COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.

THE undersigned, Collector for the County, State and other Taxes, for Kent County, has appointed the following persons, Deputy Collectors for the respective districts in the said County to wit:

For the Lower or first election District James H. Edes Esq.—For the Middle or second election district Thomas Lusby Esq.—For the Upper or third election district John T. Hurtt Esq The Assessments and Levies have been made, and the Collectors are now authorized to proceed and close their respective districts. The liabilities of the County are large and some of them pressing. The State Tax is considerable and payments are required semi monthly, under penalties. The Collectors are therefore authorized and have full power to close their collections as soon as possible. I cannot interfere in any case between the Collectors and persons indebted, and none will therefore apply to me; my arrangements with my Collectors will preclude me from any interference to delay a single day in any case.

Unless accounts are paid off before the first day of January next interest will be charged from the first day of September '51 A deduction on account of State Tax, will be made if payments are promptly tendered. The earlier the payment, the larger the deduction.

The public are earnestly requested to make prompt payments.
