THE NEW ASSESSMENT

The local assessors will soon place in the hands of each property owner in the county a blank property schedule. In addition to real estate owned the personal property liable to assessment and taxation, under Chapter 300, Act of 1910, includes:

All interests, shares or proportions owned by residents of the State in all ships or other vessels, in or out of port, to be valued and assessed to the respective owners thereof in the city or county where said owners respectively reside.

All money belonging to residents of this State, which shall be the proceeds of the sale of stocks, bonds or other property, disposed of for the purpose of evading and escaping taxation.

All shares or interests in any joint stock company incorporated under the laws of this State, all shares of stock in any Maryland bank or in any National bank located in this State, or in any corporation incorporated by this State.

All shares of stock in any foreign bank or corporation owned by residents of this State.

All bonds made or issued by any State or Territory, or any corporation belonging to residents of this State.

All investments in private securities of every kind and description belonging to residents of this State.

Personal property of corporations not protected from taxation by the exemption of the shares of stock in such corporations.

All certificates or evidences of debt of any State, Territory, or public corporation, or foreign country.

All personal property in which any resident of this State has an equitable interest, with the legal title in a non-resident.

All bonds and certificates of indebtedness bearing interest, issued by any railroad or other corporation of this State, secured by mortgage of property wholly within this State, belonging to residents of this State, shall be valued, assessed and taxed to the owners in the same manner as bonds or certificates, bearing interest and secured by mortgage of property partly in and partly out of this State.

All other property of every kind and description within this State, except property exempt by Section 4, of Article 81, Code of Public General Laws.

Goods and chattels permanently located in any city or county of this State shall be valued and assessed to the owners thereof in the city or county in which they (the goods and chattels) are located.

Diamonds and other costly jewelry not habitually worn on the person, to be valued and assessed to the owner thereof.

Every person engaged in commercial business shall be taxed upon fair average value of his stock in such business during the year preceding the assessment upon such tax is levied.

All bonds, certificates of indebtedness, or evidences of debt made or issued by any public or private corporation of this State, or any other State, Territory, district or foreign country, or issued by any State (except the State of Maryland), district or foreign country, and all certificates of indebtedness issued by any individual or firm, and they shall be assessed and valued according to the rate of interest therein stipulated to be paid, etc.

All shares of stock, or (that is to say) shares in any bank other than a National bank, or in any corporation incorporated in any other State or Territory or foreign country, owned by residents of this State.

Property exempt from taxation by Section 4, Code of Public General Laws:

Section 4. United States bonds or bonds or evidence of indebtedness.

Property of the United States in this State.

Property of this State.

Property of any county in the State.

Property of any incorporated city in this State.

Property of any incorporated town in this state.

Judgements rendered by any court of record or justice of the peace.

Churches and furniture, parsonages and ground, graveyards and cemeteries not for profit, private graveyards, church cemeteries.

Crops of produce in hands of producer or his agent, provisions and fuel for use and consumption, working tools of mechanics or artisans worked exclusively by hand, farming implements worth not more than $300, wearing apparel, fish in hands of packers unsold.

Hospitals, asylums, charitable or benevolent institutions, and adjacent ground not exceeding 40 acres.

Personal property or corporations, whose shareholders are subject to taxation.

Shares of stock in railroads worked by steam and subject to gross receipt tax.

Book accounts, bills receivable or evidences of debt given for such accounts of any persons engaged in commercial business.

Will of Mrs. Sadtler.—The will of Mrs. Anna Bryant Sadtler, daughter of the late Thomas Hill, Esq., filed for probate in the Orphans' Court, Baltimore, Tuesday, gives to her godchild, John Collins, five shares of the capital stock of the National Mechanics' Bank and two shares of the stock of the Farmers and Merchants' National Band. Master Collins is the son of Mr. R. H. Collins, of Chestertown. Any property inherited by Mrs. Sadtler from her mother, Mrs. Harriet L. W. Hill, is to be equally divided among her husband, Rev. John George Sadtler, and her two brothers, Malcomb Westcott Hill and Norman Alan Hill. She also releases her brothers from any indebtedness to her.

The residue of her estate is given to Mrs. Sadtler's husband, who is named executor without bond.

The will was made January 12, 1910. Mrs. Sadtler died July 10.
