POLITICAL NOTES

The Republicans in Kent will hold their primaries on Saturday, August 7th. This will be a new experience in Kent, especially for the 1800 negroes. A leader in Chestertown says the prospect is for a contest as heated as was the Democrats.

Democratic primaries were held in Wicomico Saturday. The vote was a heavy one, 2,145 votes being cast out of a Democratic registration of 3,000. The feature of the election was the defeat for renomination of Roscoe Jones, who at the last session of the Legislature offered the general local-option bill and led the fight for the measure. The Antisaloon League made a hard fight for his renomination, but was not able to carry him through. Mr. William M. Cooper, who secured for Wicomico county the contract for building the State road in Wicomico county, was renominated for Commissioner, he having made his campaign on a good roads platform.

A special from Easton on Saturday said: "In reference to a call issued by a number of leading Republicans in the county about 50 members of that party assembled at Music Hall today to discuss the political situation from their standpoint. At the recent Democratic primaries Francis G. Wrightson won by a small majority over Charles B. Lloyd for Clerk of the Circuit Court; likewise Chas. R. Wooters over Alexis G. Pascault for Register of Wills. Messrs. Lloyd and Pascault have announced their intention of running as independent candidates for the offices to which they aspired to be nominated by the Democrats. It is this condition that caused the meeting of Republicans today.

A number of those present advocated fusion with the Democrats, others favored a bobtail ticket (the nomination of candidates for the State Senate and House of Delegates only), but the majority desire a full straight Republican ticket.

All is not serene within the Republican party The Independent Republicans, who for a number of years nominated full county tickets themselves and helped to defeat the regular Republican ticket, were not asked to sign the petition for the meeting and feel that they were pointedly and purposely ignored. They called their committee together and decided that their members should refrain from attending the meeting. One prominent Republican said that the object in calling the meeting today was that some of their party were after the scalp of the chairman of their central committee, R. R. Walker, who is also postmaster of Easton.

In Caroline twenty-four candidates have registered with the State Central Committee for the nine nominations for office to be made in the Democratic primaries on July 24th.

The list as finally made up includes but one candidate for the State Senate—Edward E. Goslin, of Federalsburg, and his nomination will be made, therefore, without opposition. Senator William Winder Goldsborough, who was expected to ask for a renomination, failed to do so. In the last session Senator Goldsborough and the county organization were at outs, and the rejection by the Senate of the nomination by Governor Crothers of Col. Albert W. Sisk to succeed himself as a member of the county school board caused much feeling. Two years ago Goldsborough sought to unhorse Thomas A. Smith as a member of the State Central Committee, but was decisively defeated.

In the primaries this year there will be no opposition whatever to the organization, and the three delegates to the State convention—Robert E. Smith, Dr. Thomas Saulsbury and Jos. H. Gallagher—will vote for the retention of Smith, Sisk and Dr. Fred. R. Malone on the State Central Committee.

The Independents are preparing to put up a ticket in Queen Anne's and have called primaries for July 31st—same day as Democrats.
