AT Galena, in a game of base-ball the former won from Ceciton by a score of 15 to 0. The game was witnessed by a number of base-ball enthusiasts. We understand the contests between the two Maryland towns as tie, each having won three games.

Mock Trial at Fairlee Grange.—Fairlee Grange had a most interesting and entertaining meeting on Wednesday evening last. The feature of the evening was a mock trial. Mr. John P. Nicholson was the judge and presided over the court with dignity and fairness. Mr. Frank Crow was clerk and rivaled Clerk Dixon in keeping things running smoothly. Mr. E. J. Watson was the bailiff and kept the spectators quiet and orderly to the Queen's taste. The case before the jury was a horse trial. Messrs. E. A. Corey and Mahlon Lee were the lawyers for the defense and were brilliant and sharp in their remarks and cross-examination. Messrs. H. Stockton Startt and Wm. G. Smyth represented the prosecution and handled their side of the case ably. Mr. Wm. T. Nicholson was the plaintiff and T. E. W. Crew the defendant. The jury failed to agree. Next Wednesday night will be harvest night when a musical and literary program will be given. The lecturer will spare no trouble to make it both interesting and profitable.

WOMAN EXPLORES POTASH MINE

Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, of Chestertown, who with her husband and children, is now abroad, has the distinction of being the only American woman who has ever explored a potash mine, having recently gone down into the Salstaedt, the most noted potash mine in Germany.

Mr. Hubbard is greatly interested in German potash mines, and at the solicitation of Mr. Schmidtman, "the Potash King of Germany," arranged to visit the Salstaedt. When the time came to go down the shaft, 2,200 feet under ground, Mrs. Hubbard expressed the wish to accompany them, and showed great bravery during the thrilling experience.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard while abroad have placed their children at school in Paris.

THE gunning season is on. Messrs. J. E. Ferguson, J. G. Westcott, R. S. Thomas and D. B. Ford bagged 25 rabbits. Messrs. James H. Shuster and Harry Cannan got 7, Messrs. Wm. E. Ringgold and party 11, etc.

MR. W. FRANK JARRELL has taken the agency for Chalmers—Detroit "30" and the Hudson "20" Automobiles. These are fine machines.

IN another column will be found the tabulated official vote which will be interesting to every reader of the NEWS.
