

L. JEWETT GROVE, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

FEARLESS AND FREE.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, MY ADVANCE.

VOLUME 2.

CLEARSPRING, MD., OCTOBER, 25, 1850.

NO. 29.

AN INDEPENDENT FAMILY NEWSPAPER, IS PUBLISHED AT CLEARSPRING, MD EVERY THURSDAY MORNING, BY L. JEWETT GROVE.

TERMS.

- 1. ONE DOLLAR per annum, if paid in advance 2. If not paid within three months $1.25.
- 3. If not paid within 6 months, $1.50.
- rearages are paid, unless at the option of the edi-

ADVERTISING-16 LINES TO A SQUARE. Each square, or less. 3 insertions Each subsequent insertion For single inscrtion charge of direction, must give the post office not escape. On going to him in the morcounty and state, to which the paper has been and is to be sent.

Communications for the paper must be post paid, or they will receive no attention.

From the Flag of our Union. BE HAPPY.

BY J. MART.

Let's smile and all be happy: And strive against all cares: Half the pains of life we feel Arise from groundless fears.

Can we expect a life like this To be an unchecked scene Of happiness? unchanging bliss -A pathway always green?

No-there must be a troubled world, To be a heaven of peace; And every day proves that with life Alone our cares can cease.

'Tis but a common lot? Were it not better, mid the gloom, Go choose the brightest spot?

Be happy thankful and content For blessings you possess; For many, with not half the means, Have twice the happiness. Baltimore, October, 1850.

we may master all the lore of antiquity Knowledge, and Virtue, and Faith, and that this was intended for his friends. -be conversant with all the writings, Hope and Charity, and you may turn The notice however, became more men on that portion of the Central Railsayings and actions of the mighty dead them out into the world without a pang frequent, and having leisure, I conclud- road which passes through Braddock's we may fathom the sciences—read the of apprehension, without a doubt of dis- ed I would visit my friend the proprie- Fields, Alleghany county, Pa., have lateheavens, understand their laws and re- trust, or fear; they will never injure tor of the Granary. He greeted me cor- ly dug up several skeletons, the remains, volutious - dive into the mysteries of the State." earth and air; yet if we are not able to which looks to the head and the heart. and anxiety—and in the conversation of the evening he entered into particuweigh our own actions and requirements with the actions of others in the balance | & If we would enjoy ourselves, we lars. of even-handed, impartial justice, and must take the world as it is - mix up a repine not at the verdict -if the clear, thousand spots of sunshine - a cloud here night almost two years, and am more in upon the earth fruits, herbage, and flowour understanding-if we have not yet winds of autumn, and the bland, revivobtained the perfect knowledge and per- ing air of summer. fect government of ourselves, and strictly and faithfully mantained the secret A SOLEMN THOUGHT .- "No man livspring of our minds, the fountain of ing to himself." This is impossible. -our opinions, and the motives of our ac- His light must radiate, his example must tions-if we have not yet learned that love operate, his power must be felt; no man, wise-we are as yet only on the thresh- insignificance, can "live to himself." hold of knowledge.

GOLD AND GOD.—There is something !forcible in the anecdote told of a distin- Poverty may lay its chilly hand guished preacher, who, not being able upon us, and freeze up the brighest founto make any impression upon a man's un- tain of our hopes, disappointment may derstanding; wrote the word God on a meet us at every step, affliction may piece of paper. "Did you see that!" strike down those who are dearest to us, said he to the individual.

"Yes," He then covered the word with a reputation, still let us be true to ourselpiece of gold. "Do you see it now?"

The effect was startling. The man saw at once what had shut his eyes to all that was true and beautiful in the world and most worthy of his devotion.

The end of learning is to know God, and out of that knowledge to love nearest, by possessing ourselves of true fruit stains may be readily removed from been occasioned from my delinquency. him, and to imitate him, as we may the

 If the sun is going down, look up boiling water. at the stars; if the earth is dark, keep ence and God's promises, a man of child the world, marry a widow with twelve repent -pay him what you owe him. — women to spoil their work, and young may be cheerful.

ANIMALS IMITATING DEATH TO SAVE THEIR LIVES. - During a visit to Cumberland we found several hedgehogs in Inglewood Forest. One of these, in order to destroy it, we put in the pond. It swam about in a circular direction for some time, and reached the shore. After putting it into the water a second heading, from the Boston Olive Branch. express notice to the contrary, are con- either for shape or face. When the time, it remained motionless and appar. Where it originated, we know not, but sidered as wishing to continue their sub- picture was finished, the alderman enently dead, and we left it on the grass. -During the night, however, it walked a- number of our patrons.] way. The spider will imitate death to save itself; and can a ries bave been taught by some showmen to look as if they were self with every quisite to prosperous ges are paid. 5. Seventy five cents in advance for 6 months by some showmen to look as if they were self with every suisite to prosperous ges are paid. 8. No paper will be discontinued unless all ar- dead. The most curious case, however husbandry, properts to furnish subscribe. 3. If subscribers neglect or f s that of a fex in the North. A farmer ers with one que, of wheat weekly for taking their papers from the offe $1,00 beam in the night to seize his poultry. lars and fifty cents if paid after six ponsible till their bills are settled and "True, epixed Sir Pi 50 He accordingly sawed the end of the weeks. 25 | beam nearly through, and in the night he though, lifeless. Taking him out of tory to every subscriber; and the pro- dence of Intentional Fraud. the building, he threw him on the dunghill, but in a short time Reynard opened his eyes, and seeing that all was safe and clear, galloped away to the mountains quality. showing more cunning than the man who had ensnared him.

~~~~~~~~~~~ Election of Jugges.-Judges are elected by the people in the following friend, Mr. Homespun. Feeling a live-States: Michigan, to serve 7 years; ly, interest in his welfare, I visited his Kentucky, Circuit Court, for 8 years; farm, although it was a long journey have produced say $160,000, the expen-Alabama, Circuit Court, for 8 years; — from my home, and was pleased to find ses being deduced from which sum, the other touching his sleepy hat. years, Supreme Court, 15 years; Mis- ed me that he contracted a large debt in Barnum. Within this short space of that is the name that they gave to the sissippi, Circuit Court, 2 years, Supreme the purchase of the premises, stock and time, in the way of charities, she has Devil, is it not?" 4, Chancellor 6, Justices of the Peace 2 implements of husbandry, but he had no given to New York societies, $10,000; years; New York, 8 years; Wisconsin, doubt of his ability to discharge every 6 years; Iowa, 6 years; Illinois, Supreme obligation in a few years. He also sta-Court, 9 years, and Circuit 6 years; ted that he had received many hundred To say nothing of her private alms Texas, 6 years. In Georgia, Circuit subscribers, and that in four or five Judges are also elected by the people for | weeks he would commence the delivery 8 years, and Supreme Court by the Leg- of the wheat according to proposals.

Delaware and Virginia, where they hold office during good behavior; or in Missouri and New Hampshire, where they sould and New Hampshire, where they concluded from its excellent quality and Ohio river. are ineligible after 83 and 73 years of prompt delivery, that every thing was is the fulfilling of the law,—we are not whatever his situation, or his apparent you. He must do good or harm; prove either a blessing or a curse.

to sully our fair name, and tarnish our ing. But they reasoned as you reasoned-other State in the world.

Every body ought to know that power to repair the injury which had children.

THE GRANARY.

A Tale that every Person will Read.

BY A. C. THOMAS

it is too good to withhold from quite a scriptions.

one year, at the w price of two dol- which they are sent, they are hun erous per centage. Address (post paid) bound for another year. Proprietor of Granary, Hopewell.

Such was the prospectus issued by my

The scheme appeared plausable—and pointed by the Governor or Legislature, that I had not the slightest doubt of his than forty persons have died of Dysentery wood to market with a team that head dren the elements of Christian Phil- ally printed on the sacks a general notice Sargeant, of Philadelphia. Extract.-Learning is not wisdom; osophy, the Bible, lesson's of Love and to delinquents-but I never suspected demands, and I can perceive no result rieth them in its bosom and produceth me, I thought my house was burnt but bankruptcy and ruin."

"But you have a large list of subscri-

"Pardon me," said my friend, in a melwill make even a wise man mad. You ble traveling companions. have had a quast of wheat weekly for kind of patrons scattered here and there of which the satisfaction dies at once, & gatherer never goes to bed." over thousands of miles: If they would is succeeded by remorse; whereas, forme, I should be directly freed from em- giveness, which is the noblest of all rethe foul breath of calumny may attempt barrassment, and go on my way rejoicand among you I am brought to the door adieu to the worthy and wronged far- "Ah!" said he, "brethern-no use to cranbery pie that's in the safe," was mer, resolving to do every thing in my pray here—this needs manure!"

article before being wet in suds, in clear, wherever ye-are ye who have received & nately the constitution limits the next eaten the wheat from his Granary with- session to three months. out making payment -ye are guilty of a 16 you would get a good start in grievous sin of omission! Therefore Uncle Sam's teamsters bring the sacks of men their appetite.

grain every week, and Uncle Sam's teamsters will carry the money safely to Jonathan Homespun.

THE LAW OF NEWSPAPERS.

[We clip the following with the above 1. All subscribers, who do not give London, who was not indebted to nature,

2. If subscribers order the discontin- ging, that if he did not purchase it, it Jonathan Homespun, having purchas- uance of their papers, the publisher may would lay on the painter's hands.

The facilities afforded by Government, 4. The Courts have decided that re- an excellent monkey." Orders for the paper, discontinuance, or the fox fell into a place whence he could for the transportation of wheat to every fusing to take a newspaper or periodical Mr. Alderman, to prevent his being section of the Union and the adjacent from the office, and removing and leav- exposed, paid down the money agreed ning the farmer found him stiff, and, as provinces, are such as must prove satis- ing it uncalled for is "primafacie" evi- on and demanded, and carried off the prietor of the Granary assures all who 5. It has recently been decided that may patronise him, that he will exert where a subscriber failed to notify the himself to supply an article of the best Editor to discontinue the paper, at the Nicholas Biddle-familiary called Nick end of the time for which he subscribed, Biddle-was connected with the United N. B.-Agents will be allowed a gen- or to pay up the arrearages, he was States Bank, there was an old negro

> ~~~~~~~~~~ MISS LIND'S CHARITIES .- Jinny Lind has been but six weeks in this country and has given sixteen concerts, which friend?" to Boston do. $2,255; to Chicago Swe- "sometime ole Harry and sometime ole dish Church, $1,000. Total $18,255. Nick." givings, which are understood to be neither "few nor far between."

~~~~~~~~ DYSENTERY.—It is stated that not less Why should we sink, then, when we and their terms generally limited to 7 or prosperity. I entered my name as a sub-8 years, except in Maryland South Car- scriber, and when I left him he was pre- during the last two weeks, and yet it ~~~~~~~~~~

DEATH OF MRS, WISE. -On Wednesage. In New Jersey they are appointed annually by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate.

DEATH OF MRS, WISE.—On Wednessary and day, while the Hou. Henry A. Wise was participating in an animated discussion in about my indebtedness to him—for, said I "to a farmer so extensively patronized I "to a farmer so extensivel A NOBLE SENTIMENT. -- Henry A. as he is, the small pittance of two years' telligence that his wife, whom he left in Hise, in his Address on the subject arrearages would be but a drop in the health a few days ago, died on Monday. of Educaton says: "Teach your chil- bucket." It is true, there was occasion- She was a daughter of the Hou. John

SKELETONS DISCOVERED.—The work-

The heart of the generous man is "Here I have been laboring day and like the clouds of heaven, which drop nothing.

The man who cheats the printer the desk, "how do astronomers measure "Yes, a very large list," was the left town last week, in company with the the distance to the sun?" "why," they reply, "but too many of them are like woman who flogs her husband—they guess at one-fourth the distance, and then were joined a short distance from town multiplies by four." The old desk-worm by the man who stole a stick of ligo- fainted. ancholy tone-"pardon me, oppression rice from a sick negro baby. Three no-

A priest was once called to pray have been steaming it." over the barren fields of his parishioners. Louisiana appropriates annually I felt the whole force of the rebuke, and promptly paying arrearages at the solution; I felt the whole force of the rebuke, and promounced his benediction, until morrow what you can do to-day," said being more, in proportion to her wealth and population, than is bestowed by any other State in the wealth and also a year in advance, I shortly bade other State in the world.

Congress will assemble again in they give drink to others, but are never linen or cotton simply by immersing the Oh, ye patrons of Jonathan Homespun 7 weeks from the present time; fortu- supposed to be thirsty themselves.

LOVE. - A passion that causes young it is very dear to keep her.

SIR PETER LELY.

Sir Peter Lely, a famious painter, in the reign of Charles I, agreed for the price of a full length picture which he was to draw for a rich alderman of deavored to beat down the price, alleprice I demand." mon wor it is like nobody but werelf.

their paper ordered to be discontinued. | will draw a tail to it, and snen it will be WORTH TELLING AGAIN .--- When named Harry, who used to be loafing round the premises. One day in social mood, Biddle said to the darkey -"Well what is your name my old

"Harry, sir-ole Harry, sir," said the Pennsylvania, Common Pleas, 10 and 5 every thing in a nice order. He inform- balance is divided between her and Mr. "Old Harry!" said Biddle, "why

"Yes, sir," said the colored gentleman,

A NEW PASTOR .-- One pleasant day parson L-took a walk from the village of W--- to visit one of his parishioners. On the way he fell in with keeping. After the usual salutations oxen?"

"Well," says Captain S-, I rather

GOOD ADVICE.

If wisdom's ways you wisely seek, Five things observe with care: Of whom you speak, to whom you

And how, and when, and where.

65"Uncle Zeck, do you know the dially—but I saw there had been trou- doubtless, of some of the officers, and United States have been in the habit of matter and explain the phenomena of That is the true idea - an education ble He was evidently worn with toil soldiers of General Bradnock's brave and encouraging and acknowledging tories?" "Certainly not, Simon, what kind of tories?"

"Terri-tories."

Friend Jones, prepare yourself pure light of authority and forbearance and there—a bright sky—a storm to-day debt now than when I began. My cred- ers; the heart of the ungrateful is like a speak what is it!" "Your wife is has not cleared the mist of prejudice from a calm to-morrow—the chill, piercing our understanding—if we have not yet winds of autumn, and the bland, reviv-"Ike," said a rusty old heathen of

The British Empire, sir," exclaimed a John Bull to Jonathan, "is one on which the sun never sets." "And one," two years - I have a large list of the same | REVENCE is a momentary triumph ;- | replied Jonathan, "on which the tax

"You look rather flat," as the teakettle said to the pancake.

"I would take that as an insult," said the pancake, "but I am aware that you

"Well, then, mamma, let us eat the Editors are pump-handles of society;

(A cross old bachlor of an editor, says it costs but little to get a wife, but

We must be useful to men, to be great in their estimation.