1864. FALL 1864. AND WINTER!

The Great Corner Store
UNDER THE "VOSHELL HOUSE."

I. FRANK has already laid in and is having manufactured, and receiving every week one of the largest and most carefully selected stocks of ever offered on this shore.

CLOTHING
Gents' Furnishing Goods, &c.,

He also has his usual and justly celebrated stock of BOOTS, together with the most extensive and varied stocks of HATS, both Men and Boys' wear, from the lowest to the finest quality. As he could not be dislodged, but has only changed his base of operations to a decidedly more advantageous and better adapted position, he is enabled to keep a larger and better stock of Goods, and enjoys ampler facilities to give satisfaction.

He is determined to conduct this as a FIRST CLASS ESTABLISHMENT, and will spare no pains to this end.

A call is solicited to put all his assertions beyond doubt. I. FRANK.
Chestertown, Sept. 10, 1864.

INTERESTING NEWS!

ONE of the finest Stocks of Goods in this market is to be found at the

"PEOPLE'S POPULAR STORE."

To enumerate would be almost impossible.—You can find almost any article that is kept in a first class country store.

Persons at a distance, who visit Chestertown but seldom, should not fail to call.

Families whose wants are large, and buy goods by the piece, should name the fact, as we will save them the expense of visiting the city. In our late purchases we now have some handsome goods. Ladies in want of

FINE DRESS GOODS,

HEADQUARTERS
FOR
Tobacco, Cigars, Snuff, &c.

BENJ. H. GARDNER calls the attention of his old customers and the public generally, to his large assortment of

FINE CHEWING TOBACCO,

now in store, together with a variety of Common Chewing Tobacco.

CIGARS of every description, from the very best to the most common brands. Judges of good Cigars are invited to give them a trial.

SMOKING TOBACCO, SNUFF, PIPES, &c.—Anything in this line that can't be found at my store, you will not be apt to find elsewhere. Also, CONFECTIONERY, &c.

All of the above goods will be sold as low as the market will afford.
June 18, 1864. B. H. GARDNER.

THE HIGH PRICES.

NOTWITHSTANDING the high price of every article bought and sold, by taking much pains and buying exclusively for cash, I am enabled to sell all goods in my line for the smallest possible advance, and while it is true, that all good gold articles, such as Fine Pins, Ear-rings, Sleeve Buttons, Studs, Gold Specks, &c., of which I have a good assortment, have advanced with gold considerably, yet I am selling them in most instances for less than they can be bought in the city, having purchased much of them when gold was only 60 per cent.

I have just returned from Philadelphia with an additional stock, making the fourth time this year, and there is scarce any article to be found in a jewelry store in the city that I have not on hand, commencing with a Clock and running down to the smallest pen-knife. Cutlery of all kinds, Pocket Books, Combs, &c.

A good assortment of all kinds of PLATED GOODS, and we want you to remember that we do not misrepresent as many do, and sell plated goods for genuine, but we warrant all goods to be as represented when sold, and all you have to do is to ask what they are.

REPAIRING.—Having worked constantly at the business for more than 18 years, we feel confident that we are fully prepared to do all kinds of Repairing in the best manner.

Call and see for yourselves.

SEQUEL TO THE HERMIT AND DUCK.

BY THE BARD OF MARBLE HALL.

Time rolled along like the brock by the deer,
And the boy grew up to a man;
Now the Hermit had promised him often before
To take him to Baltimore then.

So one morning when fell Indian summer's deep haze
O'er the forest all stripped of its leaves,
And the sun looked aloft like a world in a blaze
And the wind gently moaned of its griefs;

The hermit and youth started Baltimore reward,
While the fresh-hearted youth in delight
Runs ahead and then back o'er the moss-covered sward,
Till he's weary and foot-sore at night.

The first thing they saw when they entered the street,
Was a lady in full walking dress,
With a smile on her face most bewitchingly sweet,
That seemed lurking in each raven tress.

"What is that," said the youth, "'tis an angel I know,
This is heaven! we've got there! good luck!"
"Now don't be a fool," said the hermit, "I trow
"Your angel is only a duck."

"Oh! we'll take a pair home," said the youth with delight,
"Let me catch it and pat its sleek head,
What a quack for a duck! as she screamed with affright,
What a waddle! he said as she fled.

The duck 'in good order' 'fell back' very fast,
And the youth still kept up the chase,
Till he reached No. 40 West Baltimore street,
And he now is "the Bard" of the place.

For you see the lady ran into MARBLE HALL to claim protection, and the youth followed in his innocent pursuit. Messrs. SMITH BROS. explained to the youth his mistake, and gave him a NEW SUIT OF CLOTHING to buy him off. He has since given up chasing ducks and gone to writing "Machine poetry" for Messrs. Smith Bros. & Co. Marble Hall Clothing House, No. 40 West Baltimore St., who have the largest, best and cheapest stock of thoroughly sponged Ready Made Clothing in the city. Also a heavy stock of Piece Goods, which they make to order quickly, neatly and durably. o15.

FOUTZ'S

Celebrated Horse and Cattle POWDERS.

HORSES. CATTLE. HOGS.

THESE Powders have proved, after a trial of several years, to be superior to any preparation of the kind in use.—The chief superiority of these Powders arises from the fact that they are composed of Medicines that have Laxative, Tonic and Purifying properties. The Laxative ejects crudities from the stomach and intestines, the Tonic gives strength to the system of the Horse, and the purifying medicines contained in them cleanse the blood, and lay the foundation for a healthy and vigorous circulation. The use of them improves the wind, strengthens the appetite and gives the horse a fine, smooth and glossy skin—thus improving the appearance, vigor and spirit of this noble animal. These Powders are not intended, as most powders are, to bloat the animal, so as to give him the appearance of being fat when not really so—but, to remove the disease and promote his general health.

These Powders will strengthen the stomach and intestines, cleanse them of offensive matter, and bring them to a healthy state. They are a sure preventive of Lung Fever, and a certain remedy for all diseases of the Horse, as Glanders, Yellow Water, Distempers, Founder, Heaves, Slavering Coughs, Fevers, Loss of Appetite, and Vital Energy, &c. These Powders, if used two or three times a week through the winter and spring, your horses will never get the Lung Fever, Colic or Botts. A few doses of these Powders will remove the worst cough on any horse. Were owners of Horses to feed a few doses of these Powders every year they might save the lives of many valuable Horses.

MILCH COWS.

The properties this Powder possesses in increasing the quantity of Milk in Cows give it an importance and value which should place it in the hands of every person keeping a Cow. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

HOGS.

In all diseases of Swine, as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs and Liver, &c., by putting from half a paper to a paper of these Powders in a barrel of Swill, the above diseases can be cured or entirely prevented. By using these Powders the Hog Cholera can be prevented. Prepared by S. A. FOUTZ & BROTHER,
Wholesale Druggists,
No. 116 Franklin Street, Baltimore.
