ROCK HALL NOTES.

Mr. Will Wagner is much better at this writing.

Our oystermen do not get very many days in catching the luscious bivalves.

Mendels Bros. factory is still doing a rushing business. Plenty of work for the girls.

Little Blanche Day the niece of Mrs. Ernest Hersch is suffering with whooping cough and pneumonia.

Misses Mamie and Maude Miller have returned home after a pleasant visit of two weeks in Philadelphia.

Mr. Joseph Dowuey is preparing to resume work in his canning house canning oysters as well as tomatoes.

The young ladies of the M. E. Church are rehearsing for an old maids convention to be held Feb. 19th K. of P. Hall.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of one of Rock Hall's most popular young ladies Miss Myrtle Durding to Mr. Bayard Sutton Feb. 15th Rock Hall M. E. Church.

Jack, the dog poisoner, is busy in this section. Quite a number of dogs, some of them valuable, have been killed the past week or so. The pack of fox hounds belonging to Mr. John Brice; all of them harmless, and of immense pleasure to him in one of the most pleasurable pastimes of his life, are nearly extinct.

The "Noisy Merchant" under K. of P. Hall is stirring the town and making it interesting to all who call bringing their feet with them. He is conducting a special shoe sale.

Our town "cop" got busy a few nights ago, and in his haste to scale a barbed wire fence one of his rubber boots was snubbed and had a large portion of its top yanked off. The cause of his adventure is best explained by himself, so we will let him explain at his leisure.

We are sorry to report our venerable church sexton again ill at his home. Hope he will soon be himself again.

Oystermen here are getting interested in the doings at the Ancient City. They look with disfavor on some of the amendments proposed by Shellfish Commission, especially the one permitting the taking up of planted stock when and how the planters please. This, if passed, would be a decided injury to the natural bar oystermen. The proposition to return shells to the depleted bars and barren bottoms is looked upon as a "rake-off" for the benefit of the few.

There are petitions in circulation here for a law permitting purse net fishing, and strange to say, many heretofore strongly opposed to such fishing, are signing the petition.

Sunday's "hamshaw" swooped down on "we'uns" so sudden and fierce that it came near making us believe that the ground hog is no mean weather forecaster. Ex-sheriff Casey says he always felt less worry about the late winter when ground hog day was cloudy.

Our water front has been blockaded with ice as far out as could be seen this week. The Gratitude has been making regular trips however to this place.

We are now in the midst of a coal famine. Both coal yards being empty. Luckily, immense quantities of drift wood has been secured by many of our people.

The meat boycott doesn't seem to be having the effect promised. Our butchers are informing their patrons that cattle cost them 25 cents per hundred weight more this week than they paid last week.

The Rock Hall M. E. Society are anticipating a splendid treat tomorrow (Sunday) evening, it being the 4th visit of Dist. Supt., R. K. Stephenson, who will preach at the M. E. Church.

Real Estate Agent Russell has the Davis homestead near Grey's Inn for sale.

CHESTERVILLE NOTES.

Emmanuel M. E. Church, South: Sunday school at 10, preaching by the Presiding Elder, Rev. E. V. Regester at 11. League at 7.

Trinity Millington: Sunday school at 2, preaching at 3 by the Presiding Elder. League service at 7. Thursday night service at 7.30.

Among the new folks who have recently come to Chesterville is one Edw. Walls, who is now boarding with Mr. and Mrs. McCosh Walls. If he follows his parents he will make a desirable citizen.

Miss Eva Burriss and Miss Bessie King are out of the village visiting friends.

Last Sunday afternoon and night were made very disagreeable by the biting gale, notwithstanding a good number of people attended the League service in Emmanuel. Monday morning showed the lowest temperature of the season, the mercury standing at 8 above. On Dec. 30th it reached 9°. These dates rank as the coldest in their months for many years.

You cannot afford to miss hearing Rev. E. V. Regester Sunday at Emmanuel or Trinity. You will remember the man and his message.

Illustrated sermon in Emmanuel after the League meeting Sunday night, February 13.

Mrs. George W. Jones, of Millington, is expected home from a Philadelphia hospital this week. Her many friends hope that she will soon be strong as before her illness.

Dr. Dulaney, of Baltimore, is expected to deliver a lecture here sometime this month. His subject will be "Peculiar People." It will be worth hearing. The Dr. is full of fun.

The pastor of Emmanuel and Trinity will deliver a lecture about the middle of March on "The Dragon Empire." It will be illustrated in a superb manner. No admission fee.

A special meeting of the Fairlee Grange will be held at Fairlee on Wednesday Feb. 16th, at 2.30 p. m. A class of 14 will be given the 3rd and 4th degree. Mrs. L. M. C. Smith will have charge. A musical and literary program will be rendered with addresses by two visitors. Supper will be served.

The members of Fairlee Grange are preparing to hold a minstrel show Feb. 22nd. One of the greatest shows ever held in Kent occurred in Still Pond in 1871 when Mr. J. B. Crowding, Dr. J. H. Kelley and others took part. The Fairlee "boys" say they will equip this one.

Ripe Watermelon.—The 30-pound prize winning watermelon that won first prize at the Tolchester fair was cut on Ground Hog Day by Mr. Thomas Clothier, near Rock Hall. It was a beauty and had kept in excellent condition. Mr. Clothier and a number of friends enjoyed the melon hugely. It certainly was a treat for this time of year.

GALENA NOTES.

On Monday morning last the thermometer registered 6° here the coldest of the season. Several pumps were frozen hard and fast to the great annoyance of the housekeepers.

Mr. Howard Woodall and his sister are visiting their brother, Mr. J. H. Woodall.

Andrew W. Woodall left for Atlantic City for his health. Expects to stay for a month or two. For us poor folks we think it cold enough here without going any closer to the ocean.

As Lent commenced the 9th, all the gaieties of the wor'd will cease for the next 40 days until Easter, especially with the Roman Catholics and Episcopalians. There was quite a large congregation at the Catholic church on Ash Weduesday morning.

The snow is going out of the roads pretty fast. People can travel better.

The Tolchester boat was expected up to Fredericktown this Thursday. Persons along the Sassafras river do not expect to see her this week on account of the ice.

A good many in our town have bad colds, some have the grip.

Misses Mary Steele and May Nickerson left for Philadelphia Monday morning last to resume work in a hospital as nurses.

Mr. Holt Woodall had a dancing party on Monday night last.

Mr. Frank Cohee, our mail driver, is laid up with the grip.

Mr. J. H. Gray is now finishing filling his ice house.

Mr. Steele, our pump man, is now erecting a windmill and pump on Mr. Edward C. Walters' farm near here.

Mr. L. P. Cochran is on the sick list. Dr. Latimer is attending him.

The new Rector at Shrewsbury has not been able to get to St. Andrews, Galena, yet, owing to bad roads and bad cold.

Mr. Parr has been right poorly something like the grip for more than a week back.

Changes.—Messrs. Graham & Clements have purchased from Mr. Wilbur Eliason, Jr., the frame building situated on Queen street and occupied by Mr. John M. South as a photograph gallery. Messrs. Graham & Clements will remove the building to the lot on Cross street, near the Enterprise office, and erect a warehouse on the Queen street lot.

Mrs. Lottie Roberts will erect a back building to the "Brick House" on Queen street and make a convenient residence of same. Mrs. Fannie Constable and daughter, Miss Bertie, of Baltimore, will occupy the home.

Horses Sold.—E. H. Johnson, who has charge of the Denton driving park, has sold his fast pacer, Annie H., 2.11¼ and her five months old colt, sired by Barnett B., 2 06¼, for $1,200 to parties in Philadelphia. The mare will remain in Johnson's string to be campaigned the coming season.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mrs. Dr. N. Comegys is still in a critical condition.

Mr. Mac Britton is much improved and able to be out again.

Mr. Samuel Caldwell, of Galena, was in town this week on business.

Mr. Solomon T. Pippin has resigned his position as salesman in "The Hub."

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of Sudlersville, spent Sunday with Miss Addie Moore.

Mr. Olan Duling, who is working in Wilmington, Del., spent last Sunday with his family.

Mr. Arthur Tyler has recently resigned his position as representative for the Prudential Insurance Co.

Quite a number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Gove Everett, of near Galena, attended the 25th wedding anniversary last Thursday.

Rev. Mr. Nicholson, pastor of the Methodist Protestant church at Crumpton assisted Rev. Moore in his revival services Friday evening last.

Mr. J. E. Higman of near town has had a steam heating plant installed in his home. The installing was done by Mr. George W. Taylor, of Smyrna, Del.

The cold blast last Sunday evening gave the young folks one more day's skating Monday, but the warm south wind on Tuesday made the ice soft again.

A joint meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society and the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church was held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Jas. Vansant.

The taxpayers of the town this week had a vote as to whether hog pens should be allowed in the limits of the town or not. Hog pens are not very desirable neighbors and we hope they will be excluded.

Rev. R. K. Stephenson, superintendent of the Easton district of the Wilmington Conference, held the fourth and last Quarterly conference in the M. E. Church Monuay at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Stephenson also preached in the revival meeting Monday night at 7.30 o'clock.

We are sorry to state that Mr. Carl Clark, of near town, had a narrow escape from death last Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Clark went into the stable where his horses were and was kicked almost to death by one of them. He is much improved at this writing and the community wishes him a speedy recovery.

Saturday afternoon last the "Palmore" a spry little Government launch brought up a number of surveyors to survey the Chester. It is reported that the river will be dredged out up to the bridge. This will add greatly to our town, both as a source of pleasure and as a help to business. We hope the rumor is true.

Coldest Day.—Sunday and Monday were the coldest days of the winter. The mercury at 7 P. M. Sunday showed 11° and at 7 A. M. Monday went down to 6°. Pipes in houses all over town were broken and plumbers reaped a harvest. But it was not cold here compared to Nome, Alaska, where the mercury went down to 70° below zero. A whole household were reported frozen to death.
