Be Gentle With Thy Wife.

Be gentle! for ye little know How many trials rise; Although to thee they may be small, To her of giant size.

May speak a murmuring tone, The heart that beat with kindness yet | faintly-And joy to be thine own.

Be gentle! weary hours of pain 'Tis woman's heart to bear; Then yield her what support thou canst; And all her sorrow share.

Be gentle! for the noblest hearts At times may have some grief, And even in a pettish word May seek to find relief.

Be gentle! for unkindness now May rouse an angry storm That all the after years of life In vain may strive to calm.

DEATH AND THE YOUTH.
