WHO CAPTAIN HENRY IS

Gratitude, Md., 10-15-'10.

EDITOR KENT NEWS:

I learn from your paper of October 15 that Captain Guy V. Henry, 12th U. S. Calvary, is to marry a Chestertown lady. The Captain certainly shows good judgment in coming to Kent county for a wife. I should like to have the good people of this county know what kind of fighting stock he comes from.

His father died in October, 1899, before that time if any of the older officers of the army had been asked to name the best and bravest and most distinguished soldier in the army Gen. Guy V. Henry would almost certainly have been named. In the old army of the Potomac during the Civil War, on all the frontiers during the Indian Wars, and during the Spanish War, Guy V. Henry was a name to conjure with.

For the possession of all the qualities that go to make up an ideal soldier few men in any service have equalled him, and none have excelled him. Here is his official record:

Born in the Indian Territory and appointed a cadet to West Point he graduated No. 27 in his class, and was appointed 2nd Lieutenant of the 1st Artillery May 6th, 1861; 1st Lieutenant May 14th, 1861; Colonel 40th Mass. Vols. Nov. 9th, 1863, and honorably mustered out of volunteer service June 30th, 1865; Captain 1st U. S. Artillery Dec. 1st, 1865; transferred to 3rd U. S. Calvary Dec. 15th, 1870; Major 9th Cavalry June 26th, 1881; Lieutenant-Colonel 7th Cavalry Jan. 30th, 1892; transferred to 5th Cavalry Sept. 22nd, 1894; transferred to 3rd Cavalry Oct. 15th, 1895; Colonel 10th Cavalry June 1st, 1897; Brigadier-General Vols. May 4th, 1898; Major-General Vols. Dec. 7th, 1898; honorably discharged from Volunteers June 12th, 1899; Brigadier-General U. S. Army Oct. 11th, 1899.

BREVETS FOR SPECIAL GALLANTRY

Bvt. Capt. Oct. 22nd, 1862, for gallant and meritorius service in action near Pocataligo River, S. C. Bvt. Major Feb. 20th, 1864, for gallant and meritorius service in the Battle of Olustee, Fla. Bvt. Lieutenant-Colonel Sept. 29th, 1864, for gallant and meritorius service in front of Petersburg, Va. Bvt. Colonel March 18th, 1865, for gallant and meritorius service during the war and Bvt. General of Volunteers for gallant and meritorius service during the campaign in front of Petersburg, Va. Bvt. Brigadier-General U. S. Army Feb. 27th, 1890, for gallant and meritorius service in action against Indians at Rosebud Creek, Montana, June 17th, 1876, where he was severely wounded.

General Henry was awarded a Medal of Honor by Congress Dec. 5th, 1893, for having led the assault of his Brigade upon the enemy's works at Cold Harbor, Va. June 1st, 1864, during which he had two horses shot under him.

Capt. Guy V. Henry, a worthy son of a noble father, has made good in every way and upon all occasions, and is doing his best to live up to his father's standard. His official record follows:

Born in Nebraska; appointed a Cadet at West Point June 15th, 1894; graduated No. 45 in his class; appointed 2nd Lieutenant 4th U. S. Infanty April 26th, 1898; transferred to 1st U. S. Cavalry Sept. 26th, 1898; Captain 26th U. S. Volunteer Infantry July 5th, 1899; Major 26th U. S. Volunteer Infantry Sept. 13th, 1899; honorably mustered out of Volunteers May 13th, 1901; 1st Lieutenant 4th U. S. Cavalry Feb. 2nd, 1901; Captain 12th U. S. Cavalry May 13th, 1904.

In the Army we are proud of the Guy V. Henrys.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE E. ALBEE,
Captain U. S. Army.

W. C. PLAYS GREAT GAME

The Washington College football team journeyed to Washington, D. C., on Saturday last and played a tie game with George Washington University. Neither team could score. This was really a victory for Washington College as George Washington had the advantage in older players and weight. The playing of Porter, Meegan and Bauby was conspicuous. The Washington Times says:

The George Washington football players are today wondering what changes will be made in the team as a result of the failure to win from Washington College yesterday.

While the goal lines of both teams were several times threatened, neither eleven was able to shove the ball over and when it was all over the George Washington men were greatly disappointed while the Washington College players were thoroughly elated at being able to keep their goal line from being crossed in the game when it was being freely predicted that they would be badly beaten.

On the other hand, Washington College, coached by Mike Thompson, the Georgetown graduate, played a really high-class article of foot-ball. Although outweighed in practically every position the youngsters from Chestertown played the pluckiest sort of a game. Their tackling was easily the best that has been seen on a Washington gridiron this fall, and it was due to this that they were able to time and again stop when promised to develop into long runs.

Art Notes.—Mr. Claude H. Schuyler formerly of Betterton, Md., has been painting copies of some famous portraits of the celebrated Rodney family of New Castle, Del. These portraits were originally painted from life in Colonial Days—among them is George Reed, of Delaware one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence and the great-grand-father of Mrs. John H. Rodney, of New Castle these are most beautiful n color and design, and are causing most favorable comment.

Mrs. Rosalie M. Schuyler artist has organized a very promising class of pupils in drawing and painting and wood-carving in New Castle and in Philadelphia and has also become instructor of the art dept in the Ursuline Academy Delaware avenue and Harrison street, Wilmington, Del.

Teacher Scared.—Owing to the prevalence of pellagra in the family of one of the patrons of the school, Miss A. Corrine Troy, teacher of the Brick School, near Centreville, has tendered her resignation to the school board.

Miss Troy gave up her school after several of its patrons had refused to send their children if the former parents sent thsirs. The school at one time was one of the largest in the county, but since two of the members of the family which is sending its chilnren to the school have died with the disease the attendance has steadily decreased, until at present there are not more than a dozen children in the school.
