Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co. Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

H. KAPLAN,

His Candidacy a Disgrace.

The more we consider the matter the more disgraceful it is that the Republicans are presenting as their standard bearer in this Congressional district a man whose sole claim is that he is a millionaire. A man who has not a single redeeming feature, an uncouth, unlettered, unintelligent person who hasn't the qualification for the most ordinary position, and who proved his incapacity so completely when he was in Congress that it is a wonder even with his money that he should again be chosen as the nominee.

There are thousands of honorable Republicans in this district, and hundreds of them in Cecil county, who must confess to themselves that the situation is disgraceful, and who must deplore the fact that they are expected to support such a candidate. These Republicans must surely resent the action of the mercenary politicians who have insisted upon the candidacy of this Dives, for the sole purpose of handling some of his wealth, and they should also resent the action of the individual himself who seeks to purchase a position to which none but competent men should aspire.

Many of these same Republicans have in the last few years been denouncing Addicks for his open and shameless efforts to purchase a seat in the United State Senate, and why should they condone the same efforts on the part of Mr. Jackson to purchase a seat in the House of Representatives, and even aid him in doing it?

Is Mr. Jackson any better than Mr. Addicks? Aren't his methods the same? And isn't it a fact that Mr. Jackson is doing much to make the Eastern Shore as notorious as Addicks has made Delaware?

There is no use to attempt to deny that it is the intention of Mr. Jackson and his managers to purchase votes enough to elect him to Congress. He has declared that he wants vindication and means to have it—which is equivalent to announcing that he is willing pay for it. His henchmen throughout the District are eagerly awaiting their share of the "campaign literature" as Mr. Mudd facetiously termed it, and there is every evidence that it will come in such generous amounts as to allow for the bribery of voters and leave a handsome commission for the workers.

It is useless of course to appeal to the honor and conscience of Mr. Jackson's party, but it ought not to be useless to appeal to those honorable Republicans, who, repudiating such methods, will think seriously before they vote in approval of it.

To the Democrats who have nominated a good, clean man of the people, who has proved his ability to fill the position for which he asks re-election, but who is comparatively a poor man, we would earnestly appeal—not only to vote for a Man against Money, but to do all in their power to prevent the purchase of votes at the polling places by guarding the more culpable in their party from the insidious advances of these bribers.

Mr. Smith, the Democratic candidate, is conducting a clean, manly campaign. He is canvassing the District, making public speeches and talking with the voters man to man. He is depending upon the intelligence and manhood of the District to elect him, and he ought to win. Mr. Jackson on the other hand has hired a corps of workers to represent him. He realizes that it would be ludicrous for him to follow Mr. Smith's plan, and in this, as in all else, he depends entirely upon the use of money.

How can any intelligent man endorse such an individual for one of the highest positions in our government?—Cecil Democrat.

ATTENTION, VOTERS!

To the voters in the First Congressional District of Maryland:

Amid the multiplicity of issues there is one so broad and clear that the attitude of Congressional Candidates upon this question shows whether they are really with the people or with the Trusts That question is: Shall a system be re-established whereby the people may vote direct on national issues?

All the Congressional Candidates throughout the country have been asked the question by the undersigned, the National Federation for the People's Rule, a non-partisan organization representing organized farmers, wage-earners and other classes, except the monopolist.

The attitude of Congressional Candidates in your district is as follows:

HON. THOMAS A. SMITH, YES
HON. WILLIAM H. JACKSON, NO

A voter's unfailing guide is whether a candidate will promise to restore his political power. If the candidate refuses he is clearly against him. If he promises he is with him.

Why should Mr. Jackson refuse? Manifestly he is obligated to the Trusts.

You see it is not a question of Republicanism, but whether the Trusts or the people are to be represented. Which candidate in your district is receiving the Trusts' support?

For the first time since the war of the Revolution the paramount issue is the people's right to self-government, and the issue is clearly drawn.

GEORGE H. SHIBLEY, President.
