The Kent News.

SATURDAY . . . MARCH 29, 1873.

THE LOCAL OPTION VOTE IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The returns from the election in Pennsylvania for and against local option in liquor traffic, show that the opposition to license of the sale of liquor in the different counties is very generally defeated. The Philadelphia Press, commenting on the result, says:

"The election on Friday last, for and against license, throughout Pennsylvania, proved that while the sentiment of the people is strongly in favor of abolishing the manufacture and sale of vinous, spirituous and malt liquors, it is not strong enough to accomplish the thing itself.—But we do not regard these elections as a test of temperance sentiment. There are thousands of men all over the State who did not vote, and yet who feel that intemperance is an evil—who are opposed to drunkenness, and who yet seriously and conscientiously doubt the practicability of sumptuary laws to eradicate the evil. There are upon the statute books of Pennsylvania laws of sufficient stringency to regulate the sale of liquor and abate the evils of intemperance. But the great trouble is that what are called zealous temperance men will not interest themselves in having these laws enforced; that they will not undertake, in the proper legal manner, the prosecution of those who violate the law in the traffic in liquor."

AN ADMIRABLE RETORT.—Senator Bayard, of Delaware, one of the ablest, truest and most efficient members of the U. S. Senate, in a recent speech upon the Louisiana muddle, andministered the following rebuke to the Radicals:

"Your political party has had in these ten years unlimited control of every branch of the Federal Government, Congress has made and unmade the State governments in the South at will, and there is no element of misgovernment for which your party majority are not responsible. The mingled web of ignorance and fraud, of corruption and venality, of rapacity and crime, in whose meshes those unhappy communities are vainly struggling, was woven by your hands alone. And when you cannot untie it, you call in the sword to cut it.

"Such has been since the war closed the history of your rule; such it will continue to be until the whole basis of your rule is changed, and you cease to sustain ignorance and vice in their contest with the virtue and intelligence of those communities."

THE DEAD ALIVE.—"Bismark, Jr.," the Parkersburg correspondent of the Clarksburg, W. Va., Sun, under date of 10th instant, relates the following story, for the truth of which he vouches:

George Powell, son of Benjamin Powell, Esq., of Doddridge county, W. Va., enlisted in the army during the late war. In the year 1863, if we are not mistaken, his father received word that George was dead. His clothing, etc., was forwarded to his saddened parents; his estate was administered upon, and the proceeds of the same duly forwarded to his father by humane friends. In due time a funeral discourse was preached by Rev. Mr. Warner, of Parkersburg, to a large congregation of sympathizing friends and relatives. Time rolled by; by many Geo. Powell had been forgotten. His parents had striven to feel reconciled to the inexorable decree which levels all distinctions, and consigns humanity to oblivion and dust. His name was seldom mentioned, even under the old roof-tree. But "truth is stranger than fiction," and what was the astonishment and almost boundless surprise when, a few days ago, George Powell, in full health, walked into the room where his mother and father were sitting. Had the grave opened at their feet and delivered up its dead, by restoring the long lost and fondly mourned boy, could their surprise have been greater? But we will not intrude upon the old people in the joy they must have felt in again having the vacant chair filled, and their hearts and home gladdened by the return of him whom they mourned as dead.

ELOPEMENT OF A COLORED MAN WITH A WHITE WOMAN.—A special despatch from Raleigh (N. C.) to the Times says:

On Friday evening last this community was startled by a report that a highly respectable white lady, about seventeen years old, had left her home near Manson, Warren county, and eloped with a negro. The couple left home on Thursday morning, and reached here that evening. The evening following the enraged father arrived, and, ascertaining where the couple were, accompanied by a young man, a descent was made upon the house. The negro succeeded in making his escape. The daughter was taken back home. The family is highly respected in Warren county, and the names are withheld at the request of friends. The immediate relatives of the young lady are deeply mortified at the disgraceful occurrence, while the young lady is said to exhibit no feeling of sorrow, and desires to live with her colored lover. Had the negro been caught, Judge Lynch would have been called into requisition.

GALLANTRY OF A NAVAL OFFICER.—During the recent passage of the United States ship Omaha to Valparaiso, four men fell from the fore-top sail yard. All caught in the rigging but John Owens, the carpenter, who tumbled overboard and was fatally injured. Without stopping a moment to think, Lieutenant Seth Ackley, of the United States navy, immediately leaped overboard after him. Owens went under, owing to his injuries, but Ackley was rescued some time later by six volunteers, who went after him in a whale boat through the heavy sea.

THE New York World mentions as a remarkable fact, that since the Presidential election we hear nothing about crimes perpetrated by the Ku-Klux, and, what is equally singular, the President has pardoned nearly all those who during the campaign were tried and incarcerated in the Albany penitentiary. The whole thing looks as though all the cry we heard about the Ku-Klux before the election, and all the money spent by the government ostensibly to suppress them, were simply electioneering dodges to make votes for Grant.

THE U. S. Government has recognized the Republic of Spain, and the Secretary of State has forwarded the following resolution of Congress to be presented to the Spanish Government:

"Resolved by the Senate and house of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the name and behalf of the American people the congratulations of Congress are hereby tendered to the people of Spain upon their recent effort to consolidate the principals of universal liberty in a republican form of government."

THE Hon. James Brooks, of New York, it is stated, has so rapidly declined, that he is unable to leave his bed, and is losing strength daily.

DESPERATE ENCOUNTER WITH A COUNTERFEITER.—On Saturday last United States Marshal Goldsborough received information that one or more counterfeiters, comprising a part of the gang recently routed from Philadelphia, were operating at Barton, a small place distant a few miles from Altamont, West Virginia, and deputized United States Deputy Marshal N. H. Creager, of this city, to visit Barton, and if possible arrest the parties.—The marshal visited Barton on Monday and learned that John Wallace, the noted counterfeiter and pugillist, was living in the vicinity. The marshal summoned to his assistance a Mr. O'Brien, of Barton, and visited the house of Wallace.—Upon the marshal making known his business he was invited by Wallace to search for evidence of counterfeiting, adding that no such testimony could be discovered, as he, Wallace, was not engaged in that business. While the marshal was prosecuting the search he was suddenly attacked by Wallace and his wife, and knocked down with the butt ends of the pistols, and at the same time O'Brien was shot in the left shoulder by Wallace. O'Brien then retreated and the marshal being blinded by the blood which covered his face, was unable no longer to contend with Wallace, who made his escape from the house. After quitting the premises the marshal called upon several men to follow and capture Wallace, but they refused, on the plea that he was a dangerous man and would riddle them with bullets.—Finding that the capture of the desperado could not be effected, the marshal returned to Piedmont, where his wounds were dressed, after which he took the train for this city, arriving at Camden Station at half-past eight o'clock yesterday morning. —Balt. Sun, Thursday.

FRATRICIDE IN KENTUCKY.—A terrible tragedy occurred near Bardstown last Saturday. G. W. Holtshouser, one of the oldest and most esteemed citizens, was sitting in his office at about 7 30 P. M., with his unmarried son, D W. Holtshouser, when his married son, J. Holtshouser, entered the door, and without speaking pulled out a navy revolver and shot his brother, the ball entering the left breast and lodging under the shoulder blade.

The wounded young man rose from the chair, and as he did so received another shot, which entered near his shoulder, when he fell forward, receiving a third shot on the crown of the head, the ball lodging under the right eye. The fratricide immediately left the premises, and has not been heard from since. The cause of the murder is supposed to be a feud of several months' standing. All the parties were heretofore held in high esteem, and great excitement has been caused in the community by the tragic affair.

The Thoroughbred Stallion LEGATEE

HAS commenced his Spring season. All breeders agree in the superiority of thorough-bred males over those which are not "LEGATEE" is a blood bay, six years old, very compactly built, gentle and kind everywhere, having been driven in various ways, powerfully strong, healthy and sound, and as pretty as a picture: very much resembling his sire, the renowned LEXINGTON, whose character and form none dared to criticise, and whose performances are without a parallel in the annals of the turf.

"Legatee" was got by LEXINGTON, he by BOSTON out of ALICE CARNEAL by IMPORTED SARPEDON. "Legatee's" dam was LEVITY (ROBERT'S DAM) by IMPORTED TRUSTEE. The rest of his pedigree is traced in an unbroken line through the most notables in the country, to CULLEN'S ARABIAN, imported by General Spotswood.

He has one of the richest pedigrees in the country. To say nothing of Legatee's ancestry on his sire's side, such world renowned horses as LEXINGTON, BOSTON and SARPEDON, his dam's family is one of the most prized in the U. S., having produced such celebrated horses as RURIC, VANDAL, his brother ALERIC, and the present famous horses owned by Mr. Sanford of New York. MONARCHIST and SALINA, both of whom are by LEGATEE'S sire out of HALF SISTERS TO LEGATEE, who were by IMPORTED GLENCO out of LEVITY, LEGATEE'S DAM!!

Legatee has run and won several four mile heats and repeat, among which was the CELEBRATED RESTORATION STAKES, (purse $5,000.00) at Long Branch, easily beating TWENTY ENTRIES, and among them several celebrated and frequent winners upon other occasions.

The Turf, Field and Farm, in its issue of January, 1872, spoke of "Legatee" in the highest terms of praise and regarded him as one of the VERY BEST HORSES IN AMERICA.

He has proved himself to be a sure foal getter, and has attracted attention and admiration wherever he has gone.

Ex-Governor Bowie and General Howard, of the Western Shore, have bred their best mares to "Legatee," and in our own county, Dr. Whaland, Dr Price, R Hynson, Esq., John Brice, Col. Geo. W. Spencer, Capt J. T. Skirven, and other acknowledged horsemen and owners of good Stallions, have bred and are breeding to him.

Number of Mares limited.

TO FARMERS!

"EXCELSIOR."

1873 1873

Composed of 800 lbs. of No. 1 Peruvian Guano, and 1200 pounds of Soluble Phosphate of Lime, (bones dissolved in sulphuric acid,) Potash and Soda, Forming the most concentrated, universal and durable fertilizer ever offered to the farmer—combining all the stimulating qualities of Peruvian Guano, and the ever durable fertilizing properties of Bones. Excelsior is in fine, dry powder, prepared expressly for drilling, and can be applied in any quantity, however small, per acre; and it is the opinion of many close calculating farmers, after FOURTEEN years experience in testing it side by side with other popular fertilizers, that an application of 100 pounds of Excelsior is equal to from 200 to 300 pounds of any other fertilizer or guano offered for sale, therefore is fully 100 to 200 per cent cheaper.

☞ Look out for imitations and counterfeits. The popularity of Excelsior has induced unscrupulous parties in this and other cities to copy our trade mark, and resort to other dishonorable means to sell their worthless compounds.

☞ Farmers should see that every Bag is branded as above, with ANALYSIS and OUR NAME in RED LETTERS. All others are counterfeits.

THE Howe Machine COMPANY

Are now able from their increased facilities for manufacture to offer their

IMPROVED SEWING MACHINES,

ON THE MOST ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

They are now manufacturing

SIX HUNDRED DAILY.

During the past six years they have manufactured and sold which attests the great popularity of this unequalled machine. Until the year 1865

400,000

ELIAS HOWE, Jr.

THE ORIGINAL INVENTOR OF

SEWING MACHINES,

Did not compete with Companies who were paying him royalty for the use of his patents. At that time he commenced manufacturing and put the genius which invented the Sewing Machine, the experience learned from the failures of other manufacturers, and the experience of a long life as a practical mechanic into the

HOWE MACHINE.

It is a noticeable fact that the

Howe Machine Co. HAS FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND

of their Machines in use, although having existed but SIX YEARS, while the Company which claims to have the most in use, has only about twice that number, though having existed for TWENTY YEARS.

A. M. GUDGEN,

CHESTERTOWN,

Will sell on credit or lease on Monthly Payments, and offers such easy terms that every one can afford to have a

HOWE SEWING MACHINE.

He will spare neither pains nor expense to give his customers complete satisfaction.

☞ He sells at New York prices and does not charge Fifteen Dollars in advance as some rival agents are doing.
