Mrs. Fountain Crew and Mrs. Carlton Moore are spending this week with Baltimore relatives.

Mr. A. T. McDorman, of Mt. Washington, Baltimore county, has been spending several days in town.

Miss Irene Crownhart is the guest of Baltimore friends.

The foundation is being laid for the new home of Mrs. Mattie Tull, on the lot which she recently purchased from the Bayside Land Company.

Our town has enjoyed a building boom this fall. Three new houses are now nearing completion.

Mr. Photon Crew and Miss Martha Sykes, two of the town's popular young people, were quietly married at the parsonage at Still Pond, by Rev. J. H. Beauchamp, on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Crew left on the afternoon train for a trip North. On their return they will reside in the new home which Mr. Crew has built on Ericsson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Green have returned from a trip to Baltimore and New York.

The Ladies' Town Improvement Association will hold an ice cream festival Saturday night on the new pier, for the benefit of new walks around the town.

Rev. I. White, of Worton, occupied the pulpit of the M. E. Church Sunday afternoon, in the absence of the pastor.

CHESTERVILLE ITEMS.

Emmanuel M. E. Church, South, Chesterville: Sunday School at 10, Preaching at 11, League meeting at 7, Wednesday night service at 7.30.

Trinity M. E. Church, South, Millington: Sunday School at 2, preaching at 3.

Owing to the storm last Sunday the first sermon of the series of four in "Common Foes in Classic Faces" will be given next Sunday.

George Davis has moved to W. M. Dill's house in Chesterville until the first of the year when he goes to Carroll Clark's, near Massey.

The many friends of Alice Stephenson will be glad to know that she is rapidly recovering. Dr. C. P. Gowman has been untiring in his efforts to save her, to this her life is due.

The Millington and Chesterville Church folk are making preparations for the Epworth League District Conference which is to be held in Trinity on November 9-11.

"First vote the Democratic ticket; then, leaving the booth, go to the polls where Senatorial primaries are being held, and vote for the Senatorial candidate, Isidor Rayner." But however many votes Mr. Rayner gets, unless Messrs. Harris and Willis are elected it will amount to nothing. Vote for Harris and Willis.

Joseph Bloom, of Worton Point, was fined $50 and costs for maintaining a nuisance as noted elsewhere in News.

The gunning season begins Wednesday. There is a law in Kent forbidding any one to carry firearms of any kind on election day. Therefore, it is unlawful to hunt game unless without arms.

Enjoyable Musicale.—Still Pond Grange held a very enjoyable musicale on Wednesday evening, October 27. Although the evening was stormy a very good audience was present and all thoroughly enjoyed the excellent program. Those who assisted were: Miss Minna Thornton, pupil of Ernest Hutchison at the Peabody; Miss Christina Schutz, contralto soloist of Madison Ave. M. E. Church and Madison Ave. Temple, Baltimore; Mrs. A. L. Harris, accompanist; Miss Margaret Brinsfield, of Kennedyville, reader. The program was as follows:

COLORED BOY—WHITE GIRL.

The Republican Boss of the State, Wm. J. Stone, has been charged with placing a negro boy and white girl arm in arm on the stage in Chicago before the Republican National Convention. He denied the charge, but the facts are against him. A Baltimore lady sends the following clipping from the New York American of June 24, 1904:

"There was another incident at Chicago that has excited unusual comment in the Southern States. When the jollification was on a mulatto boy was put on the stage with a flag in his hand. He waved it and then the convention applauded, but the applause suddenly died away. Then a little white girl was put on the convention floor and she waved a flag and there was more applauding. An enthusiastic delegate put the two children together and side by side the saffron-hued negro boy and the flaxen-haired, blue-eyed Anglo-Saxon girl waved a flag in order to make a Republican holiday more lively.

"Those who looked and did not think said it was a fine example of equality before the law. The Southern white delegates to the convention said, 'So far so good, but if it meant social equality this living picture would have a sinister influence on the fortunes of the Republican party in the South.' It was a trivial incident, but it was significant and the white Southerners at the convention feared it would be far reaching."

THE SHOE MAN

INJURIES PROVE FATAL.

J. Thomas Pennington, One of Kent's Best Citizens, Run Down by Taxicab And Killed—Funeral Largely Attended.

Mr. J. Thomas Pennington, one of the most prominent citizens of Galena, and of this county, died at Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, Saturday night, from the result of injuries received by being run down by a taxicab at Charles and Oliver streets, Baltimore, Wednesday afternoon, and reported in the News last week.

Mr. Pennington was about to board a southbound St. Paul street car, when the taxicab struck him, throwing him into the street. He was taken to the hospital in the taxicab by the driver, George Le Martee, who was afterward arrested on the charge of assaulting Mr. Pennington, but was afterward released.

Drs. Chambers and Hines attended the injured citizen.

He was bruised all over and his clothing torn in shreds. His glasses were smashed and his watch fob twisted from the watch. His limb was operated on Friday and bones wired during all of which he was conscious and showed nerve unseen before in the hospital.

J. Thomas Pennington was a retired farmer and business man of Galena. He owned stock in several of our leading banks and commercial enterprises and was a man of means. He had a very pleasant, cultured home, where he delighted to entertain his hosts of friends. A native of Cecil County, Mr. Pennington was born April 15, 1840, and was a son of Edward, who was likewise born and brought up in that section. He was well-to-do, was a successful farmer and owned many slaves, but the late war proved quite disastrous to him in a financial way and he therefore came to Kent county, where he rented a farm during the rest of his life. He was summoned to his final rest when in his sixty-ninth year. Though not a politician or office holder, he was a stanch Democrat.

His father, also Edward by name, was a farmer, and a native of Cecil County. He lived to a good old age, and was esteemed very highly by all who knew him. The family is of English descent, but has been identified with the Eastern Shore for several generations. The mother of our subject bore the girlhood name of Jane Penington; her father, Robert, was a native of Cecil County, a farmer, and a soldier of the war of 1812, serving as captain of a company. Mrs. Jane Penington was born in Cecil County in August, 1806, and died in 1875. She was a good wife and mother and a devoted member of the Episcopal Church. She left four sons: William, formerly a farmer of this section; J. Thomas; Henry C., a resident of Seaford, Del., now serving on the governor's staff; and Noble E., of Westmoreland County, Va.

J. Thomas Penington remained upon his father's farm until he was near his majority, when he commenced clerking in a general store in Chesterville. Several years thus rolled away, he in the meantime gaining a fair knowledge of the proper manner of conducting a business enterprise. When his father died he returned to the old homestead and assumed its management for his mother's benefit, and carried it on for some years with ability.

In 1871 Mr. Pennington married Annie M. daughter of George R. and Mary E. (Duyer) Van Sant. The father was a farmer here all his life, and was thoroughly identified with this district. He died at the age of sixty-six years, regretted by a host of sincere friends. He was a Democrat, but was never half as concerned about political affairs as he was about matters of religion, being an earnest and active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. His father, George, was likewise a native of Kent County, and a farmer. He died in middle life. Mary E. (Duyer) Van Sant was born in Galena, and was only twenty-eight years old at the time of her death. She left but one child, Mrs. Annie Penington, who has also always made her home in this immediate locality, and who inherited from her mother the old Parker homestead that has been handed down from one generation to the next since 1670, when it first came into their possession.

His wife died about two years ago leaving the deceased alone.

The funeral took place from his late home in Galena Wednesday which was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Cole, of St. Ann's P. E. Church, Cecil, and Rev. A. P. Prettyman, Galena, had charge of services; Undertaker, J. L. Smith, of Millington. The bearers were Dr. W. F. Hines, Marion deKalb Smith, Charles England, Robert C. Morgan, Adam F. Huey, Colin F. Taylor; interment in Galena cemetery.

Mrs. Florence Merritt.

Mrs. Florence Merritt, wife of Samuel Webb Merritt, and daughter of Rev. F. M. Sheppard, of Crumpton, died at her home in Philadelphia, Thursday, Oct. 21st, after a long illness, age 45 years. Mrs. Merritt was a member of one of the oldest and most distinguished families of Maryland. She spent her girlhood at her father's home, near Crumpton, and was well-known in Kent and Queen Anne's counties. After her marriage to Mr. Merritt, who was at that time principal of Shessler College of Business, they resided at Norristown, Pa., later moving to Philadelphia where Mr. Merritt is engaged in business. The funeral services was held at the Merritt residence, 5331 Locust street, Philadelphia, Friday evening, interment was made in Crumpton Cemetery, Saturday.

Mr. John Bacon.

Mr. John Bacon, formerly of Kent county, passed away October 19th, 1909, in his 57th year, after a long serious illness of 16 months at his late residence, 521 N. Third Street, Camden, N. J. He leaves a widow, three daughters and three sons.

Foot Ball To-Day.—Gallaudet will open the foot-ball season here to-day with Washington College. The deaf mutes are said to have a good team and as this is their first appearance in foot-ball on the local grounds a fast and interesting game may be expected. The local boys are all in good shape and as they have been putting up a stiff game so far this season it is expected that a large crowd will be out to witness the style of play the Washington papers spoke so highly of. The game will be called promptly at 2.30. The probably lineup of Washington in to-day's game will be:

The Hupmobile is represented in Kent by Messrs. H. B. and E. T. Massey, of Massey. These gentlemen are practical men and will be glad to show the merits of this car to interested parties.
