ROCK HALL NOTES.

Charley Smith, erstwhile sport of Gray Town, and "Grandpap" Jones have rented the Casey barber room and equipped it with all necessary fixtures for the dispensing of ice-cream, confectionery, etc. They will open this (Saturday) evening.

The M. E. Church officials will present a first-class entertainment in Coburn's Hall this evening. Splendid accommodations will be afforded all comers and a small admission fee will make it further attractive.

Mr. E. E. Leary has razed the huge smoke stack at his factory for the purpose of erecting a new and better one on a new foundation outside of the building. It is now in place and coated red.

The fine weather of March has put the farmers of this section in a hustle along all lines of spring work. Mr. Keyser, on the Hatcherson farm, has done quite a lot of improvement work by clearing off the northern line of the farm, and has also done considerable plowing. Had his landlord backed him up with wire, he would have had the whole farm under first-class fencing. He has the posts all planted and ready for the wire.

Watermen are exceedingly busy these days getting down their net stakes and fishing apparatus in place for the spring work. Because of these operations the tonging fraternity is very much smaller in number. As a consequence oyster buyers are hampered in making quick trips to and from the city.

G. E. Leary & Sons factory, on Grey's Inn, is constantly becoming more and more popular through the county as the years roll on. They have just shipped another considerable consignment of lumber by the power boat Bertie Tull, leaving Grey's Inn harbor on Thursday for the upper bay waters.

CHESTERVILLE NOTES.

Trinity, Millington: Sunday-school at 2, preaching at 3, League at 7. Thursday night service at 7.30.

The funeral of Capt. Peter Brinsfield was held at his late residence Tuesday at 10 o'clock. A large company of people from all over the county were present. The services were conducted by his pastor, the interment being in Chesterville. After the regular ritual service of the church at the grave, the Crumpton Lodge of Patriotic Sons of America, who had served as an escort, took charge and concluded with their burial service. The service was beautiful and pathetic. Capt. Brinsfield was a member of this order. He was not only interested in this splendid order, but in all that it stands for in the country, state and county. He was also a member of the Chesterville M. E. Church South, and had its welfare at heart. He leaves a widow, one son and five daughters, to whom is extended sincerest sympathy. Capt. Brinsfield will be greatly missed by all. Coming suddenly as it did, his death has been a shock to the whole community.

A Missionary Rally will be held in Trinity Church, Millington, this Sunday in the Sunday-school and the 3 o'clock service. All are welcome. Do not forget the missionary who is looking to you for help.

The Rally at Emmanuel, Chesterville, was good last Sunday and a good number brought their missionary money, while it is hoped that others may yet be heard from.

Getting Rid of Rats.—Mr. George Bell of Fairlee, sends the NEWS the following. "On a very large number of old shingles I put about one-half a teaspoonful of molasses and on that, with my pocket-knife I scraped a small amount of concentrated lye and then placed the old shingles around under the stable floors and under the cribs. The next morning I found forty dead rats and the rest vamoosed the farm and left for parts unknown. I have cleared many farms of the pests in the same way and have never known it to fail."

GRANGE NOTES.

Kennedyville Grange No. 244 met Monday evening with a very good attendance. The literary program was enjoyed by all present. Mrs. W. M. Clendaniel read an interesting piece on the trouble a boy has in spring and about how he is doctored by mother and grand mother. "How to grow alfalfa" was discussed by the men to a great extent. It is found to be a valuable food for stock, they preferring it to any other hay. The ladies of the Grange are preparing for a circulating library. Quite a number have joined so far and we expect soon to have it in operation. Our Grange is expecting to take in several new members in the near future.

The Sassafras Grange will hold a farmers meeting on Saturday morning 19th, and afternoon at 2 o'clock addresses made by Prof. C. P. Clase and Dr. Stables on subjects to interest and instruct all farmers, who are cordially invited.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving but sad remembrance of our sister and daughter who departed this life Mar. 8, 1909.

It is sad that one we cherished,
Should be taken from our home,
But the joys that do not perish
Live in memory alone.

All the years we spent together,
All the happy golden hours,
Shall be cherished in remembrance.
Fragrant sweets from memory's flowers.

CHURCH NOTES.

The Christian Workers' service in Christ Church was lead Sunday evening by Mr. Charles L. Dodd. The address was made by Prof C. W. Hall, of Washington College. Prof. Hall's home is in Nebraska and his address dealt with conditions in that border State in the eighties. His father took up 160 acres under the Homestead Law and for a number of years lived in a sod house. The school teacher taught in a small room and lived by week in turn with the scholars. The kitchen of his father's house was used on Sundays for church services and the first missionary to that country was a Methodist Protestant. Prof. Hall compared conditions in Chestertown with those of the new country and urged his audience to think of it when contributing towards home missions. After the service Dr. Little learned that this first missionary was a Mr. Miller, who proved to have been a convert under Dr. Little's ministry in the seventies when the doctor was at Cumberland. It was a most interesting address.

Dr. Little received three persons into Christ M. P. Church Sunday morning.

Rev. A. H. Covey preached a grand sermon in Chestertown M. E. Church Sunday morning, Dr. Barrett having been away from town.

Rev. Dr. Robert Watt, of Smyrna, lectured in the Chestertown M. E. Church last Friday evening. While in town he was the guest of Hon. M. deK. Smith.

The regular monthly meeting of the Huntley Standard Bearers was held at the home of Miss Ethel Ringgold, last evening.

The ladies of Rock Hall M. E. Church will give an entertainment in Coburn's Hall, Saturday evening, March 12th. The program will consist of three parts, viz: First, A Colonial Drill; second, The Twin Clowns, comedy; and third, Dialogues and Tableaux.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor—The pastor will preach the closing service of the conference year next Sunday, March 13, at 10.30 a. m., subject, "The Great Revelation"; 2.15 p. m., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class; 7 p. m., Union Meeting of Epworth League and Congregation.

The Rev. Frederick M. Kirkus, rector of Trinity Church, Wilmington, Del., will preach in Emmanuel Church next Friday evening, 18th, at 7.30.

The last services of Conference year for Fairlee charge will be held Sunday. Preaching at Fairlee Church in morning and Worton in the afternoon. No service at Fairlee at night.
