A SEVERE BLOW!

A Wonderful Electric Storm Breaks Over Kent County Monday Evening—Hail at Worton Point.

A storm of unusual severity visited Kent County Monday evening and for three hours an electrical display of wonderful brilliancy was shown in the sky. Rain poured in torrents and at Worton Point and in Still Pond Neck considerable hail fell. A resident in Worton says hail as big as hen eggs pelted the earth and cut lillies like a knife!

The top of Judge J. F. Harper's windmill was blown off and a roof on one of Mr. Thos. P. Bradley's buildings was blown twenty feet away.

Capt. John T. Kirwan, of the Tolchester Company, struck the heaviest of the storm at Tolchester Beach and was forced to leave the wharf and seek safety in the open bay without landing any of his Tolchester freight.

Just as the captain made his Tolchester landing the storm broke in all its fury, and in a few minutes a heavy swell was on, which caused his steamer to pound heavily against the timbers of the pier. The captain forced his way into the broader water in the teeth of the gale and proceeded up the bay.
