THE poetess and author, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, died Monday in Rhode Island, aged 91.

'Tis only a Wellman can stand soaring over the ocean seventy hours looking for the Times.

A NEW denomination has been formed comprising those who do not attend church. They are called "Seventh Day Absentists."

IF you want to curb the monopolies and trusts you will vote for J. Harry Covington. He is worthy the vote of every white man in this district.

THE Grand Jury finished its labors yesterday, after a week of indefatigable labor. Prof. Thos. H. Topping proved an able foreman, and had with him a jury of exceptionally good citizens.

THE full dinner pail was the slogan of our Republican friends a few years ago. Having won the election, they immediately proceeded to place a tariff upon the necessities of life that the workingman is unable to buy enough food to fill his pail.

AFTER 14 years ownership and editorship of the Easton Star-Democrat, S. E. Whitman & Sons assume control of the Pleasantville Press, N. J. We shall miss these gentlemen's kind words and their fraternal greetings, but shall hope for them even greater success in their new home.

THE people of this county are not going to trust the Republican party to do the revising; they are going to elect a Democratic Congress this fall, which will be the entering wedge to Democratic success in the Presidential election in 1912, when, with a President and a Democratic Congress the work of revising the tariff in the interest of the people and not the trusts, will be accomplished. Remember that a vote for J. Harry Covington this fall will assist in the work of tariff revision.

THE GRIM REAPER.

Kent county has been bereft of noble men and women the past week. There was the kind and ever attentive DR. W. F. HINES, a man of true instincts, and when he made a friend sticketh closer than a brother. The physician to all, rich and poor, the friend to the needy and helper of the weak. Then there was EMORY S. WROTH, the faithful clerk, loving husband, upright citizen and kind neighbor. Also, HENRY S. BARNETT, a man perhaps not known outside of this district, but a giant in the forest of men. Industrious, true and warm-hearted, he gave his life to the work at hand and loved mercy above all things.

Then there was the sad closing of the life of Mrs. Grace E. DeCorse, a woman of many beautiful characteristics.

We cannot say, and we will not say
That they are dead. They are just away.
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
They have wandered into an unknown land;
And left us dreaming how very fair
That land must be, since they linger there.

DR. W. FRANK HINES.

Elsewhere in the NEWS is chronicled the death of Dr. W. Frank Hines. Words fail to express what we feel at the loss of him. He was our friend. A more generous man never lived in Kent County. He has befriended hundreds of people in this section and in his professional career among us was always at the call of rich and poor in the day or night. Once you aroused his interest in your cause nothing was too much trouble for him to do for you. Many are the walks in life in which he will be missed.

WALTER WELLMAN's big dirigible balloon "America," which left Atlantic City Saturday morning in an attempt to cross the Atlantic, was disabled at sea and the crew safely taken off by the mail steamer "Trent" early on Tuesday morning, half way between Cape Hatteras and the Bermudas. The big balloon was abandoned and soared away like a bird. The "America" had been in the air nearly seventy-one hours and covered 850 miles, breaking all records.

THE national ball games this week have created great interest in Kent, where nearly all sympathized with Philadelphia. Over $120,000 was paid for admissions to the games.

DAVID B. HILL, of New York, died Thursday.

ONLY two juries have been empanelled this week, all the cases but two having been tried before the Court.

BIG MASS-MEETING AT CHESTERTOWN AND ROCK HALL

White Men Pack The Halls in Both Places—The Tariff Discussed by Hon. L. Irving Handy, J. Covington And L. W. Barroll.

Stam's Hall, Chestertown, was well filled at both the Democratic mass meetings held here on Wednesday, and at Rock Hall Thursday the hall would not accommodate the great crowd that attended.

Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., called the first meeting to order in a neat manner and upon motion of H. W. Vickers, Jr., Prof. Thos. H. Topping was unanimously elected to preside and did so with grace and skill.

Hon. L. Irving Handy and Hon. J. Harry Covington addressed both meetings in the most interesting and able manner. It would be hard to secure two more forceful speakers and they held the undivided attention of the big audience for nearly two hours.

Excellent music was furnished by the Chrstertown Band under the leadership of Mr. Arthur Bacon.

At Rock Hall Mr. Covington made a practical talk to the oystermen on the high cost of living. Mr. L. Wethered Barroll, son of H. H. Barroll, Esq., made his debut and was accorded a hearty welcome. He made a favorable impression and gives promise of doing good work for the party. Prof. Greenhawk presided over the meeting in a very acceptable manner after Mr. C. L. Dodd called the meeting to order.

It has been many years since a political meeting was held at Rock Hall and this one proved a big success.

J. HARRY COVINGTON, the present member of Congress from this district, who seeks re-election on the Democratic ticket, is the right man in the right place. Able, enthusiastic, energetic, eloquent, and—best of all—straight as a string, he has already won for himself an honored place in the House of Representatives, and has at all times been alert in looking out for the interests of his constituents.

On all national politics his voice rings true; on all moral issues he stands unfalteringly for the right. It is an honor to any man to vote for such a candidate at any time, and in the present campaign, when war is being waged against the protected interests—for the so called "protection" protects only the special interests—it is not only an honor but the duty of every good citizen to vote for J. Harry Covington, if he believes in a square deal and that the laboring and middle classes of this country should have a voice in the government, and be able to purchase one hundred cents' worth of the necessaries of life for one dollar.

Local Notes.

CAPT. PFEFFER, of Chestertown, sold his last vessel last week and is giving up the freighting business. He has been one of the most reliable captains on the river.

THE Chestertown skating rink has been well attended the past week. Last Saturday Miss Daisy Severson, of Still Pond, won the prize for best mask, and Mr. Lane the booby. Tuesday evening Miss Ruth Lambert won the prize for the best lady skater.

THE Sassafras Grange met at the home of James D. Davis and wife Saturday night. Addresses were made by Messrs. Harry Griffith and Isaac Gibbs, which were very interesting to all present. Reading, recitations and music were also part of the program. Ice-cream and cake was served in abundance. The next meeting will be held in the Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall on October 29. A special literary programme is being prepared for this meeting.

ABE COHEN will have a new adv. in the NEWS next week. He has been on his holiday and is preparing a list of bargains for the public.

THE Grand Jury for Kent county, in response to the recommendation of the Court, sent a delegation before the county commissioners Tuesday asking for an improvement to the court house. Judge Pearce, in a letter to the jury, shows the great need of this improvement in order to preserve the books and records. The commissioners held the request over for future action.

WILLIAM LIPSCOMB, on Monday, while assisting Mr. Henry Minner to tear down the old blacksmith shop which formerly belonged to Mr. H. W. Black, fell from the second story and broke several ribs and also cut a very large gash in the back of his head. It is supposed that the joist upon which he was standing, being very old and rotten, gave way, thus causing his fall.

J. W. SKIRVEN & Co. have fifty stock heifers for sale which have been tested. This is an important matter, as so many cattle are unable to pass this test. One farmer this week had one-half of his herd turned down because of failure to pass.

THE first work to be started in the burnt district was begun Saturday by W. S. & A. M. Culp on W. L. Fowler's big building, consisting of two stores, stable, &c. Mr. J. H Sides is preparing plans for a fine store room, to be commenced as soon as possible.

SAMUEL THOMAS SHORT.—In loving remembrance of our dear son, who departed this life one year ago to day, October 19, 1909.

Oh, Saviour, our hearts are so weary,
As we walk along life's way.
So sad since our darling left us—
One long year ago to day.
God grant when our earthly life is ended
And we gather around the throne
That we will meet our precious loved ones
In that bright and heavenly home.
