Ephraham Andrews
&
William Coe } An Agreement

Whereas there has for some time past a Diffrence Subsisted and concerning the Lines of their Lands adjouning Each other for the Setling & Ajusting the same it is this day mutually agreed by the said Doctor Ephraham Andrews and William Coe that a Straight Line from a White Oak Tree Standing near the said Coe's will will Run Being the Beginning Tree of the forty five Acres of Land that Robert West the Elder gave to his Son Robert to a Stone marked with Twelve Niches Standing about Two Rods South of the great Road and the East side of William Coe's field so far as as the said Andrews's and Coe's Lands Joine be the Devition Line Between them the Andrews & Coe on that side and then a Straight Line Drawn from said Stone to another Stone markt with Twelve Niches set up in a small Run and Near a South and by East Line and so to be Continued on a Straight Line to the Next Branch or Run which Lines to be and Remain the Devition Lines Between them the said Ephraham Andrews & William Coe their heirs & Asigns for Ever as Witnes Our hands and Seals this 17th Day of May Anno domini

E Andrews (seal) William Coe (seal)

Witnes