Negro Snatched $10 Note.-When the Louise, of the Tolchester Steamboat Company, was ready to leave for Baltimore last Friday, James C. Woodall, of Crumpton, asked Joshua Thompson, colored, of Queen Annes, to hold his team. Woodall then took out his BUSINGS pocketbook to extract some notes, and Thompson, it is said, grabbed a $10 bill and ran aboard the Louise. Detectives Lancaster and Porter, of Baltimore headquarters, were on the boat and got a description of the man. Shortly I'am prepared to attend and direct funerals afterward they saw Thompson leaning over the rail and pointed him out to Mr. Woodall, who identified the negro as the note snatcher. Thompson was turned over to the county authorities.
