DEATHS.

At the Head of Sassafras, on Sunday last, of pneumonia, Mr. James Clayton, Inn-keeper.

Departed this life, at her residence, in George Town X Roads, on Tuesday the 27th ult., Mrs. A. M. Scott, relict of the late Dr. Edwd. Scott, in the 74th year of her age.

In this visitation of Divine Providence, our community has lost a kind and useful neighbor, the Church, a good member, and her family, a devoted and fond mother. During almost fifty years, she sustained an honorable position in the church of her choice, being ever assiduous and active in the discharge of her christian duties. Christian philanthropy, was one of the distinguished traits of her character and life.—Distress and affliction never made a vain appeal to her heart. It always seemed to be her delight, as a ministering angel, to seek out the afflicted and administer to them the balm of christian sympathy and active benevolence.

The purity of her life and the consistency of her christian deportment, are facts in her history which all have seen, who were permitted to enjoy her acquaintance. She anticipated and spoke of her approaching dissolution with the utmost composure and christian confidence; and the only cause of her solitude, was the absence of her sons in the distant West, who in the prosecution of their varied business were some 500 or 2000 miles from the home of their childhood, and embrace of a fond and expiring mother.

She rests by the side of her honored and much loved husband, there to await the resurrection of the just. J. W. P.

To all whom it may Concern:

The creditors of James L. Bowers, who are interested in the sale advertised in another part of this paper, are requested to be present, at the sale on Wednesday next.

URMY CORN SHELLERS.

SUBSTANTIALLY made and thoroughly bolted together, constructed so as to be worked by hand or horse power, for sale by dec 27, '56. T. W. ELIASON.

Notice.

I OFFER on easy terms, or will exchange for other property, my WHARF, GRANARY and the Lot of Ground adjoining, at Betterton, mouth of Sassafras river.

Also the Schooners "BLOOMFIELD," 3 years old, & "SARAH SOPHIA," 4 years old, prime vessels in the hull, and sails rigging in good condition—now in good order for carrying grain, &c. Capacity of 'Bloomfield' about 3000 bushels, under deck—'Sarah Sophia,' 1500.

The wharf built in 1855, on piles in the most substantial manner—has since been protected against ice &c. by a series of breakwaters and pens of stone, renderiag it capable of sustaining a powerful pressure. Granary 30 feet square with 3 stories and attic—capable of storing some 6 to 8000 bushels of grain by increasing the garners. Lot of ground, about 2 acres

To an energetic person with some capital, who would devote his entire attention to the business, the above presents a favorable opening; as the place is an improving one and located right upon the Bay, witin 1½ miles of the great thoroughfare of freight and passenger travel from Philadelphia to Baltimore, must ultimately command a large share of business denied by remote position to many other localities.

In case of sale of vessels only, the Granary and privilege of wharf will be rented and the subscriber will attend thereto, if desired, assisting by such influence and freighting as he may control or possess.

To my friends and customers who have so kindly sustained me the past year and previously, in a public enterprise, I return my heartfelt thanks and inform them that should I not succeed in selling my vessels they will be run as heretofore and my efforts given to promote the interests of all who may confide their business to my care.

Advances made on Grain to be shipped within a specified time, and consignments respectfully solicited.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!!

THE 'RISING SUN" SALOON

JUST OPENED!

THE undersigned has opened an OYSTER HOUSE in Chestertown, on Fish street, (running up from the Bridge,) in the rear of the Court House: where he has fitted up a Saloon in City Style, and will serve up Oyster in the best manner. As for my cooking, it is useless to mention, as all who have eaten any oysters served up by my father or myself, know that they "can't be beat." All I ask is to give me a trial. As I have been at considerable expense in fitting up my Saloon I hope to receive a liberal patronage. Don't forget in the rear of the Court House. The public's obt. servt.
