F. E. FOREMAN,

PRODUCE & COMMISSION MERCHANT
BALTIMORE.

THE undersigned begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he is still at the old stand No. 93½ Light st. Wharf, opposite the wharf of the steamers Hugh Jenkins and Osiris, and within a few yards of the wharfs of the steamers Champion, Cecil and Dupont, be ing the most central place for an Eastern Shore Depot for trade and business of all kinds, and to travelling community that can be found; and where the undersigned has succeeded in building up a market for all kinds of trade that the farmers of the Eastern Shore may send to our market, and from his promptness and business capacity he flatters himself to be able to please all who will patronize him.

He will sell grocery of all kind—Fruit, such as Peaches, Apples, Plums, &c—Potatoes will receive his special attention and all kinds of produce will be made to bring the highest market prices. He will also fill all orders for merchants or farmers, (accompaning the cash) with despatch, for Groceries, Lumber, Lime, Plaster, Bacon, Flour, Guano, Clover seed, &c., &c. at the lowest price. He wishes the public to bear in mind that having five years experience in the active part of the above business, that their property has not been, nor shall be sacrificed, if consigned to me, and that prompt sales and honest returns will invariably be made, as heretofore, that he has as much store room as can be found on the wharf, to store whatever may be ordered, and at the same time keep as much goods constantly on hand in this city; and it is well known that I have labored hard to build up a house for the interest of trade, and by so doing, Produce has acquired a notoriety not before possessed, and the interest of farmers has been promoted. I therefore solicit the patronage of a generous public.

The public's obedient servant
F. E. FOREMAN.
