WE will pay particular attention to selling Tobacco Grain &c. Also to purchasing Clover Seed, Plaster, Guano Coal, Lime, Bone Dust, &c.

May 29, 1852.

Baltimore, May 24, 1852.

Having this day associated ourselves in the Grocery and Commission business, under the firm of Coleman & Richardson, we take this method of informing our friends in the country, that our intentions are to sell at the lowest cash prices, Groceries of all kinds and of the best qualities. Also, a Commission and Produce Store, for the benefit of Farmers residing on the Eastern and Western Shores; so that produce of all kinds may be consigned to us with safety, and the proceeds remitted promptly as ordered by Captains of vessels, or owners of produce may require. We intend charging a small commission on all marketing, so that the Farmers will get more for their produce than they have been getting heretofore.

We shall also pay strict attention to the sale of Tobacco, Grain and Country Produce generally, also the purchasing of Clover Seed, Plaster Guano, Lime, Coal, Bone Dust, Ashes, &c., and we respectfully solicit your consignments or Orders, assuring all that no effort shall be spared on our part to give entire satisfaction.
