The Kent News.

SATURDAY - - - - JULY 11, 1874

We are familiar in this country with "prayers for rain," but "prayers for snow" are a novelty. In China they pray for the latter, as is shown by the following edict published in the Pekin Gazette:

"24th January. Edict: In spite of our repeated prayers for snow, but little has fallen since the beginning of winter, not enough certainly to thoroughly moisten the ground. We, therefore, command a selection of the Taoist priests belonging to the Kuangming Taoist Temple to proceed to the Ta-kao Hall and chant prayers on the 29th January. We shall ourselves burn inceuse in the same hall on that day, and eight high officials will be deputed to keep it up, two at a time staying over night on the spot, until the snow falls. The Imperial Princes of Tun, Shun, Kung and Fu will also be sent to burn incense at different shrines."

Chicken Cholera.—Mr. John Davis, in the Rural World, an experienced breeder, says that kerosene oil is a cure for this disease. It may be administered in various ways, so that the chicken suffering with this pisease eats of the food mixed with a plentiful quantity of the above oil. The writer positively asserts that it is the most efficacious remedy he has ever applied, and vouches for its infallibility in effecting a speedy cure of this ravaging disease. This remedy being so simple, and within the reach of all our farmers and poultry breeders, will be of no little importance to be in possession of, and is well worthy a trial—for only by trying different remedies are we enabled to continually discouer new and more valuable cures for the various diseases that our poultry is subject to. Oftentimes the most simple remedies have been found the most efficient in eradicating nummerous diseases.

AGUE CONQUEROR.

No Quinine, Arsenic or Poisons.

This is strong language, as Physicians and Chemists have for years tried to compound a preparation that would entirely cure Fever and Ague without the use of strong medicines such as Quinine, Arsenic and other poisons injurious to the system. There is no case of Fever and Ague, Intermittant or Billious Fevers, Congestive Chills, Night Sweats, Liver Complaints, &c., that this remedy will not cure at once and permanently. It purifies the blood. Liver, Spleens, and all other secreatory organs so effectually that the Chills will not return during the season, even when persons have had them for years. For Sale by C. F. STAM & BRO, Chestertown.
