THE MORAL EFFECT OF BEING INSURED

Have you ever stopped to think that to be insured makes us bettermorally better? It is the performance of a duty—the fulfillment of a natural desire—the protecting of our own. It calls for the payment of money-a sacrifice-and without sacrifices the world would be a desert. Nothing is more uplifting or has a greater moral effect upon our daily life than the knowledge of duty done, and the greater the sacrifice, the greater the blessings that will surely follow. The moral effect of being insured, with everything guaranteed and made certain, is often greater than the policyholder realizes.

Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early s they should be.

There is no better time than right now-just before the busiest season on the farm-to go over your mach ines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly. Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list
