A LIVELY TIME.

—Them manufacturers of ours
—got this thing of fi. down pretty
—fine, and we propose making
—it lively for the old timers
—around us offering Clothing
—turned out like single nails—
—not so ours; we are crazy on —the subject of fit, and watch
—after every detail of construc—tion, from the inside lining
—to the outside buttons, and —know that our goods are made
—perfectly before offering them
—for your purchase. Hence our —guarantee behind every gar—ment, and they cost you about —half what your tailor would —charge. For this week we will —sell Men's Good Hemstitched
—Handkerchiefs only 3½c..

The Most Satisfactory

and liberal way for a useful and progressive Bank to deal with its depositors is to so conduct its affairs that both the bank and depositors alike will be profited by its business operations. The

Kent County Savings Bank

is just such a banking institution and it cordially invites the young and old and the rich and poor to open an account with it, promising all the liberality, promptness and attention that can in any reasonable way be extended by an obliging and carefully conducted bank.

Carriages.

We are handling the Buggy Business exactly as we did the stove business. We purchased the very best Vehicles on the market in solid car lots and on the most favorable basis that cash could command. We are selling the different jobs to suit our trade—giving them the benefit of our low prices and also offering the largest selection in the county.

See our adv. on page 5 and come and see our Carriage Exhibit.

Among the appeal cases is that of Fletcher Caulk vs. Alexander T. Laws, over value of a dog; B. Grollman vs, I. R. Leaverton, suit over sheep.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother in Fairlee on last Wednesday evening, April 15, at eight o'clock. The contracting parties were Mr. John Gullery, of Sparrow's Point, and Nellie, the oldest daughter of the late James Lewis and Mrs. Ella Lewis. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Merritt in his usual impressive manner. The bride was attired in handsome Paris muslin, trimmed in satin ribbon and she carried a shower bouquet of roses. The groom wore the convential black. The bridal party stood beneath an arch of evergreen, with potted plants banked on either side and the effect was most beautiful. Miss Hattie Lewis and the bride's brother, William, preceded the contracting parties. The wedding march was rendered by the neice of the bride, Miss Blanche Lewis, very effectively. A sumptuous supper was served about ten o'clock to a few invited guests. A number of useful and pretty presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Gullery left Fairlee, Thursday morning via. Tolchester for a trip north, taking in New York and other cities; after which they will make their home at Sparrows Point where the groom is employed as a machinist.

Mr. Wm. Hess and Miss Katie Embert, both of Millington, were married on Wednesday evening at the Millington M. E. Parsonage by Rev. E. R Sidell.

Mr. Howard Taylor, of Rock Hall, and Miss Lucretia Arthur, daughter of Mr. J. T. Arthur, of Rock Hall, were married in the M. E. Church at the above named place on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock by Rev. Warren Burr.

Mr. Eugene Tuer, of Baltimore, and Miss Ida Lillian Boyd, of Galena, were married in that town Wednesday morning by Rev. E. H. Creed.

A DELIGHTFUL MUSICALE.

Stam's Hall the Scene of a Brilliant Assembly to Hear Mr. Luther Conradi's Recital.

Again have the ladies of Chestertown proven their talent in presenting to the public an entertainment of rare pleasure and also one that was elevating in its tone and in keeping with the name of the association, viz., Ladies Town Improvement Society. The Hall was filled with the elite of the town and many from the county and was made one of the most brilliant society events of the season, nearly every attendant being in evening dress. Mr. Luther Conradi was the star of the evening and proved his claim to be classed among the greatest pianists of the State. His rendition of difficult numbers was masterly done while his manner was as modest as his performance was expert. The most unique feature of the evening was a Concerto played on two Grand pianos by Mr. Conradi and Miss Mary Merritt Hurtt. Miss Hurtt received a warm welcome from the audience, but not more than she deserved, and met the fondest expectations of her many friends.

Miss Learned, a fine mezzo-soprano, of New York, accompanied by Mrs. Byram, greatly pleased the audience with her sweet voice and by the excellent rendition of well-selected songs. Mr. Robert Stearns, of Washington, proved a success in the rendition of a number of beautiful selections.

The ladies wish to thank Mr. Kranz for his kindness in loaning two elegant Chickering pianos free of cost and for courtesies extended by the Chester River Steamboat Co. and others.

The total receipts for the evening were $176.00.

Chestertown Public School.
