I have known William House Sen. since I knew myself but for the last four or five Years have not seen him more than once or twice. he used to come to my fathers House. My father and Mr House were old friends and visited frequently. To the 2d Interrogatory he answers and Says. I was present at the taking the inquisition of Lunacy and had a Conversation with William House Sen. on Coming into the house. John House told the old Man who I was, I delivered a Message from my father to him, Remembering his Love to him: he observed very well: and added they are going to hang me to day. I said, not as bad as all that. he said what I have Worked hard for. they are going to take from me; they Cant wait till after my death. he then asked me if I knew John Pitcher? I told him I had seen him. but was not acquainted with him. he observed that Some people said that John Pitcher was George Houses Son. he said Something of old Mr Pitcher which Witness does not Recollect.

To the 3d Interrogatory he answers and Says; from the Conversation I had with him on the day of taking the inquisition I did think him capable of Making a Valid Will or Contract.

To the 4th Interrogatory he answers and Says; I have heard the Report for some years back in the neighborhood. To the 8th Cross Interrogatory put to John Willyard on the part of the Caveators, he answers and Says; Mrs Niles and John House I Remember were present. the house was full of people. it was in the forenoon of the day. and no person Requested me to hold the Conversation with old Mr House, I am not positive that any other person heard the Conversation.

Jacob Winpigler aged about 40 years a Witness produced and Sworn on the part of the Caveatees answers and Says to the first Interrogatory;

I have seen William House Sen. but have had no acquaintance with him. To the 2d Interrogatory he answers and Says; I was not present on the day of taking the inquisition of Lunacy and had no Conversation with him for two years before his death; To the 5th Interrogatory he answers and says; I was at his house about four week before his death. his Son John took me there. and told me had some piggs to Spare. John asked the old Man if he had any piggs to Spare. who Replied that he did not know whether he had any hogs or not, the people were then asked and Said there was none to spare;

Hugh McMullan aged about 44 years a Witness produced and Sworn on the part of the Caveatees. answers and Says; to the first interrogatory; I think I never saw William House Sen. before the latter part of last November or beginning of December. To the 2d Interrogatory he answers and Says; I saw him once before the trial of Lunacy; and twice afterwards. I attended two days at the trial and had Conversations with him. in which he appeared to be Rational I thought him Capable of making a Valid deed Will or Contract. To the 5th Interrogatory he answers and Says; I Recollect the last time I saw him about easter he looked more wild and not so natural as before but had no Conversation with him.

To the first Cross Interrogatory proposed to Hugh McMullan a Witness produced and Sworn on the part of the Caveatees, he answers and Says: I had a Conversation with William House Sen. in the latter end of November last also at the trial of Lunacy. which are all that I Recollect in the first Conversation he Spoke of Mr Nicewanger with whom he had a dispute about Some trees he said that he would See him; as he appeared to wish to injure him. Mrs Delilah Turner (one of the Caveatees) interpreted the first part of the Conversation which took place at that time as I did not understand him well but after becoming acquainted with him I could understand a good deal of what he said. he had an impediment in his Speech. he had a long Conversation Respecting his Son Caleb which I did not
