"Ben-Hur" In Baltimore—Arrayed in all its splendor, "Ben-Hur" will inaugurate an engagement of one week at the Academy of Music, Baltimore on Monday evening, May 8. There will be the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees. Of all the spectacular productions of modern times, none has been credited with so long a run of prosperity as this great and popular dramatic romance. "Ben-Hur" is today crowned with a record of nearly 1,900 performances in a little over five years, and has been seen by more than four million people. In all this period of marked prosperity a Sunday performance has never been given. No play in the history of the stage world admits of the massive scenic settings that "Ben-Hur" does. Reviewing "Ben-Hur" as a play, it is one of the most stirring and impressive stories ever given to the stage, and while the keenest admiration and astonishment have been manifested for the marvelous scenic and mechanical effects that are unfolded in its enactment the impression that lasts and lives and that which has been responsible for the wonderful success scored, it is the beautiful, fervent and highly dramatic story, so forcibly and truthfully told with its endowment of grand music supplied by Edgar Stillman Kelley. The advance sale of seats opens Thursday morning, May 4, at nine o'clock. M. J. Lehmayer, business manager of the Academy of Music, announces that out-of-town orders, if accompanied by remittance, will be filled in the order received.

Arthur Rothwell Knocked Overboard and Drowned.—Mr. Arthur Rothwell, aged about 17 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Rothwell, of Burrisville, who during the early part of the week left Centreville Landing with Capt. Stowman, of the bugeye Ray, loaded with junk for Baltimore was drown-last Thursday. The fatal accident was caused by a collision between the tug George's Creek, and Capt. Stowman's boat, between 1 and 1 30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the intersection of the Curtis bay chanel with the Fort McHenry channel. The tug George's Creek, was outward bound from Curtis bay. The captain in reporting the case said: "We were going very slow, as we had the turn of the channels to make with the two heavy-laden barges towing astern. Near the turn I saw a bugeye coming up under sail, but making no effort to avoid me, although I blew danger signal. Recognizing that the sailing vessel either did not understand my warnings or else expected me to give way, I stopped the tug and ordered the engines full speed astern. This did not improve the situation, as the tug struck the bugeye on the port quarter, and as she did so a man or boy either jumped or was knocked overboard. We promply sent over a life-preserver, but he did not make any effort to save himself, although the life-preserver was close by him. I then gave my attention to saving the bugeye, which I found to be leaking. I placed men on board to keep her floated, having signaled the barges to anchor. Then I took the disabled vessel in tow and brought her to Baltimore by making her fast alongside. I was running in a dredged channel, with barges drawing much more water than there was outside the channel. The sailing vessel could have avoided trouble by noting my signals, the wind being good and strong in its favor." The drowned man was a son of Mr. Rothwell who has been in Kent county for a month past selling maps.

Large Lemon.—Mr. Hiarm G. Tarbutton, of Crumpton, exhibited Tuesday a very large lemon, which was grown by Rev. E. O. Ewing, also of Crumpton. The lemon weighed 1¼ pounds and measured 14¾ inches in circumference. The plant or tree from which the lemon was grown was raised in a 9 inch earthen pot. The tree was about 3 feet high. There were other lemons grown upon the tree and all were large for the size of the tree.
