VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, AUGUST 26, 1905. NO. 12.

DOWN WE COME

Our half yearly reduction sale of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing begins today.

In it we offer you a fairly good selection of thoroughly dependable merchandise—Suits that are made to fit, and put together, not for this special sale, but are goods left from our season's selling, made up in the most approved manner—best trimmings and best workmanship.

You will find them all marked in plain figures, and every penny reduction you receive from the original price, is that much taken from an honest and legitimate profit. No marking up and then marking down prices, but what's the use using all this ink to tell you that the word CLEARANCE SALE with our name beneath it ought to be sufficient, for they have been too well established in the past years for there to be any doubt as to the genuineness of our offers.

In this sale we have Men's Suits low as $2.50 the whole suit. Boys' Suits at prices calculated to interest any mother who has a boy to don them. Straw hats are also included in this sale. We're going to let 'em go.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

Boil all Drinking Water.

Health physician, Dr. H. G. Simpers, advises all persons to boil their drinking water. The typhoid fever season is now on and a preventative is better than cure. It is epidemic in Baltimore and other sections and the way for Kent countians to prevent it is to use every known means to keep it away from our fair county. Although there are several cases, of course, in the county, yet there are very few for this time of the year. Another thing to be careful about is the bite of mosquitoes. Some physicians think that mosquitoes carry the typhoid germ from section to section.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

The contract for the erection of the new P. E. Church at Millington has been awarded to W. S. & A. M. Culp, of Chestertown. The building will cost about $3600 and will be artistic in every respect

A new $15,000 town hall will be erected at Centreville, W. S. & A. M. Culp, of Chestertown, have been awarded the contract. It will be of limestone and concrete and Mr. Alwyn Culp says it will be a beauty.

Hard on Contractors.—A Kent county farmer was in the NEWS office this week and said, "I will have 10,000 baskets of tomatoes which I have contracted to deliver to a certain canner for 10 cents a basket, and right over the way, my neighbor, who did not contract, is getting 30 cents a basket, but I'll stick to my bargain." Such is the uncertainty of the tomato business. It is a great temptation to the grower who has contracted to jump his bargain, but we have not heard of a single man who is going back on his word, but are living up to their contracts as honorable men should.

"Lovers' Lane" Closed.—"Lovers' Lane" in Quaker Neck will be closed after Monday until further notice on account of a dangerous bridge. This is sad news to the scores of persons in this vicinity who considers this the most charming drive in the country. But Commissioner Loud, who is ever watchful of all the public roads and especially those frequented by the romantic couples, says it will not take very long to build a new bridge which will be safe for all vehicles. Contractor Walter T. Pippin will build the bridge.

Personalty Sales.—Notwithstanding great number of horses, cattle, etc., being offered at public sale good prices are being realized. The Willis sale was largely attended and bidding spirited. Auctioneer Hurlock was ably assisted in crying the sale by Mr. Jack Jester. The horses sold from $80 to $160; cows $25 to $55; hogs 6c pound. Sale amounted to about $4000. At the Powell sale excellent prices were realized, horses selling from $75 to $150; steers $20. At the Bradley sale horses brought from $92 to $150; cows $35; Auctioneer Robinson kept things moving.

PEACHES are bringing from 60c to $1.25 in the market. The early morning mists are severe on the fruit causing it to fall of the trees. The Messrs. Harris of near Still Pond, are the champion growers this year. They shipped nearly 1000 baskets off Elbertas one day this week from their Howell Point farm. These gentlemen cultivate and attend to their orchards just the same as they do their wheat and corn crops and are reaping the reward this year.

Death's Harvest.

Old and Young Called to Their Final Abiding Place.

Mrs. Louise Fountain died suddenly yesterday at the home of her nephew, George E. Thawley, in Centreville, aged 78. The deceased was the mother of Mrs. Curtis E. Crane and spent most of the summer here. She was the widow of Marcie Fountain, of Caroline county and leaves two sons and three daughters. The interment will take place at Loudon Cemetery, Baltimore.

Mr. Wesley K. Ayres, one of Rock Hall's respected citizens, succumbed to the ravages of typhoid fever on Wednesday, aged about 77 years. "Uncle Wes" was an honest man, a faithful friend, always industrious and thorough going in all his dealings with his fellow-men and beloved by all who knew him. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellow Lodges of Rock Hall from their institution, and worthily filled all the chairs of both Lodges. While not a regular communicant of any particular church, he was always strickly religious. He leaves one son, Jefferson D. Ayres, of Rock Hall.

Miss Carrie W. Blackiston, second daughter of the late James E. and Mollie H. Blackiston, died last Saturday night at the home of her grand-father, Ex-Judge Thomas A. Hudson in Piney Neck. She had been attending the State Normal School at Baltimore for two years and was a bright young lady. But the dread disease tuberculosis of the lungs had become fastened in her system and in spite of all that science and loved ones could do, claimed her for its own at the early age of 18 years and 7 days. The funeral took place at Wesley Chapel with interment in the cemetery adjoining, alongside her devoted mother, who died not quite one year ago, which makes the death of this young lady particularly sad, coming so soon after. Rev. J. W. Parrish officiated. Casey Brothers undertakers. The beares were Wm. Leary, Arthur Greenwood, Elwood Burgess, Frank Parsons, Nelson Rodney, Preston Smith.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gardner, widow of the late John Gardner, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Capt. Benjamin Nicholson, near Fairlee, on Wednesday, of senile debility, aged 75 years. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. C. T. Denroche. Interment in St. Paul's cemetery. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson in charge.

Mr. Clarence Price, a prominent citizen of Millington, died at his home in that town last Thursday night. He was stricken with paralysis in the morning of the same day, while superintending the unloading of some tomatoes at the cannery. The deceased was 51 years of age.

Edith Crossley, the infant daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James W. Urie, died at the home of her parents, near Still Pond, Saturday night, aged 4 months, 14 days. Funeral took place Monday afternoon, Rev. T. S. Holt, officiating. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

Dora E., the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hyland, of Betterton, died on Monday evening. Funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Simpler, living near town, died on Tuesday and was buried in Chester cemetery on Wednesday afternpon.

Bartus Wilkins died Saturday morning at the Eudowood Sanitarium, Towson. Mr. Wilkins was 24 years old and was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs Charles H. Wilkins. He was also the grandson of the late Bartus Wilkins and was a descendant of the Kent county family of that name. Although he had been under treatment for 18 months, his condition was not considered serious until about two months ago. Besides his parents, he is survived by three sisters and a brother.

A FORMER KENT COUNTIAN IN A BIG CASE.

Henry W. Catlin, Esq., a former member of the Kent bar and a native of Chestertown, is figuring in a big will case in New York. Mr. Catlin represents the interests of Mrs. Alan W. Wood, the wife of a Pittsburg millionaire. In the will Mrs. Wood was left one-ninth of the estate which represents about one-half million dollars. The will was read last week in New York in the presence of the eight children, the widow and Mr. Catlin, and it is said that it will not be contested.

Mules Sell High.—The mule sale of Mr. J. B. Richardson, of Missouri, last Saturday in Chestertown was attended by a large crowd and the prices were good. C. H. Hurlock was auctioneer. The following were the purchasers:
