Hilling Vegetables.

...in the American Farmer says: ...ginning of farm life, in order ...e most improved methods, I ...first-class farmer and garden- ...England. He persisted in ...altivation precisely the re- ...t I had been used to see— ...mangolds sugar. beets, the ...es peas, beans, cucumbers, ...atoes, cabbage, &c., to go ...ling up. The mangolds and ...s stood high above the ground, ...ous part exposed to the sun, ...the mangolds falling over and ...g crooked. The part of the cu- ...bers above ground, which I insisted ...as rather a root than stem and should be surrounded by earth, was left entirely exposed to the sun. I thought the sun would parch the roots, and they would break or be injured when the stem should fall from the upright to the horizontal position. The Englishman would have his way, but agreed I should treat some of each sort of plants in my own way. So a few of all sorts were hilled up and fully as well worked in other respects as his during the season. For a few weeks mine grew as well as his, and the cucumbers, peas, &c., bloomed as early. After one gather of cucumbers, peas, &c., the dry season set in; mine perished, while his continued to bloom and bear, and so of the melons. My potatoes made about half a crop of small tubers, dug from dry hills; his yielded bountiously of large ones, dug from moist earth, at the same time and in the same fields. So with the mangolds, sugar beets, &c. The hilled peas, beans, &c., fired early in the season and succumbed to the drought. Without this experience, if one had said that hilling up growing plants would kill them I should have joined in the response of a million farmers denouncing it as false and contrary to experience, because they did not perish on the day they were hilled up. Ever since I have avoided hilling and ridging about growing plants, and cultivated the soil as level as possible."

CATHERINE HILL, a colored woman, residing in Philadelphia, has filed application for a pension, on the ground that she enlisted and served in the Union army three years during the war, under the name of Henry Williams. She says she was wounded during an engagement, and declared that her sex was never discovered. She said to a reporter that she enlisted because she had shot Henry Stump, son of Judge Stump, of Perryville, Md.

The first election for Commissioners under this Act shall take place on the fourth Monday of April, eighteen hundred and eighty. Immediately after said Commissioners shall be assembled in consequence of the first election they shall be divided by lot into three classes. The seat of the Commissioner of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of one year; of the second class at the expiration of two years; and of the third class at the expiration of three years from said first election, so that—thereafter one Commissioner shall be elected every year, and the persons so elected by name of the Commissioner of Chestertown are hereby declared to be a body politic, with power to sue, and be sued, to use a common seal, and the same to alter at their pleasure.

Section 36. The Clerk of the County Commissioners is hereby authorized and required under penalty of one hundred dollars, (to be recovered on presentment or indictment in the Circuit Court for Kent Co.) to make out an assessment of all the real and personal property within the limits of said town (bank stock, bonds, notes, and other evidences of debt excepted) and the names of the persons assessed therewith, and to furnish the same to the Commissioners of said town, between the tenth day of May and the tenth day of June in each year, and the said Commissioners may levy on the property so assessed such sums of money as they may deem necessary, not exceeding ___ cents in the hundred dollars, in any one year, and may appoint and qualify a person to collect the same, and if the collector of the county taxes, for the election, or other district in which Chestertown is situated shall be appointed, it shall not be lawful for him to decline receiving and acting upon said appointment;

Regulating the Catching of Fish.

CHAPTER 114.

AN ACT to better regulate the time and manner of taking and catching fish in the waters of Chester River and its tributaries lying within the counties of Kent and Queen Anne, in this State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to take, capture or destroy fish in the waters of Chester River or its tributaries in Kent and Queen Anne's counties, by seines, drag-nets, set-nets, fish-baskets, fish-pots, weirs, pound-nets, fykes or any other means or contrivance whatsoever, which is now known or used in the capturing or destroying fish, or which may hereafter be invented for that purpose, from the tenth day of May to the first day of September, except with hook and line, provided, however, that seines or nets may be used for the taking of taylors and mackerel fish, provided the meshes of such nets or seines are in the bar not less than one and seven-eighth inches, or in the mesh less than three and three-quarter inches.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons who use stakes or poles in setting nets of whatever class or description, in the waters mentioned in the first section of this act, to leave such stakes or poles in the waters where they were used, but shall remove, or have removed such stakes or poles from the waters where they were used, on or before the twentieth day of May in each year, nor shall they again be put down in said waters prior to the twentieth day of September following.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That for any person or persons, in said waters, in the first section of this act, to empty their seines upon the beach or shore at any time whilst engaged in fishing, so as to leave the smaller fish to perish, but to empty the same in water of sufficient depth to enable the smaller fish to return to the waters for growth and maturation, and any person or persons using seines, pound-nets, fish-baskets, fykes, traps or nets of any class or description that catch the fish alive, shall immediately cull them and return the small fish to the waters at the place where they were taken.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That no person or persons, other than the bona fide residents of Kent and Queen Anne counties, shall use any boat or trap of any kind or description used in catching fish in the said waters of Chester River and its tributaries in said counties; provided, however, that persons owning or occupying lands in said counties on said river and its tributaries, shall have the right to rent or otherwise grant to non-residents the privilege of fishing in or opposite their shores during the fishing season hereinbefore limited and fixed; and further provided, that the right to take fish with hook and line shall be allowed to all persons at all times.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That upon the information of any citizen of either of said counties, that he knows or verily believes that any person or persons have violated any of the provisions of this Act, before any justice of the peace of either of said counties, the said justice of the peace shall docket a case in the name of the State of Maryland against such person or persons so charged by oath as offending, and issue a warrant at once to some one of the constables or the sheriff of such county, for the arrest of the party or parties charged in said oath with such violation of this Act, to be brought before such justice for trial, and said constable or sheriff shall seize the boat, tackle, nets or equipments owned by or in the possession of such person or persons so charged with the violation of this Act, when such violation occurred, or at the time of such arrest, and safely keep such property so taken during the time pending the trial for such offence so charged, and if upon such trial the justice of the peace shall enter judgment for the State, such person or persons against whom such judgment shall be rendered shall be fined not less than fifty dollars for each and every offence, in the discretion of said justice of the peace; one-half of which fine shall be paid the informer, the other half to the school fund of the county where such judgment is rendered, and if such fine is not paid within five days from the date of said judgment, the said justice of the peace shall, on the sixth day thereafter, enter judgment of condemnation against the boat, tackle, nets, or other equipments of such offender which had been seized by the officer aforesaid, which said boat, tackle, nets, or other equipments shall, after ten days' notice, be, by the said officer, sold to the highest bidder for cash, and from the proceeds of such sale shall deduct the fees allowed constables upon executions, the costs incident to such trial and judgment, together with such expense as such officer may have incurred in the taking and keeping of such property, and shall then divide the residue between the informer and the schools of the county equally, said officer not to be liable for any damage or loss of said property while in his custody which may occur without fault on his part.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons convicted of offending against any of the provisions of this Act shall think himself aggrieved by such conviction, he or they may appeal from the judgment of the justice of the peace before whom such conviction is had, at any time within ten days from the rendition thereof, to the circuit court of the county in which the trial was had. If any resistance be made to the officer directed to execute this Act by any person or persons offending against the same, the said officer shall summons the posse comitatus and proceed therewith without delay to execute his duty under such warrant. The justice before whom such offender or offenders shall be taken shall have full power to issue summons for all witnesses that be named to him, to compel their appearance and to examine them under oath.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

WE HEREBY CERTIFY, That the aforegoing is a correct copy of Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed January Session, 1880.

"Any in need of his (DR. WORTMAN'S) services may employ him without hesitation. From knowledge of his practice for the past two years, I have no doubt that he will cure nine hundred and ninety-nine cases in every thousand. I speak, not only from personal experience, having been cured by him after twenty-two years of suffering, but also from a knowledge of a host of patients who applied to me as a reference. Out of some twenty-five or thirty cases that came under my observation, through this means, he has not failed in one. L. W. BATES."

Recognizing the fact that the relationship existing between the counties of Maryland and the City of Baltimore is such that residents of the Counties have occasion to visit the city frequently during the year; in consideration of these facts and the liberal patronage extended the "Maltby" in the past, I deem it but a matter of justice that some discrimination should be made in their favor. I have therefore concluded to
