A Welcome Change

Smoke curling up from the farmhouse chimney as the men are coming in from the fields, gives a pretty suggestion of a good supper and a comfortable home. But it also means a hot, tired woman, working hard over a blazing fire.

Your wife can escape this with a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove.

A New Perfection keeps a kitchen many degrees cooler than any other range, yet it does all a coal or wood range can do. It saves time, labor and fuel. No wood to cut; no coal to carry; no ashes; no soot. With the New Perfection oven it is the best cooking device you can find anywhere.

New Perfection WICK BLUE FLAME Oil Cook-stove

Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners, with long, turquoise blue enameled chimneys. Handsomely finished throughout. The 2- and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without a cabinet top, which is fitted with drop shelves, towel racks, etc.

FASHIONABLE VAGARIES IN NEW YORK AND PARIS

Napoleon Hats Of Panama Straw—Embroidered Voile For Dresses and Trimmings—Little Bags Again—Straw Bows And Wings Russian Blouses In Silk And Satin.

Panama hats of wide spread looped back one slant from the face with a cockade of feathers, satin or velvet, are coming to the fore as the smart all round hat of the summer. Straw bows in cerise, green, king's blue, or in black and white stripes are another modish note in millinery and wings and butterfly ornaments with or without matching bands are among the best endorsed trimmings.

LITTLE BAGS.

Little bags of gold, silver or gun metal are once more in the running for the variety outfit. These have jewelled frames and contain beside the small card case, a little whisp of lace enclosing ing a tiny powder puff and a very small mirror. These do not displace the larger bags with their long cord handles but are used when the latter would be too cumbersome, or not sufficiently dressy to suit the get up or occasion. Strung on long jewelled chains they go to a dance or dinner as an ornamental appendage, as well as a great convenience.

EMBROIDERED VOILES.

Voiles embroidered with the woolen threads in a melange of Russian colors, or in many shades of one color are used for separate blouses, dresses, and for gamps, sleeves, cuffs and other trimmings with dresses of foulard or other silks. There is a new couching thread that sews on like braid, and looks exactly like embroidery which is very popular just now, when couched effects are faddish. Dresses of voile with trimmings of embroidery, or with pleatings and hems of taffeta silk in matching or contrasting color are very smartly worn here and in Paris.

WIDER SKIRTS.

The divided skirt has gone to the limbo of departed modes and no one is grieved about it. Paris prophesies that we will have wide skirts by Fall, that is a full yard wider than the one and-one-half yard measurement that is being worn there now. Most of the suit manufacturers are making up skirts with pleats for the coming season, but not the old time all pleated skirt by any means.

LITTLE TAFFETA BOLEROS.

Little wraps of a fichu order in grass linen and embroidered muslin are extremely popular and small bolero coats, many of them with long tails in the changeable taffetas that are the most exclusive style for silk tailormades now. Pinked ruches and knife pleatings of taffeta edge fichus of cotton voile and marquisette, and velvet ribbon sashes and trimmings are again much used.

The above design is by The McCall Company, New York, Designers and Makers of McCall Patterns.

RUSSIAN BLOUSE OF SILK AND SATIN.

The Russian blouse of silk or satin that matches the color of the suit or the coat lining is the last word in fashionable "tops" to wear with tailormades. A going away suit worn by a belle of the Smart Set here, whose wedding was of great interest, was of a thin black cloth threaded with white silk, making tiny squares. The coat lining was of navy blue satin of fine quality, but not thick, the hat of black hemp with a facing of navy blue velvet, and a full white aigrette trimming. The blouse of the blue satin ended at the waist in front, but at the sides and back there was an overhang reaching to the hip line. Black soutache braid two inches wide edged this and ran up on the pleats that gave a "coaty" look to the garment. The collar was of fine Irish lace, but the sleeves reached the wrist where they closed with small silver buttons. All the other buttons, and there a number on coat and skirt, were in ball shape covered with the navy blue satin.

BREAKFAST CAPS AND NEGLIGEES.

Little frilly caps to cover the hair when not coiffed for company, are increasingly popular and are made of any sort of material that is light and becoming. Most of the negligees made up for bridal trousseaux have a cap of this sort to match. A pretty negligee that anyone can make is of figured or embroidered China silk, folded once with an opening cut for the neck and a slit made down the front. This is bound all round with ribbon, or is hemmed and edged with lace, and slits are cut at the waistline front and back, which are finished with buttonholing and threaded with ribbon to tie the garment in place. Similar slits under the arm hold the sides together, and a pretty butterfly sack results from little expenditure of time or effort.
