HISTORY OF FREDERICK COUNTY Williams,

Page 24. Benjamin Tasker gave an obligation in writing to convey the tract of 7000 acres to Abraham Miller, Daniel France, John and Geo. Loy (lye), Joseph Smith, Peter Laney and Jacob Stoner, the consideration to be 2000 pounds. This sale was never actually concluded, but at the request of Miller and others it was conveyed to Daniel Dulany.

Frederick City or Town eas laid out in 1745 on both sides of Carroll Ck.

Page 31. At the time of the defeat of Braddock, Cresap returned to his Home at Long Meadow about three miles from Hagerstown, here he established himself in a strong house or fort as it was called. This Fort was a place of refuge to the surrounding settlers.

Page 406 At about 1745 Frederick Town was laid out and Daniel Dulany ceded to the Reform People a lot of ground for the site of a Church and graveyard, at the intersection of the Government Road leading southward with the road leading westward..

Page. 428 Prince George Parish was formed July 26, 1726 and included what later became Frederick Countt.

Pg. 429. All Saints Parish was formed Oct. 29, 1742, and included all of Western Maryland, with Montgomery and part of Carroll Counties.

Page ~~XXX~~ 444The first Catholic Church in Frederick was erected in 1763 This was partly dwelling house etc. on account of tge law.

Pg. 460 The Church of the Bretheren or Dunkards was formed in 1760, it was the Middletiwn Valley Church, They first worshiped in private Homes

Pg. 463. The Reformed Church at Middletown where services were held as early as 1756. The Church was located 1½ miles south-west of Middle town and was used as a schoolhouse.

Page 466. The Lutheran Church began in 1757 on the bank of Toms Creek 2½ miles east of Emmittsburg.

Page 477.The wagon road was made to Connestoga Indian Town in 1730.

Page 497. The first Catholic Servoce was held near Emmittsburg in the house of William Elder in 1745, The name of the village was changed in 1786 from Poplar Field to Emmittsburg.

Page 325. Emmittsburg was first called Silver Fancy.(That was the tract name and was surveyed 10-15-1744 and patented 9-29-1765) A.G.T.

Page 326 Linganore means in indian the left ear a,d the Monobabt meant the right ear.

Page 326.in 1747 the heirs of Samuel Plummer gave four acres of land to the Society of Friends upon which they erected a Meeting House (some where around New Market)

Page 328. Bartholomeu Booth was a catholic. He settled at needwood forest near Petersville and after the beginning of the Revolutionary war he went to Delemere.

Page 333.The Village of Jefferson was called Trap or Traptown because so many persons passing through there were being robbed.

Page 334. Thurmont was on the Great Road leading through t he mountain gap to Ha erstown and beyond. The First Church was called Apples Church which was erected in 1765.