KEEP CARRIAGES FROM THE STABLE.—There is a common and vexatious complaint from parties who store their carriages in the same building with their horses, or in damp carriage houses, of poor varnish. This will happen even after the very best material and varnish have been used, for no varnish can stand the action of the steam arising in a stable where horses are kept. When a varnished carriage is exposed to an atmosphere of ammonia, arising from manure or decaying vegetable matter, the alkali unites with the oil of the varnish, forming an almost imperceptible filament of soap, which, when the carriage is washed, dissolves in the water and is removed, leaving a fresh surface to be again acted on by the ammonia, so that the oil is gradually removed from the varnish, leaving the brittle gum to look like rosin and crumble away. Therefore, a dry, clean carriage house, entirely separated from the stable or stable manure, is the first thing required, and, secondly to have it re-varnished when it is required, which is as often as once a year if the carriage is in continual use.—Coach Maker's Journal.

"TIRED NATURE'S SWEET RESTORER, Balmy Sleep"—But there are times when this "Renewer of Strength" is denied us, times when our minds and bodies have been overworked and are so worn out that we "woo the drowsy god in vain." The Peruvian Syrup (an Iron Tonic) renews our strength and makes our rest sweet and refreshing.

WHILE Rev. Josha Humphreys was visiting Salisbury, last week, the brass band there serenaded him, one night. He made a little speech in return for the complement, after which the band played the long metre Doxology, whereupon the minister pronounced the benediction, as the band stood in the street.

FROM OHIO.

The women's temperance war now raging in different parts of the country, particularly in the west, with such unparalleled success, recommends for persons who claim whiskey a necessity for medicinal purposes, to use Green's August flower, which contains no intoxicating spirits, and is a gentle laxitive, and a certain cure for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion, Costiveness, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, coming up of the food after eating, purifies the Blood and System. Just what is needed in the Spring of the year by everybody. Try it. Sold by C. F. STAM & BRO., and THOS. W. WICKES.

HEDGE LAYING.

The subscriber will lay four year old hedges or under, for 8 cents per rod; older than four years, an advance, per special contract. Call onor address me at Worton Station.
