

ON THE SCREEN AT THE NEW LYCEUM

ing. He would go down to the Battery in New York City and watch the ships going out and coming in and then he would imagine that he and his wife were sailing to foreign lands. It gave them all the joys of travel without the attendant inconveniences. They sailed on a dream ship, and brought such a wonderful cargo back with them, many sail in the same way and enjoy the pleasures of imagination in this way, hoping always that their ships will bring in the cargo of their dreams.

Nevertheless, he has a couple of real aunts, an uncle and a whole flock of cousins in Van Duren and other parts of Arkansas. His brother Farrar lives in Seattle. One and all, the kinfolk laugh at Bob's droll tales, and some have privately told him they wished they could think up some of the funny things he says.

NOW AND THEN

MY SHIP

By Mrs. Clyde Robe Meredith
My ship goes a-sailing across the blue,
Over the horizon where dreams come true!
A dream or a prayer? Whichever it be,
A rich cargo it will bring back to me!
Smiles and good will are far better than gold,
They live forever! But never grow old!
Laughter and happiness drive away care!
And my dream sails are white in love's halcyon air!
My dream sailors sing a sweet dreamy song,
And their breath fills the sails with wind all day long!
Faith, hope and love are the cargo my ship brings
From the land where dreams bring to life worth while things!

her son Oscar the heir apparent, who a few months ago visited this country in the army or in hiding to keep from being captured. The once powerful and well beloved Queen Wilhemina is now in England, and the British royal family are having a very anxious time.

DEMOCRATS

Northern Federalists looked upon Jeffersonian Democrats with little faith if not less understanding. This tale concerns a pious elderly Federalist lady who lived in a small Connecticut town.

In her neighborhood it was believed that if the Federalists were overthrown and the Jeffersonian Democrats came into power, the Christian religion would be put down, atheism would be declared, and all Bibles would be destroyed. Those were the days of real politics!

ROBERT MONTGOMERY

Some years ago Robert Montgomery, the very popular movie star was summoned with others to appear before Congress to answer some question regarding the movies. Congress tried to keep their coming secret, but some how it leaked out, and oh! the number of women who thronged the galleries. Now he is driving an ambulance in France while his wife is sailing for America.

WAS IT YOU?

Someone started the whole day wrong.
Was it you?
Someone robbed the day of its song.
Was it you?
Early this morning someone frowned:
Someone sulked until others scowled;
And soon harsh words were passed around—

Was it you?
Someone started the day aright,
Was it you?
Someone made it happy and bright,
Was it you?
Early this morning, we are told,
Someone smiled, and all through the day
This smile encouraged young and old,
Was it you?

That Nagging Backache
May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action
Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—the risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.
You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feet constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
Try Doan's Pills. Doan's helps the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!
