Nos. 40 49 58, in Small Fry; and on Wednesday evening, a $500 and 250 prize. In the space of six days this most fortunate of adventurers drew 18 three Nos. prizes—among them Two Grand Capitals of 20,000 dollars, whole ticket, and 3 000 dollars. This is the glorious luck of Miller & Co's office. Well may we boast of our extraordinary success in prize selling when such brilliant returns as is here recorded are made by Miller & Co. to one customer.

Glory Enough for One Week; $25 000!

In round numbers, is the profit actually pocketed above all expenditure by one customer, in the short space of 6 days from purchases made at Miller & Co's.

ENCOURAGING.

The beautiful run of luck in the sale of Magnificent Prizes that attends Miller & Co. is enough to encourage every buyer to renewed exertion. Fortune though fickle to-day, to-morrow smiles upon you. Every man has his fortunate period in life, at the opportune moment all he touches turns to gold, in a word successful in every thing. This fact is exemplified in the case of the gentleman who drew 5 10 20 the $20 000 prize—it made no difference what ticket he bought, prizes he would draw!

Good Fortune was Buckled on his Back!

To one person have Miller & Co. sold 18 three No. prizes in 6 days, and two of them capitals. This fortunate individual is Captain Swandberg, well known throughout the Eastern Shore, and will himself tell of his great Success Miller & Co. do not mention names of customers, but in this instance the Lucky Captain cares not who knows of his great Luck with Miller & Co. Miller & Co. contend that they are the Great Prize Sellers—the Captain says he is the lucky man! who will contest the fact with him, in the face of 18 prizes in 6 days and 2 of them them the capitals of 20,000 and 3.000 dollars.

It is MILLER & Co. who are making the people rich One man clears 25,000 dollars in 6 days on investment at their office.

LEAD THE CITY—LEAD THE UNION!—LEAD THE WORLD IN PRIZE SELLING!

There never was such Great Success known as has been seen at Miller & Co's the past month. Not a day goes over but that many of our city and distant customers have had the good luck to pocket a fortune or a handsome prize.

For a Fortune, or at least a good Prize, in the following grand Lotteries, address your orders to Miller & Co., who will furnish adventurers the result of their investments immediately after the drawing:

On the 18th day of March, 1851, draws BELLE AIR LOTTERY, CLASS 16—the Capitals are:
$20,000, 4 of $5000 each! 4 of $2,500 20 of $600 each, &c.
Tickets $5; Halves $2½; Quarters $1¼.

For Tuesday 25th day of March, PATAPSCO CLASS 97—Capitals $4,000: $1,355, $1000, &c. Tickets $1.

Extraordinary Lotteries for the 29th March;

More Prizes than Blanks; 15 Prizes in 26 Tickets!

RICH AND GLORIOUS PRIZES!
$75,000, $50,000, $25,000, $12,000.
$8,098, 40 of $1,800, 40 of $1,500.

PICTORIAL LIFE & ADVENTURES
OF
GUY FAWKES,
The Chief of the Gunpowder Treason,
BY WILLIAM HARRISON AINSWORTH,

AUTHOR of "The Pictorial Life and Adventures of Jack Sheppard," "The Tower of London," "Life of Dick Turpin," "Old St. Paul's," &c., &c. Complete in one large octavo volume of 212 pages—Price Fifty cents. Embellished with 24 full page, spirited illustrations, designed and engraved in the finest style of art, by George Cruikshank, Esq., of London.

This Edition of the work contains every word of the complete English Edition, unabridged, and all the illustrations entire, of the same size, and fac-simile with the London Illustrated Edition, published in London, in three large octavo volumes, and which sells in Europe at Five Dollars a copy. It is the only complete and unabbridged edition of the Life and Adventures of Guy Fawkes ever published in the United States. It has been got up by the publisher at an immense cost, the engravings alone having cost several hundred dollars.

It is one of the most interesting and absorbing works ever written, and it lays bare in bold relief one of the worst conspiracies ever planned and encocted in the known world. It will be read and re-read with pleasure and satisfaction by every one, and our advice is to all, if you want to get the worth of your money, to send and get this work. It is Ainsworth's best book, no one will ever regret buying it.

Copies of the above valuable and interesting work will be sent to any one on receipt of remittances addressed to the Publisher.

Published and for sale by T. B. PETERSON, No 98 Chesnut Street, Philadelphia, to whom all orders must be addressed.
