PHILIP REED ASSOCIATION.

The committee having charge of the execution of the plans of the Philip Reed Memorial Association, has submitted their final report as follows:

The cost of slab at I. U., and marker at Caulk's field, and printing pamphlets about absorbed the amount of money which the committee have received. They have since expended $102.41 in inclosing marker and paving lot at Caulk's Field.

The committee intend to state and close their accounts on July 15th. 1903. This statement is made to give an opportunity to such persons as may feel impelled by duty or inclination to contribute toward the payment of the said $102.41. The committee will not accept anything in excess of amount, or after the date named.

In some respects we may appear to have been extravagant but we felt that we were not only charged with the duty of transmitting to posterity the merits of a generation now passed away, but also of that of representing the intelligence and taste of the generation of which we form a part, and if we have failed in either it has been for lack of more sense. We sincerely thank all who have in any way rendered us assistance.

COLUMBUS A LEARY, Chairman.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

The Rev. Thos. H. Haynes, one of the oldest and most respected ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died Saturday afternoon at his home in Smyrna after a long illness, aged 82 years. He served the Chestertown Church from 1880 to 1882. Mr. Haynes was married in early life and his widow and three sons survive him—Thomas, who is business manager of the Philadelphia News; Edgar L, connected with the business department of the News Publishing Company, and Ernest S., long connected with J. T. Mullin & Sons, Wilmington, Delaware.

•

Capt William B. Realey, a well-known Chesapeake bay navigator and Odd-Fellow, died Saturday morning in Elkton of gangrene, in the seventy-sixth year of his age. Until 15 years ago he commanded a vessel on the Chesapeake bay and tributaries. Then he engaged in business in Elkton, but later retired. He is survived by a widow and the following children: Mrs. Minnie Roach and Mrs. Adeline Ulary, of Elk Neck; Misses Jennie and Catherine Realey, of Elkton; William H. Realey, of Elkton, and Samuel Realey, of Philadelphia. He was a brother of the late Mrs. Enoch N. Roland and a man of upright character. His observance of the Sabbath day was marked. If he was within a few miles of home at midnight Saturday he would anchor and wait until midnight Sunday.

William Willis died at a late hour Wednesday night after a lingering illness, aged 62 years, at his home in St. Michaels. His wife, who survives, was a Miss Eleanor S. Harrison, of that district. He was a descendant of one of Talbot's first citizens, and conducted his large estate of three fine farms. In 1898 he was the silver Democratic candidate for Congress. For many years he was a vestryman of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Besides his widow, the following children survive him: Misses Milly, of St. Michaels; Eleanor, of Baltimore; Bessie, of St. Michaels; William W. and Lambert, of Philadelphia: Spencer and Dashiell, of St. Michaels. Rev. Jonathan S. Willis, of Delaware, and Thomas J. Willis, of Kent county, Md., are brothers. Mrs. A. M. C Moore, of Royal Oak, and Mrs. James Lightbourn, of Oxford, are sisters.

THE HALLOCK

Quadruple Cultivator and Weeder.

T. SHAFER, Kennedyville, General Agent for Kent County.

Of this most wonderful implement. For years leading manufacturefor, Farm Implements were trying to make a Weeder, or surface cultivators that would do the work. All used round teeth, until Hallock, patented March 15, 1898, the Flat Tooth, and launched upon the market the Machine shown on this page.

ABE COHEN'S

Big Department Store

ABE COHEN'S BIG DEPARTMENT STORE is going up and we have made reductions on all goods as we don't want to move them in the new building.

Mattings, we are selling from 9c up, and we keep all grades of them. Dry Goods, Clothing and Shoes we will sell from 40 to 50 per cent. cheaper than elsewhere, rather than carry them to the new building, which Messrs. Stavely & Bowers, the contractors, advise us to put all new goods in a new building and their advice is good as their work, which stands good in this community. So come one, come all, and get a bargain while we have them.

We still buy all Country Produce.
