Below are found several of the favorite recipes of good housewives who read the NEWS. Other ladies in town and country are invited to join the circle and send in their "best." Paste these in your cook book

SPANISH PICKLES.

One peck of green tomatoes and onions, sprinkle with salt, and then let it stand over night; strain off the juice in the morning. Allow one pound of sugar, quarter of a pound of white mustard seed, one ounce of black pepper, one ounce of ground cloves, one ounce of ground ginger, one ounce of ground cinnamon; mix dry; put a layer of tomatoes and onions, and then some spices, until it is all used. Cover with vinegar, and boil two hours.—Mrs. S.

RIBBON CAKE.

Two and a half cups of suggar, one cup of butter, four eggs (leave one out for icing), one cup of sweet milk, two and a half cups of flour, two teaspoonfulls of yeast powder; flavor to taste. Take one-third of the mixture and add to it one cup of raisins, one cup of currants, half cup of citron; spice to taste. Use tart jelly on the upper side of the layers, and icing on the under side, placing them alternately the plain and fruit. This quantity makes three layers of each.—Mrs. S.

SPONGE CAKE.

One pound of sugar, one pound of eggs, half pound of flour; beat eggs well separately; stir the yolks and whites together, then the sugar, juice of one lemon, and flour.—Mrs. H.

FRUIT CAKE.

One pound of sugar, one pound of butter, one pound of flour, twelve eggs, half cup of molasses, wine glass of brandy, five nutmegs, one heaping tablespoonful cinnamon, half spoonful ground cloves, two pounds of raisins, two pounds of currants, one pound of citron.—Mrs. H.

FRENCH JUMBLES.

Take one and a half pounds of flour, one pound of sugar, three quarters of a pound of butter, three eggs; dissolve one teaspoonful of soda in a half cup of milk; one nutmeg. Roll out thin and bake in a quick oven.—Mrs. H.

The entertainment Wednesday night will be under the direction of Mrs. D. B. Ford.

A matinee will be given on Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 4.

A big supper on Thursday beginning at 5 p. m.

WANT JUDGE PEARCE RETAINED.

Senator Goslin, of Caroline county, introduced a petition in the Senate last night, which requests the Legislature to extend the term of Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, of the Second Judicial circuit. It was signed by the members of the Caroline county bar. There is a general demand throughout the counties composing the Second circuit of Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's, Caroline and Talbot for the extension of Judge Pearce's term. Not only are his services upon the bench highly regarded by lawyers and people of those counties, but he is considered one of the ablest members of the Court of Appeals and there is a desire that he be allowed to continue his work in the State's highest tribunal. Judge Pearce will reach the age limit of seventy years before the expiration of his term and before the next legislative session. Judge Pearce and Mrs. Pearce reside here at Carvel Hall, and have made many warm friends in Annapolis.—Annapolis Capital.

Postoffice Inspector Dead.—Postoffice Inspector W. J. Maxwell, died at his home, in Wilmington, Del., Thursday, about midnight, of pneumonia, aged 64 years, after an illness of one week. Mr. Maxwell was quite well known in Chestertown, having inspected the postoffice at this place at different intervals for a number of years past.

The Country Editor.—If the editor of the average paper were to snap at all inducements held out he would soon become a millionaire. If he ran a paper according to the popular notion he would be in the poor house. If he published all the items that were sent to him he would be in a hospitable the most of the time and in jail the remainder

When hay, grain and fodder are "cured," the nutritive and digestive elements in the Saps are lost. Fairfield's Blood Tonic, added to the ration, restores the lost elements, makes food digestible, purifies the blood and perfects the health. Sold under written guarantee by dealers named in advertisement on page 1.

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM.

It Is an Internal Disease And Requires an Internal Remedy.

The cause of Rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this acid must be expelled and the system so regulated that no more acid will be formed in excessive quantities. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. Rubbing on Oils and Liniment will not cure, affords only temporary relief at best, causes you to delay the proper treatment, allows the malady to get a firmer hold on you. Liniments may ease the pain, but they will no more cure Rheumatism than paint will change the fibre of rotten wood.

Science has at least discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called "Rhumacide." Tested in hundreds of cases, it has affected the most marvelous cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide "gets at the joints from the inside," sweeps the poison out of the system, tones up the stomach, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you well all over. Rheumacide "strikes the root of the disease and removes its cause." This splendid remedy is sold by druggists and dealers generally at 50c and $1 a bottle. In tablet form at 25 and 50c a package. Get a bottle to-day. Booklet free if you write to Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md. Trial bottle tablets 25c by mail. 15jan4m.
