A FAMILY NEWSPAPER: Devoted to General and Local Intelligence, Literature, Agricultural and Mechanical Interests, Politics and Advertising

Vol. 35. CHESTERTOWN, SATURDAY, JANUARY 2, 1875. No. 34.

Reliable Testimony.

It cannot be reasonably supposed that when a person testifies to the efficacy of a remedy whose benefits he has experienced, without solicitation, that he does so for the purpose of misleading the public, or from any other motive than that of gratitude. It is still more unreasonable to suppose that eminent physicians would corroborate the evidence thus given unless they were persuaded of its truth. The proprietors of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are constantly in the receipt of voluntary testimonials acknowledging the curative and preventive potency of this beneficent tonic and corrective, emanating not only from those who have felt its influence, but also from well known members of the medical profession, both here and abroad, who have witnessed its effects, and prescribed it in their private practice. In the face of such evidence as this, to which the widest publicity has repeatedly been given, it would be absurd to question the medicinal virtues of the Bitters. Skepticism upon this point was long ago disarmed, and they are to-day as much respected and far more widely known than many of the officinal remedies which figure conspicuously in the pharmacopœia. They are universally recognized to be the supreme remedy for intermittent and remittent fevers, dyspepsia, liver complaint, general debility, disorders of the bowels and nervousness, as well as a means of fortifying the system against malarious influences and those which operate injuriously upon the sensitive organs. Whether used as a remedy for actual disease, as a means of building up the broken down physique, or of hastening convalescence, they are never resorted to in vain, and they often restore complete health when prescribed remedies cannot even initiate its recovery.

at first, and the balance in easy monthly payments, are the terms of the NEW ELIAS HOWE SEWING MACHINE, in every respect the best and most perfect machine in use. No man has any excuse for not presenting his wife, mother or sister one of these Superior Machines. The price is low and he can have his own time to pay for it. When one considers the low price at which it is sold, and the fact that it has demonstrated its superiority over all other machines by surpassing them in elegant work, and above all, the terms on which it is sold, the wonder is that there is not a HOWE SEWING MACHINE in every home in the State.
The Southern people should bear in mind that the HOWE is not sold at an advance of fifteen dollars over New York prices as is the case with some competitors.
