

THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer:

Now that the election is over, we can sit by the fireside and have our post mortems if we are inclined, but personally, I am glad it's all over and hope the chatter of politics will be on the wane. So let's talk of weddings, engagements and things of a merrier vein. On Thursday of this week, Miss Dorothy Quarles, daughter of Mrs. Curtis B. Quarles and Dr. Alexander Colclough Dick were married at 8 o'clock in Christ Episcopal Church, Houston, Texas. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Clinton S. Quin. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Curtis B. Quarles wore a gown of white satin, princess model which formed to a train, with a tulle veil which descended from a coronet and carried a bouquet of white gerberas.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Paul Daugherty, of Houston, wore a gown of white velvet with gold belt and ascot. She carried a nosegay of white bouton chrysanthemums in a gold lace holder with gold ribbon streamers. The bridesmaids, Miss Cornelia Gregory, of Houston, and Miss Elizabeth Brown, of Chestertown, were gowned in the same.

Mr. Frank Gumme, of Philadelphia, acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Daffan Gilmer, Mr. Henry O. Weaver, Mr. Paul Daugherty, and Mr. Jos. Kendall, all of Houston. A small reception followed the ceremony and after the wedding trip, Dr. and Mrs. Dick will make their home here in the Baldwin Apartments.

Mrs. B. H. Klinefelter, of Baltimore has announced the engagement of her daughter, Eugenia Hooper to Dr. Frederick Allen Holden, of Baltimore, eye specialist. The wedding will take place Wednesday, November 25th at the home of the bride's mother in Roland Park, after which the future bride and groom will make their home in Baltimore on Charles St. Avenue.

Miss Klinefelter has been the Health Nurse of Kent County for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Blyman are receiving congratulations on the birth of a fine son born on Wednesday morning.

Ex-Senator Henry Brown and his grand-children, of Manning, W. Va., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, of Quaker Neck.

Miss Mary Louise Poor, of Elkton, spent last week-end as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reed.

Mrs. C. Harry Scriber and children, of Columbus, Ohio, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schriber.

Mrs. H. C. D. Wilkinson, of Baltimore, was the guest of her father, Mr. John W. Barnes, last week-end.

Misses Dora McIntire, of East Orange, N. J., and Madge Wilkinson, of Philadelphia, were week-end guests of Mrs. Maggie R. McIntire.

Mr. Allan Barnes, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earle A. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Williams have rented the house on High St., recently vacated by Mr. Dell Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Jenkins, of Hyattsville, spent last week-end as the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. D. W. Ingersoll.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers left yesterday for New Albany, Ind., for a week's visit with Mrs. Rogers's sister, Mrs. Wilbur Gill. During their absence, Miss Harriet Louisa Rogers will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Westcott, her uncle and aunt, but will spend this week-end in Annapolis.

Mrs. Joseph Archbell will leave tomorrow for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Annie H. Stam, of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Metcalfe will spend this week-end in Baltimore as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilkinson, and while there will be much entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong and Miss Helen Strong will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker of Philadelphia and will attend the Penn-Michigan game Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Corey and Mr. Duncan Derringer will go to Carlisle, Pa., this week-end. While there they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Masland, Jr., and attend the Dickinson-Gettysburg game.

At the time of this writing the big Country Fair is just starting and will hold our attention and leisure throughout to-night and Saturday. Don't miss it, for all to make a day's pleasure can be found right there.

The style show, the bicycle parade, side show performances, games, commercial exhibits, cake-walk contest, and even supper both evenings furnish enough enjoyment to keep you glued to the Armory.

So, here's hoping for a huge success to the ladies who have worked so hard for the benefit of Kent and Queen Anne's General Hospital.

Yours en route to the Fair,
The Wanderer.
