

The
STATE FARMER
SECTION
AGRICULTURAL FEATURE OF

THE MONTGOMERY INDEPENDENT

ROCKVILLE, MD., FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1936

LIKE AN OLD ENGLISH SPORTING PRINT is this photograph of hounds and fields moving off to the draw at the first meeting of the Whaddon Chase Hunt in England. (Wide World Photos, Inc.)

Left:
MY! WHAT A BIG YEAR—Alice Faye, the very blonde leading lady of 20th Century-Fox brings her New Year's Greetings to her thousands of farm friends.

Right:
- - - AND SPANKY, favorite of Hal Roach's Rascals contemplates the future and wonders what 1936 holds for him.

Below:
MAXINE QUACKENBUSH, 17, of Sharpville, Indiana, with her three Southdown lambs that won the grand championship in their junior feeding class at the International Livestock Show in Chicago. (Acme)

CONFEDERATE DAUGHTERS ELECT NEW PRESIDENT at the 33rd Annual Meeting. Mrs. John L. Woodbury, Louisville, Kentucky on the left, newly-elected President, is receiving congratulations from Mrs. Livingstone Rowe Schuyler, New York. (Acme)

PORTABLE RADIO AIDS ITALIAN ARMY IN ETHIOPIA. (Acme)

Left:
THIS CARLOAD OF HEREFORD CATTLE sold at the Tenth Annual Great Western Livestock Show in Los Angeles, Calif., for 51c a pound—a new world's record price. (Acme)