Joseph Wood prefers to the Court here the following petition:
To the Worshipful the Justices of the Frederick Co. Court the Petition of Joseph Wood humbly sheweth that whereas the ROAD from Monocacy Ford where John Hussy lived that leads to Lancaster is very much used by travellers as well as this inhabitants and the road being very crooked and stopped up by trees falling across the same and whereas the road might be laid out a shorter way and less damage to settlements that lay near the said road: Your petitioner therefore humbly prays your Worships that there may be a road laid out as aforesaid, and three overseers to clear it. One from Monocacy crossing My Lords Manor , and one from My. Lords Manor cross Little Pipe and one from Great Pipe Creek to the temporary line. Upon reading which petition and considerations thereof it is ordered by the Court here that Nathaniel Wickham Jr., Thomas Beatty and Joseph Wood lay out the roads as above prayed and that they make return thereof ti the next Court.

PAGE XX. 20. March Court 1748.
The Justices of the Court here ascertain the following HUMDREDS within This County.

UPPER POTOMAC HUMDRED
LOWER PAET OF POTOMAC HUNDRED
NEW FOUND LAND HUNDRED
SUGAR LAND HUNDRED
SUGAR LOAF HUNDRED this to lie between the Seneca and Monocacy, and betwixt the Old Main Road and the new main road.

LINGANORE HUNDRDE To begin where the new Main Road crosses the Monocacy and so run up the to the mouth of the Linganore, and with Linganore to the main road that leads to Annapolis til it intersects with Ann Arundel Co. so as to take in all of the taxables and to join with New Found Land Hundred.

MANOR HUNDRED: To begin from the mouth of the Linganore Ck. and up the Monocacy to the mouth of Pipe Creek, and up the Pipe Creek to the fork and up Little Pipe Ck. to Wm. Farquhars Ford. and from thence with a straight line to Linganore main road Ford.

PIPE CREEK HUNDRED: To begin from the mourh of Pipe Creek and up with the Monocacy to the temporary line and with it to the dividing line between Baltimore County and with this County line to the wagon road leading from Monocacy to Annapolis.

KITTOCTIN HUNDRED: To begin from the end of Catoctin Mtn. and up the River to the ens of Shenandoah Mtn., and to the temporary Line, and so to be bounded with the temporary line to Kittocktin Mtn til it comet to the southwest end of same.

ANTIETAM HUNDRED: To begin from the end of Shenandore Mtn. to the mouth of Antietam and up with Antietam to the temporary line and with that to the top of south Mtn. otherwise called the Shenandore Mtn. and with that to the end thereof.

MARSH HUMDRED: To begin from the mouth of Antietam to the mouth of Conococheague, and up that to Vulgamots Mill, and from that to the road that leads from Vulgamots Mill to Stulls.

SALSBURY HUNDRED: To begin from Vulgamots Mill and with Conocheague to the temporary line and with it to the Antietam and to Stulls Mill, and from thence to the beginning.

~~CONCONCHUNCHEC~~
CONOCOCHEAGUE HUNDRED: To begin from the mouth of the Conocoheague to the mouth of Big Tonoloway and with it to the temporary line and with it til it crosses Conococheague, and down the same to the beginning.

LINTON HUNDRED: To begin from the mouth of Tonoloway and up the Potomac River to the fountain head thereof and from thence to the Meridian Line til it intersects the ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ Temporary line and down the same til it intersects the Tonoloway Ck.