CHESTERTOWN:
SATURDAY MORNING.....March 18, 1882.

Bob Ingersoll's Prominent Characteristics.

The Rev. Robert Collyer, of the Church of the Messiah, New York, in the course of a sermon on Sunday night, said: "The most prominent characteristic of Ingersoll's present work, is his want of charitable consideration of those who do not believe as he does. This was not his earliest manner. It was my fortune not long since to spend a morning with him on a train, and that gentleness, which is so pleasant to see in an opponent, blew through our little contentions like summer wind through the blue-bells, which are swayed to and fro, but straighten up after every breeze passes. I don't expect to find him the same on the platform as he was that morning. The seeking for applause and laughter, the playing for the Bowery boys, lowers and makes coarse the work of any one who indulges in it. The Mr. Ingersoll roistering around at $25,000 a year, as the common talk has it, is not the Ingersoll of years ago, when he was working all alone in Peoria and winning the respect even of those who could not understand his position. There is not much danger that Atheism will make great progress, with its greatest apostle appearing constantly in motley as his best method of work, and whoever goes about with a chip on his shoulder incessantly is sure to be voted a nuisance. Intolerance can never help the advocacy of Atheism any more than it can its opponents. No man of common sense believes some things in the books of Moses, books which are full of beauty and truth, however; but there is no man that hadn't far better believe everything about the serpent, the apple and the ark than Mr. Ingersoll's doctrine that there is no God. I can agree in nothing with the faith of a man who tells me that his mission is to destroy men's faith in their God. I have no stones to throw at Atheism any more than at a blind man. It can never be an institution; it can never be more than a destitution. As it was well said recently, Atheism is a plant that won't grow in our hardy Anglo-Saxon soil."

HUMAN flesh is heir to 2,400 ills in the shape of disease, but the remorse and unavailing regret which follows a press banquet serves to consolidate and unite the whole grand aggregation.—Bill Nye.

"WHERE shall I put this paper so as to be sure of seeing it to-morrow?" inquired Mary Jane of her brother Charles. "On the looking-glass," was her brothers reply.

NOTHING could be more generous than the following offer, from a country paper: "Show us a man too poor to pay for a country paper, and we will help him buy another dog or two."

AN old lady writes us: "I am 65 years old and was feeble and nervous all the time, when I bought a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic. I have used little more than one bottle and feel as well as at 30." See other column.

WE call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. Monroe Taylor. This house has been established nearly 40 years, and their goods are celebrated for purity and strength. We recommend a trial of their Gold Medal brands to all who desire superior cookery. 3

WE desire to call the attention of our readers to the Grand 60 day offer of the Mendelssohn Piano Company, whose advertisement appears elsewhere. This Company offers an $850 Square Grand Piano, 3 stringed, 7½ octaves, in a handsome rosewood case, for only $245, also many other styles of Pianos and Organs at great bargains for 60 days, including sheet music at one-third price. These Pianos, including Grand, Square Upright, made one of the finest displays at the Centennial Exhibition, and were unanimously recommended for the Diploma of Honor and Medal of Merit. The Mendelssohn Piano Co. are the first to do a general business with the purchaser direct, saving him more than one-half the price charged by other first-class makers.—This saving is made by doing away with the Agency System, and giving the people the Pianos at wholesale or agency prices. We would recommend any of our readers who have any idea of ever buying a piano or organ to send for their illustrated and descriptive catalogues, which will be mailed free to all. 3

EARS FOR THE MILLION!
Foo Choo's Balsam of Shark's Oil
Positively restores the Hearing, and is the Only Absolute Cure for Deafness Known.
This oil is extracted from a peculiar species of small White Shark, caught in the Yellow Sea, known as Carcharodon Rondeletii. Every Chinese fisherman knows it. Its virtues as a restorative of hearing were discovered by a Buddhist Priest about the year 1410. Its cures were so numerous and many so seemingly miraculous, that the remedy was officially proclaimed over the entire Empire. Its use became so universal that for over 300 years no Deafness has existed among the Chinese people. Sent charges prepaid, to any address at $1 per bottle.
Only Imported by HAYLOCK & CO., Sole Agents for America, 7 Dey St., New York.
Its virtues are unquestionable and its curative character absolute, as the writer can personally testify, both from experience and observation.
Among the many readers of the Review in one part and another of the country, it is probable that numbers are afflicted with deafness, and to such it may be said: "Write at once to Haylock & Co., 7 Dey St., New York, enclosing $1, and you will receive by return a remedy that will enable you to hear like anybody else, and whose curative effects will be permanent. You will never regret doing so."—Editor New York Mercantile Review, Sept. 25, 1880. jl4-3m.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla
For Purifying the Blood.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia and Mandrake, with the Iodides of Potash and Iron, makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions on the skin are the appearance at the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulceration of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions, and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.
