COMING on top of the heralded retirement of United States Senators Aldrich and Hale, and the capture of a rock-ribbed Republican district in Massachusetts by Eugene N. Foss, Democrat, recently, the Democratic landslide in Monroe county, N. Y., has shaken the deepest strata of Republicanism. Where the late James Breck Perkins carried the Rochester district by 10,167 at the last regular election, James S. Havens, avowed tariff reformer, won by 5,831 over George W. Aldridge, Republican boss, who was supposed to hold the county in the hollow of his hand.

THE residents of Fairlee and vicinity will be afforded a rare treat on May 5th. A musical and literary entertainment will be held at which Mrs. David A. Clark, reader, and Mrs. Howard D. Adams, soprano soloist, of Baltimore, will take a leading part. These ladies gave a concert in Chestertown last year and are fine. Admission 25 cents.

NO LONG EARED EDITORIALS.

DEAR OLD KENT NEWS:

I have known you for a good many years, and still you refrain from growing naggy or have failed thus far from snarling at every thing that doesn't seem to come your way.

Forty years ago you were courteous even to a foe in a political contest, and it is gratifying to know that you have not abandoned that high quality.

You have been a democrat without the disposition to chew the ears off of a single individual of the opposition; but willing at all times to grant him the right to entertain and exercise his own views.

I have not always agreed with you in our fights, and you have never attempted to thrash me for non-concurrence. You have fought on a clean sheet for the people these many years, and I am convinced that under the present management you will not now stoop to deception and vilification to acquire greater prestige.

It has not occurred to me at any time that your present Editors would stultify your honor or consistency by spectacular adoption of abuse towards members of the legislature and other gentlemen who have the faculty to originate and put into practice that which is adaptable to the good of all classes. Certainly not. You would not be true to your long established policy if you exacted of those gentlemen that they be incessantly scenting the well known track of the devastating boss.

I am happy to know that while others bellow and throw dirt over their backs when an apparent prosperity comes their way, you, the Queen of Kent's Journals continue to tread the even and decent way, thereby confirming the prophecy and virtue of the old adage "Silence is Golden."

I have scanned your columns relative to the much mouthed road question and have not found in you an editorial with long ears, a neatly trimmed tail and with kicking shoes, prancing out to see the devastating boss that you might learn from him whether you had brayed loud enough to wake up the sleepy legislators at the State Capitol, and whether you had kicked the right one and in the right place. No, no, you spurn such rottenness.

I have never seen in your columns "look here you Kent county road menders, see how truthful we are." No, nothing like that.

It is said history repeats itself; I trust any attempted repetition of that portion relative to the scribes and parisees will be nipped in the bud. Maybe I will call again.

LETTER FROM MR. BARROLL.

APRIL 18th, 1910.

To the Editors of the Kent News—

Gentlemen: Mr. William M. Slay mentioned in the NEWS of Saturday last the fact that I had signed the petition to increase the pay of the Sheriff for the board of prisoners in the county jail from 35 cents to 50 cents per diem. That is correct. I did sign it, because I thought it reasonable. To feed, guard, wait on and attend to prisoners, 50 cents daily is not a large sum.

Mr. Slay further states that he was told by Mr. Marion Smith that I had signed a petition some years ago to have done the indexing outlined by the "great Dixon law," but it was not done. If Mr. Smith made this statement to Mr. Slay he was mistaken. I never signed any such petition. I never heard of one. But why invoke the name of the dead? Mr. Slay could easily have asked the fact of myself. Doubtless Mr. Smith referred to a petition which all the members of the bar signed some two years ago, requesting the court to order the clerk hereafter to index justices of the peace judgments in the regular judgment docket. This would not have cost Kent county one cent. I think an order was passsed by the court to this effect, but the clerk has never complied with the order, doubtless for good and sufficient reasons. I signed no other petition.

I have heard members of the bar say, if they had known the petition presented to them by Mr. Dixon would have caused such an outlay as it will, they never would have signed it. When the Clerk's bills for this indexing are presented to the county, if the work be done as outlined in the bill passed by Mr. Slay, it is likely Mr. Slay and the county will hear further from this bill of his.

"Perhaps, while I am writing, I had as well say," to quote Mr. Slay, that how he can read the words of the letter he received from Mr. Samuel J. Comley, Secretary, which advocates "a law similar to the Caroline county road law," is not an endorsement of the Caroline county road law by the Pomona Grange, surpasses my power of conception or understanding.

Very respectfully yours,
HOPE H. BARROLL.

COURT IN SESSION

The April term of the Circuit Court for Kent county was convened Monday morning with Chief Judge James A. Pearce on the bench.

The following grand jury was drawn: Garrett Foxwell, chairman; Wm. G. Rasin, Lewis E. Smith, Theodore Dempsey, James G. Beck, Harry Cacy, Curtis E. Crane, Henry Rosin, W. Frank Jarrell, Geo. M. Hadaway, James W. Stevens, John C. Wood, John N. Bennett, Harry L. Boyd, Edwin H. Chrisfield, Wm. R. Crow, Wm. E. Keyser, James T. DeCorse, George Brice, Harry Griffith, Thomas C. Roe, Edward Wilkins, James S. Moffett.

The remainder of the spring panel compose the petit jury, as follows: Wm. E. Wilson, Charles S. Porter, C. Romie Skirven, M. A. Toulson, Walter B. Barnes, Harry Rash, John B. Parrott, John W. Hirons, John Bell, Jas. B. Willson, Walter Francis, Raymond Startt, Wm. T. Brice, James A. Casey, James E. Hurlock, Walter U. Lusby, John M. Comegys, John A. Jones, James W. Ivens, J. Romie Byron, Herman B. Massey, Abram Casey, Geo. D. Lofland, Wm. R. Price.

Judges Adkins and Hopper arrived on the 11 o'clock train and took their respective places. Judge Pearce left on the afternoon train for Baltimore.

The following cases were called and tried, all of which were appeals from the docket of Justice A. S. Crawford, viz: Lewis Smith, Sylvester Freeman, Wallace Cann, William Tilghman, Walter Johnson, all charged with shooting "crap." The verdict in each case was guilty and judgment of $10.00 fine and costs. Messrs. S. Scott Beck and H. W. Vickers, Jr., for defense, and William W. Beck for State.

The grand jury returned presentment against Joseph Cosden for assault and battery.

Cooper-Hynson Case.

No evidence in this case was found or produced that any settlement had ever been made between Richard D. Hynson and Cooper during the fourteen years of his tenancy, and suit was brought by Cooper for over $30,000, including about $2,000 for extra work. The arbitrators after a long hearing and sifting of evidence finally awarded the plaintiff the sum of $1442.80 on the whole claim.

The second case arose from an action of distraint by Mrs. Hynson against Cooper for rents accruing after R. D. Hynson's death. The arbitrators therein awarded her the sum of $1210.33. All parties are satisfied.

The decision of the three judges—Messrs. Allan Harris, W. F. Russell and W. B. Copper—in the case of W. H. Cooper against the R. D. Hynson estate was announced. The verdict in short amounts to about $200 in favor of Mr. Cooper.

Tuesday and Wednesday were mostly occupied with appeal cases and in nearly every instance the Justices were upheld. Samuel Kleckner was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct. Vickers and W. W. Beck, opposing lawyers.

All witnesses in case of Newton vs. Massey were finally excused.

In the case of Wm. T. Newton vs. John T. Cox the jury brought in a verdict for appellee for $10.97. H. H. Barroll for Newton, L. W. Wickes for Cox.

In the horse trading case of Percy V. Hendrickson vs. W. T. H. Whiteley a verdict was given Mr. Whiteley. S. S. Beck for Whitely, H. W. Vickers, Jr., for Hendrickson.

Geo. W. States vs. Wm. E. Reed, another horse-trading case was tried and a verdict rendered for former and for the return of replevied property and one cent damages. S. S. Beck appeared for Reed and R. Groome Parks for states.

Thos. Waters was acquitted of carrying concealed weapons, S. S. and W. W. Beck, attorneys.

Geo. A. Adkins, garnishee of Chas. W. Carter vs. Wm. R. Clough. Suit for money for mules. Verdict for appellant it being proven that property belonged to a lady.

John Kennard vs. Raymond Walbert, suit for pay of mules, etc. Jury brought in a verdict for Mr Walbert. R. G. Parks for plaintiff and S. S. Beck for defendant.

The Grand Jury adjourned on Thursday after examining 98 witnesses and finding 28 true bills.

The case of Wm. Blackiston for assault was tried and Blackiston fined $5 and cost in one case and sentence suspended in the other. W. W. Beck and H. W. Vickers, Jr., opposing counsel.

State vs Wm. Tilghman for violating local option law was tried before the Court and he was acquitted. S. S. Beck for defense and W. W. Beck for State.

Lewin Davis was convicted of larceny. R. G. Parks for defense.

Wm. Starling was convicted of larceny. S. S. Beck for defense.

Jack Johnson was presented for violating local option law. Witness testified that he bought liquor of Jack and played cards in the house. Verdict, not guilty H. W. Vickers, Jr., and S. S. Beck for defense. W. W. Beck for State.

Detective Jerry Campbell of the P. B. & W. R. R. stopped the annoying loafing at the Chestertown Depot by colored boys and men by the arrest this week of Hamilton, Graves, Riley, Butler, Yorker and Holden. Most of them paid their fines.

Court will likely adjourn next Monday or Tuesday.

THE Hindoo Seer, of India, will be in Chestertown two weeks longer and will then remove to Rock Hall.

The fish industry has been very poor this season up to this date; if it were not for the excellent prices received for the fish, our men would not make much money. Some buyers paid as high as 28 to 51c for shad on the pier.

The President and Officers of the Dreamland Park Co., visited here on Tuesday. We trust the work will soon begin on the new park.

WM. M. SLAY, Attorney.
