FILE C-8
FHY 4

HISTORY OF FREDERICK COUNTY---WILLIAMS.

Page 1. A trading Post was established at the mouth of the Conococheague in 1732. or ~~afterxxx~~ 52 years after 1680.

Page 2. On March 1732 The proprietor published inducements to settlers of the back country as set forth in another sheet.

Page. 3. The Village of Monocacy, the oldest in Western Maryland, probably 1729 was believed to be near Creagerstown.

Page 3. The Old Monocacy Road crossed Hunting Creek a short distance southeast of Creagerstown at the possible location of the Village of Creagerstown

Page 3 The Log Church at Monicacy Village was built at about 1733 or 1734.

Page 4 Benjamin Allen, Riley Moore and William White went to the Shenandoah from Monocacy in 1734.

Page 4. The Town of Creagerstown was laid out between 1760 and 1770. by John Cramer,

Page 4. Rev. David Candler preached at Monocacy before 1743 and died at Connewaho in 1734.

Page 4. 5/6/1747 Rev. Michael Schlatter arrived at Monocacy.

Page 5. 6/24.1747 Rev. Henrick Melchor Muhlenburg was at Monocacy. From his report it was estimated that not ess than one thousand Germans lived in and around Monocacy.

Page 5. Rev Schlatter returned to Monocacy at which time the congregation at Fteredrick was erecting a church. Rev Schlatter crissed the mtn. at Cramptons Gap, thence via Rhorersville and Keedysville on Antietam, thence in a western direction to the settlement on Conococheague, at about 7 or 8 miles west of Hagerstown probably in the vicinity of St. Pauls Church and the vicinity of Clearspring, which is the oldest congregation in that country.

Page 5. At about 1746 the Moravians seceeded from Monocacy Settlement and founded a settlement at Graceham. They completed a Church in 1749 on land, a part of Carrolls Manor, given by the elder Charles Carroll through Joseph Johnson who drafted a deed to Rev. R. Powell.

Page 6. Rev. Schlatter wrote in his diary 5/15/~~XXXX~~ 1748 that the school-master was Thomas Schley. Thos. Schley arrived at Annapolis in 1735 and settled on Carroll Creek of Monocacy on lands belonging to Daniel Dulany.

Page 6. The first entry on the Lutheran Church of Frederick Record of Baptism was Aug. 22, 1737, and was to a son of Frederick Unsel.

Page 7. From the entries found in the Colonial Records of Md. at Annapolis if appears that from 1752 to 1757 1060 germans emigrated arrived by Annapolis and reached Frederick County. The Ship Patience arrived at Annapolis 10-4-1752.

Pg. 8. Harbaughs Valley was largely a Swiss community, the first settler being George Harbaugh. Many of these were Moravians.

Page 10. One of the earliest settlers in Frederick County was William Elder, who came from St Marys County in 1734 and located at the foot of the Blue Ridge, calling his place St Mary's Mount. Elder was a Catholic and he dedicated one apartment in the house which he built for his home to the use of a Chapel.

Page 12. About 1736 a battle took place at the mouth of the Antietam between the Delawares and the Catawbas. Anothe battle took place on the west side of the mouth of the Conococheague.

Page 12 in 1638 the assembly enacted a lay prohibiting the acquisation of the land from the Indians by the Colonists, either by gift, Grant or purchase. Any such land was forfeited by the Pro rietors.