HON. HENRY CLAY.—The following extract is taken from a sermon of the Rev. Theodore Clapp, of New Orleans, on worship. It derives additional interest from the extreme illness under which Mr Clay is suffering:

"The mail lately brought us the melancholy intelligence that the Hon Henry Clay is about to sink into the grave.—The last winter of his residence here, in the family of Dr. Mercer, in a private interview, I had the the pleasure of listening to his sentiments on the most interesting of all subjects, religion. He said, 'I believe in the truth of Christianity, though I am not certain of having experienced that change of heart which divines call the new birth. But I trust in God and Jesus, and hope for immortality. I have not for years retired at night without prayer for the blessing of Heaven; and that, in His infinite mercy he would be pleased to prepare me for the joys of another and better world.—I have tried the world and found its emptiness. It cannot fill and satisfy the human mind. My dear sir, how utterly disconsolate should we be without something better beyond the grave!"

ABOLITIONISM.—Benjamin F. Hallet, elected chairman of the National Democratic Committee by the Baltimore Convention, is the author of the following resolution passed by a meeting in Massachusetts, in which it took a prominent part:

"Resolved. That we are opposed to slavery in any form and COLOR and IN FAVOR OF FREEDOM and FREE SOIL WHEREVER MAN LIVES THROUGHOUT GOD'S HERITAGE."

THE GAINES CASE REVIVED.—An advertisement, signed by Mrs Myra Clarke Gaines, has appeared in one of the New Orleans papers, under date of May 19, 1852, giving notice that she is about to commence proceedings in the probate court of that city for the recovery of the estate of her father, the late Daniel Clarke, under the devise made by him in 1813; instituting her as his legitimate and only daughter—his universal devisee; and warning all persons from purchasing any portions of the said, or from acquiring titles under the present holders or purchasers

F. E. FOREMAN,

PRODUCE & COMMISSION MERCHANT
BALTIMORE.

THE undersigned begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he is still at the old stand No. 93½ Light st. Wharf, opposite the wharf of the steamers Hugh Jenkins and Ostris, and within a few yards of the wharfs of the steamers Champion, Cecil and Dupont, being the most central place for an Eastern Shore Depot for trade and business of all kinds, and to travelling community that can be found; and where the undersigned has succeeded in building up a market for all kinds of trade that the farmers of the Eastern Shore may send to our market, and from his promptness and business capacity he flatters himself to be able to please all who will patronize him.

He will sell grain of all kinds—Fruit, such as Peaches, Apples, Plums, &c.—Potatoes will receive his special attention, and all kinds of produce will be made to bring the highest market prices. He will also fill all orders for merchandise or farmers, (accompanying the cash) with despatch, for Groceries, Lumber, Lime, Plaster, Bacon, Flour, Guano, Clover seed, &c., &c. at the lowest price. He wishes the public to bear in mind that having five years experience in the active part of the above business, that their property has not been, nor shall be sacrificed, if consigned to me, and that prompt sales and honest returns will invariably be made, as heretofore, that he has as much store room as can be found on the wharf, to store whatever may be so ordered, and at the same time keep as much goods constantly on hand in this city; and it is well known that I have labored hard to build up a house, yes the house for the interest of trade, and by so doing, Produce has acquired a notoriety not before possessed, and the interest of farmers has been promoted. I therefore solicit the patronage of a generous public.

The public's obedient servant.

WE will pay particular attention to selling Tobacco Grain &c. Also to purchasing Clover Seed, Plaster, Guano Coal Lime, Bone Dust, &c.

May 29, 1852.

Baltimore, May 24, 1852.

Having this day associated ourselves in the Grocery and Commission business, under the firm of Coleman & Richardson, we take this method of informing our friends in the country, that our intentions are to sell at the lowest cash prices, Groceries of all kinds and of the best qualities. Also, a Commission and Produce Store, for the benefit of Farmers residing on the Eastern and Western Shores; so that produce of all kinds may be consigned to us with safety, and the proceeds remitted promptly as ordered by Captains of vessels, or owners of produce may require. We intend charging a small commission on all marketing, so that the Farmers will get more for their produce than they have been getting heretofore.

We shall also pay strict attention to the sale of Tobacco, Grain and Country Produce generally, also the purchasing of Clover Seed, Plaster Guano, Lime Coal, Bone Dust, Ashes, &c, and we respectfully solicit your consignments or Orders, assuring all that no effort shall be spared on our part to give entire satisfaction.
