And accompanying said certificate & then and there filed therewith were certain papers & proceedings thereto fore had & taken in said County Court severally as follows.

To the Honorable the Judges of Baltimore County Court sitting in Equity.

Humbly complaining sheweth unto your Honors your orator John Glenn of the City of Baltimore as well on his own behalf as on behalf of all others creditors of Beale Randall according to their respective priorities who shall come in and contribute to the expenses of this suit.

That a certain Beale Randall of the City aforesaid being in the year 1833 largely engaged in business there applied to your orator & said him with his assistance means and that your orator did thereupon from time to time loan him large sums of money and endorse his notes for heavy amounts so that by the 16th day of May in the year following your orator was responsible for said Randall to the amount of eleven thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars discounted for his ~~own~~ use at Bank and had in addition advanced him and was his creditor for the sum of $18120 66/100 eighteen thousand one hundred and twenty dollars and sixty cents) which sum is still due and owing with interest to your orator by the said Beale Randall.

Further complaining sheweth your orator that so multiplied had been the occasions upon which the said Randall appealed to him for assistance that they were unable of themselves to agree upon the extent of the favors which had been done by your orator and the said Randall thereupon to wit on the day and year last aforesaid executed in favor of your orator his deed of Trust of certain property to save harmless and indemnify your orator against the consequences of his kindness and in and by said deed authorised and empowered Reverdy Johnson and James William M'Culloh Esquires to ascertain the extent of his indebtedness who took upon themselves the burthen thereof and accordingly declared the same to have been on the day and year of the execution of the said deed such as is hereinbefore particularly set forth.

Further complaining sheweth your orator that the said Reverdy Johnson and James William M'Culloh Esquires completed their examination of the transactions between the said Beale Randall and your orator (due notice having been given by them to both parties of all their meetings for that purpose) and declared the result of their labors in writing on the 12th day of May 1835 after which to wit on or about the 24th day of August following your orator instituted his action of debt in Baltimore County Court against said Randall and caused a capias to issue therein which being returned non est the writ was renewed to the following term of that court to wit to the January Term which was in the year 1836 and again returned non est and thereupon afterwards to wit on the 2.d day of February 1836 your orator obtained from said Court a judgment for attachment against the said Randall and the same issued accordingly and such proceedings were had thereon that on the 1st day of January 1838 your orator obtained a judgment of Condemnation against the property of the said Randall which had been returned as attached by the Sheriff of Baltimore County and caused a fieri facias to issue thereon and the said Sheriff having by virtue and in pursuance of said writ duly advertised and offered said property for sale by public auction your orator at said sale became the highest bidder for and purchaser thereof at and for the sum of eighty dollars which sum was duly paid and satisfied by him to said Sheriff who thereupon returned said writ to the Court aforesaid where the same now remains of record.

Further complaining sheweth your orator that on the 22.d June 1834 the said Beale Randall by his deed of that date expressing the consideration therefor to be the sum of seven hundred and forty two dollars twenty seven cents ($742.27) conveyed to a certain Charlotte Randall, Henrietta Randall and Deborah Randall who were his sisters and unmarried a part of four several tracts of land in Baltimore County known by the names of Nicholas Delight, The Laby rinth, Poplar Grove and Organs Forest containing in all 56 3/4 acres of land more or
