RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At the meeting of the Directors of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland, held on March 16th, 1910, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved. That by the death of Marion deKalb Smith this community loses and mourns a good, upright, public spirited citizen. In his life is to be found an example to be emulated, an object lesson of business fidelity and democratic simplicity. His private life, his private honor, were pure and stainless. His business career honorable and upright. His benefactions a monument to his memory more lasting than marble. We offer to his bereaved family our sorrowful grief over the desolation which has come into their lives, and venture to express the hope that they will find consolation in the noble qualities of him who was husband and father. And further be it

Resolved. That a copy of these resolutions be published in one of the county papers and a copy sent to the bereaved family.

SAMUEL VANNORT,
WILLIAM W. BECK,
WM. B. USILTON, Jr.,
Committee on Resolutions.

ALDAY CLEMENTS,
President Chestertown Bank of Maryland.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., February 19, 1910.

Dear Sir:—About two weeks ago, we called your attention to our special reduction sale of Suits, Overcoats and Separate Trowsers and have been waiting with the goods to show you. Although we have had liberal responses and very many pleased customers, still there's a good many who haven't bought yet. If you are one of them we advise an early call, for they have been coming from Sudlersville and Rock Hall, and we sold quite a nice bill to parties from Sassafras. So you see the best styles and values must necessarily soon be depleted. As stated before, this special sale at manufacturers prices, with an extra 5% off that, owing to some changes in our lines, is why; and the sale will continue during February and March only, with all alterations charged for.

Respectfully,
Directly Opp. Court House. MOODY & LUSBY.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., February 19, 1910.

Dear Madam:—Have you brought your boy in yet? Well, if you haven't, don't wait too long. We have a good range of styles and prices yet, but at the prices we are selling Boys' Suits and Overcoats they won't last long. We offer you the same discount as on Men's, and same discount off Underwear, Gloves, &c. Come in soon as you can while we have good assortment.

Respectfully,
Directly Opp. Court House. MOODY & LUSBY.
